IF the uses of adversity are not sweet—and Paul says they are not—they are most efficacious. You have to hit a nail on the head half a dozen times before it will comprehend its perfect destiny. Well, God has to deal with some men—fellows like you and me—in the same manner, sometimes.

SHERIFF CALLS BUSINESS MEN INTO STRIKE COUNCIL

FIRST VIOLENCE SEEN IN STONING OF STREET CARS

Indiana State Library

WILL PLAY WAITING GAME ON ORDINANCE

Federal Court May Be Asked to Block New City Law Aimed at the Car Strike-Breakers.

That the local management of the Fort Wayne & Northern Indiana Traction company would attempt no recourse against the "anti-strikebreakers" ordinance passed by the city council Tuesday evening, but would await developments, was the statement Wednesday afternoon of Hon. James M. Barrett, president of the corporation.

Until the ordinance is signed by the mayor, in effect and an attempt made to enforce it nothing here will be done about the measure, which requires conductors and motormen to have had fourteen days' experience on Fort Wayne lines before being placed in charge of cars.

Federal Interference May Come.

That there may be sought a federal injunction to restrain the city from enforcing the ordinance is admitted. President Barrett stated Wednesday afternoon that he could not say what would be done about that phase of the matter. Hon. Ferdinand Winter, of Indianapolis, is the western counsel for the United States Mortgage & Trust company, of Philadelphia, holders of the traction company's bonds. It was Mr. Winter who procured the federal injunction from Judge A. B. Anderson to restrain the carmen from going on strike.

President Barrett says he can merely inform Mr. Winter of what has taken place here and that recourse to the United States court for an injunction will be decided by the Indianapolis attorney, acting for the bondholders.

Statement By President Barrett.

"I have not at this time been able to get a copy of the ordinance passed Tuesday night by the city council, in which that body seems to assume the authority to manage and direct the service on the street railway lines of Fort Wayne, but from the scope of the ordinance, as indicated by newspaper publications, I have no hesitancy in saying that the measure will be without the slightest effect on the traction company in the operation of its cars in this city."

This statement was made by Hon. James M. Barrett, president of the Fort Wayne and Northern Indiana Traction company, Wednesday morning, in reference to the Korte ordinance making it unlawful to place city street cars in charge of motormen and conductors who have not had at least fourteen days' experience in such service.

President Barrett stated that he was arranging to procure a copy of the ordinance and could state more definitely what recourse the traction company would take when he had read the text of the measure.

May Seek Federal Injunction.

That the traction company may seek a federal injunction to restrain the city from enforcing the ordinance is strongly hinted. President Barrett stated Wednesday morning that Judge A. B. Anderson, of the United States district court for Indiana, had already held that a similar ordinance was invalid and without force.

An injunction would, in such a case, lie against the city government and enjoin it from putting the terms of the ordinance into effect. The ordinance is a penal measure and provides for a fine of from $5 to $100 for violation.

May Appeal to Utilities Board.

The traction company has a right to appeal to the state public service commission on a complaint that the ordinance is an unreasonable measure. The state board would then have a hearing upon it and determine whether or not the traction corporation is unreasonably restricted in the proper operation of its cars by the provisions of the ordinance. Meanwhile, however, the ordinance would remain in effect as being prima facie reasonable, and would doubtless have its intended effect on the strike now in progress on the Fort Wayne traction lines.

It is expected that later in the day the traction company will take steps to test the ordinance in some tribunal, either federal or state.

Pending that step the traction company will proceed to ignore the ordinance, which cannot become effective earlier than Thursday morning, when it shall have had legal publication and signature by the mayor.

Some Thought Action Hasty.

After the street car ordinance had been read a second time in the city council Tuesday evening, Herman Korte, member from the Tenth ward and author of the measure, moved that the rules be suspended, the ordinance read a third time and put on its passage. This precipitated a lively debate.

Councilman Paul Kinder said he believed the ordinance ought not to be hastily passed and wanted it referred to committee. Korte rejoined that the ordinance was for the protection of life and property in Fort Wayne and that to wait two weeks would carry the passing of the measure beyond need for

ONCE MORE IN GRAND REVIEW

Veterans' Lines Pass Down Historic Pennsylvania Avenue.

WILSON REVIEWS MARCHING HOSTS

Great Parade is Climax of National Encampment at Washington.

Washington, Sept. 29.—All that remains of the Union army of 200,000 which fifty years ago passed in review before President Johnson marched up Pennsylvania avenue from the capitol to the white house today and was reviewed by President Wilson. Thousands banked along the line of march cheered the G. A. R. veterans. There were confederate veterans in the crowd and they did some hearty cheering, too.

Join in Singing.

As a fife and drum corps passed the veterans playing "Rally Round the Flag, Boys," many in the president's stand joined in singing the chorus. As each contingent swung along applause broke out afresh, and many of the old soldiers responded to the president's greeting by waving flags.

Tired by the march from the capitol to the white house, a little more than a mile, veterans looked exhausted when they reached the president's stand. Many leaned upon younger and more robust comrades. A few strode forward with unfaltering steps.

President Remains Standing.

The president stood through the review removing his hat each time an American flag passed. The procession was headed by Lieut. Gen. Nelson A.

WOMAN TOLD HIM IT WAS ARRANGED FOR

State Paid Hotel Bill for Bell Trial Witness, He Declares.

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 29.—That the state paid a witness' hotel bill and engaged a woman who visited his room, was the testimony of Charles W. Clark, at the trial today of Mayor Joseph E. Bell, charged with election conspiracy. Clark was a witness for the state last week and was recalled for further cross examination over the objection of the state.

On his direct examination Clark said when he went to vote in the Eighth precinct of the Third ward, where the state charged there was much fraud, he found that his name had already been voted.

The witness said an attache of the prosecutor's office brought him to the city from Cumberland, this county, the day before he testified. He said he was given a pair of trousers and that he was taken to a couple of shows.

"Then he took me to a hotel for the night," continued the witness. "There I met a woman. I told her I didn't have any money, but she said it was already arranged for."

Clark said on redirect examination he had told the truth when previously testifying and that was the only question by Prosecutor A. J. Rucker.

"Perrott told me he could do me a lot of good or cause me much trouble and that I had better help him," testified Joseph Lane, a negro saloonkeeper. He said Chief of Police Samuel V. Perrott, a co-defendant, called him to the police station and that he refused to make a contribution. The witness said later he made a contribution of $25 to Charles Maas, then city weights inspector, and Louis Lasch, when Maas promised him protection for his saloon.

PUTS GERMAN LOSSES HIGH

Paris Declares Its Foes Have Lost 120,000 in New Offensive.

BERLIN DISPUTES CLAIMED ADVANCE

British Record a Victory Over the Turks in Mesopotamia.

Today's War News Given in Summary.

Marked successes for the arms of the entente allies, those in France evidently in continuation of their vigorous general offensive started last Saturday, are recorded in the official statements issued in London and Paris today.

On the western front the offensive movement is being vigorously pressed and further advances have been scored.

Far off in Asia an important military movement against the Turks has resulted in a brilliant victory for the British in Mesopotamia.

On the other hand, the Germans declare they have succeeded in recapturing a part of the territory the British had won north of Loos in northern France.

The beginning of the predicted drive by 300,000 Austrian and German troops into Serbia is also reported by the Athens correspondent of a London news agency, who says the advance has begun in the direction of Orsova.

In communications notably confident in tone the French war office emphasizes the importance of the victory won by the allies in their new offensive on the western front. It recounts that the Germans have been compelled to give up strongly fortified positions on an extended front which they had been ordered to defend to the last and declares that they have suffered since the beginning of the allies' offensive the loss of 120,000 men killed, wounded and missing.

The lessening for a time of the German pressure on the northern half of the Russian front is believed in Petrograd military circles to have been due in part to the withdrawal of large bodies of troops to reinforce the German lines in the west.

The latest statement of the Russian war office says the situation around Dvinsk is unchanged, but that the heavy fighting is continuing.

Paris, Sept. 29.—German casualties in the recent offensive of the French and British including killed, wounded and prisoners, were given officially by the French war office today as in excess of the strength of three army corps (more than 120,000 men).

MOTORCYCLIST MAY BE FATALLY HURT

Alex E. Gonzales, aged 22 years, who lives at 1141 East Washington street and is employed as a clerk in the Weber drug store on South Fairfield avenue, suffered concussion of the brain at 10:30 o'clock Wednesday morning when he lost control of his motorcycle and crashed into the side of the building at Fairfield avenue and Brackenridge street. He was picked up in an unconscious condition by Dr. C. F. Kaadt and rushed to St. Joseph hospital. His condition is regarded as extremely critical.

Mr. Gonzales, who is a native of South America, has been in Fort Wayne for several years and for the past two years has been employed as a drug clerk. Wednesday morning he jumped on his motorcycle to make a hurry up run to the Drug company on West Wayne street. As he neared the street crossing at Brackenridge and Fairfield avenue where the street makes a jog, he was compelled to make a quick turn to avoid hitting a buggy. In doing this he lost control of the machine and he crashed headlong into the building at the northwest corner occupied by Freitag's saloon. He was thrown with great force against the side of the building, alighting on his head.

Dr. Kaadt states that it is impossible as yet to determine whether there was a fracture of the skull or not. The injured man remained in a semi-conscious condition all afternoon.

NEW MOVE TO BRING PEACE IS LAUNCHED

In a new movement to restore peace to the local traction situation a considerable number of well known business and professional men, some of them present as representatives of important civic organizations, met with Sheriff A. C. Gladieux, in his office in the court house, at 1 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, and discussed possible measures.

It was felt that the time to bring about an understanding was before and not after the situation had brought extremities. A definite course was not adopted, but the movement for peace was given a start.

Sheriff Gladieux declined to discuss the meeting and would not say who had been in consultation with him.

SPECIAL CAR WILL CARRY DELEGATES

Fifty Local People Will Attend Huntington C. E. Convention.

A special interurban car over the Fort Wayne and Northern Indiana Traction company will carry delegates from Fort Wayne to the Christian Endeavor convention to be held in the Christian church at Huntington beginning Friday evening and extending through Sunday. The special car leaves the interurban station at 6:45 o'clock Friday evening and will return immediately after the evening's services. It is anticipated by officials in charge that over fifty people from this city will attend all the sessions.

The annual convention of the Christian Endeavor societies of the Fort Wayne district opens with a fellowship meeting and banquet at which time Rev. Willis Gelston, of Michigan City, will deliver an address. The sessions Saturday will be devoted to conference work led by R. A. Walter, the state field secretary, and Bertha Harding, of Logansport, the superintendent of the Quiet Hour and Tenth Legion department.

Dr. Ira Landrith, who was with the Flying Squadron when it held meetings here last fall and who also spoke at the A. C. W. temperance rally at Foster park on July 5, will speak both Sunday afternoon and evening. Sunday afternoon the Junior C. E. department will conduct a meeting all by itself with the exception of the devotionals, which will be led by Miss May Lansdown, junior superintendent.

Word has been received here that the registration so far numbers nearly 200. Evan Williams, secretary of Allen County C. E. union, offers a beautiful pennant to any society in the county which has the largest per cent of its members at this convention.

CHILD'S ARM DRAWN THROUGH A WRINGER

Robert Hilbisch, aged two and one-half years, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Hilbisch, of 2112 South Calhoun street, suffered painful injury at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning when his arm was drawn through an electric wringer. Before the current could be turned off the entire forearm up to the elbow was crushed. The attending physician found that no bones were broken, but that the flesh was badly smashed. It is thought that the arm can be saved.

The mother was washing with an electric washer with an electric wringer attachment and when she had her back turned the little fellow fell towards the machine and the wringer caught his fingers. She heard the child scream and stopped the machine as quickly as possible.

It was some time before the tot's arm could be liberated because the wringer can not be reversed and had to be taken apart to take the arm out. It seems miraculous that the bones in the arm were not crushed.

NINETEENTSTATES ARE REPRESENTED

Indianapolis, Sept. 29.—The third annual session of the Mississippi valley conference of tuberculosis was formally opened here today. Governor Samuel M. Ralston made an address of welcome when the meeting was called to order. Governor James B. McCreary, of Kentucky, made the principal address of the session. His subject was "Tuberculosis in the Kentucky and the Mississippi Valley."

A "speechless" banquet, at which no addresses were made, was held at noon. Vice President Thomas R. Marshall was the toastmaster.

PLEADS FOR UNION OF PRESBYTERIANS

Rev. J. E. Clarke Urges It Before the Southern Membership.

Hot Springs, Ark., Sept. 29.—A suggestion of a union with the southern church as a method of overcoming the lack of solidarity and improving the efficiency of the church was emphasized by the Rev. J. E. Clarke, of Nashville, Tenn., chairman of the southern district efficiency committee of the Presbyterian church in his address on the "Situation and Problems of Our Church in the South," here today.

"Our purpose today is to consider, that the heavy fighting is continuing. terian church, U. S. A., living in the south and southwest, may best promote the kingdom of God and be more efficient in carrying out our policy," declared the speaker. "We are to consider primarily conditions as they are not theories and ideals, though the latter may be touched upon.

"I believe that Presbyterians in the south and southwest can never approach the ideal of efficiency until those in the Presbyterian church U. S. A. and in the Presbyterian church in the United States are organically united into one communion. The existence of two separate churches of the same name and general character in the same general field is not an ideal situation but it takes two to make a bargain. Our southern Presbyterian brethren seem not to be ready therefore it behooves us to consider our duty in the light of a situation that is not ideal."

Dr. Clarke pointed out that the Presbyterian church U. S. A. is not a "northern church" as it often is referred to but a national church and insisted on solidarity of Presbyterian churches is one of the prime necessities, in greater efficiency.

"This convention is the first chance in years for our people of this section to come together. The weaker parts need the help of the strong. There is power in the consciousness of solidarity; there is weakness in loneliness."

BANKS MAY STAY OUT; INDIVIDUALS TO BUY

Chicago, Sept. 29.—That Chicago banks probably would not participate in the Anglo-French loan as banks, but that the middle west financiers as individuals would subscribe to the foreign loan, seemed the prevailing opinion in banking circles today as the hour of the departure of the loan commissioners approached.

Many consultations were held by Thomas W. Lamont, representative of J. P. Morgan & Co., with officials of bond houses and through the morning he explained to them the provisions of the proposed loan of $500,000,000 outlined by Baron Reading, head of the Anglo-French commission, last night. The party left at 12:40 for New York.

EAGLES PREPARE TO DISPENSE WITH BAR

Attorney Albert E. Thomas, representing the W. C. T. U., in its fight against club and lodge bars, has been informed by officials of the Eagle's lodge that at a meeting of the order to be held Friday night action would be taken on the closing of the bar and that such action would be favorable. No action has been taken by the Moose, it is understood.

WINDOWS IN SEVERAL CITY CARS SMASHED

Police Make Hurried Runs to Various Points in City Where Attacks on Cars Are Reported.

UNION MEN ORDERED TO AVOID ALL VIOLENCE.

"Our association has given strict orders that all violence and disturbances be avoided. There will be no necessity for extra police so far as we are concerned."—Statement of Union Carmen's press committee.

The third day of the street car situation resulted in the first acts of violence that has taken place since agitation was started, four cars being stoned up to alate hour Wednesday afternoon.

A reward of $300 has been offered by the traction company for the apprehension and conviction of the person or persons guilty of throwing stones at the East Creighton street car Wednesday morning.

Motorman Is Injured.

Motorman Thompson, of the car held up when an attack was made on East Creighton aveenue near the Bowser plant Wednesday afternoon, was said to have been painfully injured, and was taken to St. Joseph's hospital. Thompson's home is in Indianapolis.

There was a rumor to the effect that a number of shots were fired into the car.

Trouble on Broadway.

Trouble has been brewing almost the entire day near the Fort Wayne Electric works of the General Electric company, on Broadway, two cars being stoned in that section of the city. The late outbreak occurred shortly after 1 o'clock, when Broadway car No. 205 was stoned and egged. One large stone was hurled through the front glass, narrowly missing the head of Motorman Korporal, an old employe of the company. Two imported men were on the car, but no passengers. Shortly before noon another Broadway car was stoned near the same place, the glass in the rear being shattered.

Trolley Rope Cut.

A car was surrounded on the West Main street line, near the Wayne Knitting mills, Wednesday afternoon, by sympathizers, the trolley rope being cut and a glass broken out. The crew had sought refuge on the bottom of the car when the police arrived.

The most serious outbreak of the day, however, was Wednesday afternoon on Broadway, the patrol wagon loaded with patrolmen making a hurried run to the scene of the trouble. A tremendous crowd had gathered, yelling "scab" and hurling othe repithets at the motormen and conductors as the cars passed by. Throughout the entire day cars have been held up by automobiles that persist in going "dead" on the tracks.

Hooper Cited for Contempt.

A summons was served on Jacob C. Hooper, Wednesday, by Deputy United States Marshal Haggerty, to appear in the federal court at Indianapolis on the morning of October 5 and show cause why he should not be held for contempt of court. Joseph C. Colgan, member of the executive committee of the Amalgamated Association of Street and Electric Railway Employes, and Claude B. Huston, a member of the grievance committee of the local union, were served with the summons Tuesday morning, but the one for Hooper had the name "James E. Hooper" and had to be sent back to Indianapolis for correction. The three men are charged with contempt of court for the alleged violation of the court's temporary restraining order. They will be compelled to show cause why they should not be held to pay such sums and compensation to the parties entitled to receive it as the court shall find, and to answer any other order of the court that may be made.

Press Committee Named.

At the meeting of the union Wednesday morning a press committee was named composed of the following: W. H. Didier, chairman; A. G. Wolford, H. E. Dininger and W. P. Helms. At the close of the meeting the following statement was made:

"Our association has given strict orders that all violence and disturbances should be avoided. There will be no necessity for extra police so far as we are concerned." Another meeting of the union was held at 2 o'clock.

At 1 o'clock a small mob on East Creighton avenue near the Bowser Oil tank works surrounded a car, cut the trolley rope, drove the motorman and conductor inside the car and made them prisoners by wedging the doors fast. The strike-breakers were not injured. They were liberated by the police. The members of the mob had disappeared before the motorcycle police reached the scene.

First Act of Violence.

The first serious act of violence occurred Wednesday morning on the East

HOSEY WILL INSIST ON PLAIN YES OR NO REPLY BY COMPANY

Mayor William J. Hosey will insist on a plain yes or no answer from the Fort Wayne and Northern Indiana Traction company to his proposal for a conference of representatives of the corporation with representatives of the striking carmen's union with a view to finding means to settle the difficulty.

Mayor Hosey will during the day send to President James M. Barrett of the traction company a pointed note declining to acceept Mr. Barrett's letter of Tuesday as an answer to his peace proposal.

The mayor will ask President Barrett to state whether or not he is willing to submit his letter of Tuesday to an impartial board to decide whether or not that letter's statements and conclusions shall stand as the traction company's position on the issue of local arbitration, that position to be determined upon the merits of the communication.

Public Party at Interest.

The mayor's new note will declare that while it is true, as President Barrett stated in his letter, the Traction company has "sacred, legal and constitutional rights" at stake in the industrial controversy now in progress that the people of Fort Wayne have equally sacred, legal and constitutional rights at stake.

Mayor Hosey does not esteem President Barrett's letter a communication to himself as a categorical answer to his peace proposals, but an appeal to the public. He wants it plainly understood that he is not making any overtures for finding a place for himself as arbiter of the difficulty, but that as mayor of the city and speaking for its people he has merely tendered his good offices to find an opening for negotiations that may lead to peace and the end of a situation that is an inconvenience and distress to business and the citizens and a menace to public order.

Mayor Hosey will strongly insist on a direct answer to his proposal that the Traction company and the strikers try to agree on an impartial board of arbitration.

THREE MILITIAMEN MAKE CONFESSION

Terre Haute Guardsmen Admit Robbery Charge, Police Say.

Terre Haute, Ind., Sept. 29.—Three men arrested here early today on advices from the Indianapolis police that they were implicated in the robbery there on the night of Sept. 5 of Captain J. S. May, confessed to the police, the latter announced.

The men are Wayne Phillips, Robert Christenberry and Joseph McMahon, all members of the local militia company. According to the police the men confessed that on the night of Sept. 5, while the guardsmen were in camp at the speedway to take part in the "War in Indiana" spectacle on Labor Day, they engaged May to drive them a distance from the track in his automobile. When some distance away the men robbed May of $18 and a gold watch, bound him and left him beside the road, according to the police report of the confession. They then drove back to the speedway, abandoning the car near the grounds.

BROTHER OF FORT WAYNE CLERGYMAN WAS ON SUNKEN ITALIAN BATTLESHIP

London, Sept. 29.—A dispatch from the Stefani news agency of Rome says that the Italian battleship Benedetto Brin sank following an explosion which resulted from the fire on board the vessel. The cause of the disaster has not been ascertained.

The announcement last night of the explosion on the Benedetto Brin did not make it clear whether the vessel had gone down. It was said 8 officers and 379 marines had been saved. Something over 300 men are still unaccounted for.

A brother of Rev. Father Anthony Petrilli, pastor of St. Joseph's Catholic (Italian) church, at Bass street and Fairfield avenue, is an under-officer on the Benedette Brin, and the Fort Wayne clergyman is naturally extremely apprehensive regarding the safety of his relative. He has as yet had no word save that carried in the press dispatches.

WARDEN'S SLAYER DIES FROM WOUNDS

Escaped Convict Succumbs in Revolver Battle With Posse.

Albany, Ore., Sept. 29.—Otto Hooker, an escaped convict who shot and killed Harry Minto, warden of the Oregon state penitentiary at Salem, and probably fatally wounded J. J. Benson, city marshal of Jefferson, died today from wounds suffered in a revolver battle with a posse last night. Hooker was discovered shortly before midnight. A posse surrounded the house and demanded that he surrender. Hooker replied with a volley from a revolver. As his fire was drawn in another direction, a member of the posse crept to a window and fired a bullet through the convict's lung. The convict escaped from a road gang Monday. Warden Minto with a posse encountered Hooker a few miles from Salem Monday night. A revolver battle ensued in which Minto was killed. As Hooker fled through Jefferson Marshal Benson fought hand to hand with him and was shot with his own weapon which Hooker had wrested from him.

Hooker had served a year of a sentence for burglary. He was regarded as a model prisoner.

BIG INDIANA MILLS MAKE WAR MUNITIONS

Gary, Ind., Sept. 29.—The Calumet region of Indiana has become a vast arsenal for the manufacture of war munitions.

At Aetna, on the eastern limits of Gary, 1,000 men are making gun cotton. A new Benzol plant has just been completed at Gary. Steel bars for shrapnel purposes, it is said, are being rolled in the Gary steel mills. A new shrapnel plant is being built at East Chicago and military acids are being produced in that city. Hammond shortly will produce shrapnel stations.

Depots for cavalry mounts are at Gary and Hammond, a military cattle feeding station being located at the Steel City. It is reported local foundries can cast cannon if necessary.

BRYAN VOICES FINE TRIBUTE TO WILSON

Nashville, Tenn., Sept. 29.—William J. Bryan in an address here last night paid the following tribute to President Wilson:

"Happy for our nation that we have in the white house at this time a president who believes in setting the old world a good example, instead of following the bad example which the old world sets in this matter. What an unspeakable misfortune it would have been if in such an hour as this the nation had been under the leadership of a president inflamed by the false philosophy which has plunged Europe into the abyss of war."

SCHMITZ IS SECOND WITH ROLPH WINNER

San Francisco, Sept. 29—Apparently for the second time James Rolph, jr., has been elected mayor of San Francisco at the municipal primary which was held yesterday. Although the official returns will not be known until late in the day carefully tabulated counts of incomplete returns from each of the city's 651 precints early today gave him a majority of all the votes for mayor. These tabulations gave Rolph 22,460 votes. Eugene E. Schmitz, deposed as mayor during the graft prosecutions of 1906-07, after his conviction on a charge of extortion, which later was set aside by the supreme court of California, was second, with a total of 12,897 and Supervisor Andrew J. Gallagher with 5,631.

There were five other candidates for mayor, but although no tabulations were kept on the votes cast for them, it was generally conceded that Mayor Rolph had been re-elected. ASKS UNCLE SAM TO RELEASE HIS GRIP

Chicago, Sept. 29.—The first move on the part of the defense in the federal Eastland case was made yesterday when Attorneys William S. Forrest and Benjamin Bachrach appeared before Judge Landis with a petition asking the government to relinquish jurisdiction over the defendants.

Steele, of St. Joseph, Mich., secretary-treasurer of the St. Joseph-Chicago Steamship company, one of the eight individual defendants accompanied the lawyers to court.

None of the defendants gave the required bond of $10,000. As a consequence bench warrants for the arrest of all the defendants were ordered issued. The warrants will be served at the place of residence of each of the indicted individuals. Following this removal proceedings will be started before local United States commissioners.

COMES TO SEE HIS AGED PARENT HERE

John Dedrick, Himself No Youth, Falls by the Wayside.

Explaining to Judge Kerr that when he left Kewanee, Ill., to come to Fort Wayne to visit his ninety-five-year-old father, whom he had not seen for forty-five years, the last words of his wife had been, "Don't you take a drink." John Dedrick, himself 63 years old, confessed that he had disobeyed the wifely injunction to the extent of one drink in Chicago and several as soon as he arrived in Fort Wayne, Tuesday evening. He was found on Baker street by Officer Godfrey inquiring of chance passersby where the Pennsylvania station was located and what train he should take to arrive in Fort Wayne. He was locked up for the night and had a palpable hangover when he was arraigned. Judge Kerr let him go on his promise to hike for the home of his venerable parent on Lumbard street.

Alters a Severe Dose.

After having imposed on Ernest Steil a penalty of $100 and costs and 180 days at the state farm, all of which would have kept the offender there for 290 days, Judge Kerr reconsidered the case and bound him over to the circuit court under $1,000 bond on a charge of child neglect. Steil deserted his wife and children here over a year ago. His desertion drove his wife insane and she is now at Easthaven asylum. Steil was arrested in Duluth, Minn., a few days ago on a warrant issued soon after he fled. He was told before sentence that if he could secure bond for the support of his children he would be released. He asked his wife's father, who was in the court room, to aid him, but that gentleman declined. Steil went to jail.

Bound Over for Horse Stealing.

After having had his case before him half a dozen different times on the installment plan, either because of continuances by the state or by the defense, Judge Kerr, Wednesday morning, certified Ralph Dunlap to the circuit court on a charge of horse-stealing, fixing his bond at $1,000. Dunlap, who is a paroled man, hired a horse of Walter Tonkel, a liveryman at Huntertown, and tried to sell the animal at the Burnett sales stables.

Other City Court Cases.

There was a big array of drunks in police court Wednesday, the police having been specially diligent in picking up the souses Tuesday and Tuesday night, to make sure they would not connect up in any way with the street car strike. The following were disposed of: Ed Scott, of Cincinnati, allowed to leave town; William Strong, a traveling jeweler, who started his jag in Kendallville, permitted to return to that city; Tom Quinn, who said he wanted to get back to the soldiers' home in Marion, permitted to start; Dave Murphy, dead on the sidewalk, held until October 4 to come back to life; James McDonough, got $1 and costs for being drunk with John Logan, who was begging on the streets; John Bresnahan, $1 and costs; Tom Mitchell, drunk and sleeping in a down town corner, held for a day to get sober; Matt Johnson, a one-legged man who was drunk and begging, given an hour to get started back to Plymouth, Ind.

Tom Lewis, a negro, who has been in frequently this year, was charged with drunkenness and previous convictions. He was fined $10 and costs and given fifteen days in jail.

On a charge of disorderly conduct "Butch" Skelton was fined $1 and costs and given thirty days in jail. He created a disturbance at Calhoun and Wayne streets Tuesday night.

Pete Brushmaker, charged with neglecting his wife, was ordered to pay his wife $3.50 a week and released on his own recognizance. His wife said she didn't want to live with him any more.

LITTLE PEACE PROSPECT.

No Progress Toward Strike Settlement at Chicago.

Chicago, Sept. 29.—Prospects of an early settlement of the strike of several thousand garment workers were not bright today as the strikers entered on the third day of the walkout.

Neither the manufacturers nor union leaders had made any move for peace, it was announced. Efforts of union organizers to induce employes to stop work continued. Sidney Hillman, president of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers of America, encouraged the strikers with the statement that victory, increased wages and shorter hours will be their ultimate reward.

GLASS TRIAL OCTOBER 11.

Man Charged With Murder of Jennie Beaird's Babe to Have Another Hearing.

Plymouth, Ind., Sept. 29.—The second trial of Ora Glass, of Twin Lake, for the murder of the new-born babe of Jennie Leota Beaird, the 17-year-old Fort Wayne girl, who charges that Glass was the author of her ruin and the father of her infant, has been set for trial in the circuit court of Marshall county, Monday, October 11. Four days are allowed on the trial calendar for the hearing of the case. Prosecutor McKesson will again represent the state, and Messrs. Unger and Lauer will appear for the defense. Glass was tried last April and after a sensational hearing, the jury returned a verdict of disagreement. Jennie Beaird's story is that Glass strangled her new-born infant with a handkerchief while she lay helpless on a bed in the home occupied by Glass and his mother, at Twin Lake. The crime is alleged to have been committed last February. Glass was arrested after Mrs. Ida I. Beaird, of 1622 Fletcher avenue, Fort Wayne, mother of Jennie, had come here and learned her daughter's story. Glass took the body of the babe and buried it with his own hands in a cemetery near Twin Lake.

The Japanese Tailor

They tell a story about a missionary to Japan, who, needing a new suit of clothes, went to a Japanese tailor, taking with him an old suit to be used as a model.

The Japanese tailor was unaccustomed to European fashions, but he had ability, so he went to work, copying, as was his instruction, the old suit to the minutest detail.

Imagine the surprise of the missionary to find, upon the return of the suit, that it was a perfect copy of the old, even to a tiny patch that had repaired the old trousers!

Our fashions are just as close copies of their Paris originals, exact as to every detail—but there are no imprefections to copy, and our prices are brought down to a reasonable basis.

Exodus 8:20-32.

20 And the Lord said unto Moses, Rise up early in the morning, and stand before Pharaoh; lo, he cometh forth to the water; and say unto him, Thus saith the Lord, Let my people go, that they may serve me.

21 Else, if thou wilt not let my people go, behold, I will send swarms of flies upon thee, and upon thy servants, and upon thy people, and into thy houses; and the houses of the Egyptians shall be full of swarms of flies, and also the ground whereon they are.

22 And I will sever in that day the land of Goshen, in which my people dwell, that no swarms of flies shall be there; to the end thou mayest know that I am the Lord in the midst of the earth.

23 And I will put a division between my people and thy people; tomorrow shall this sign be.

24 And the Lord did so; and there came a grievous swarm of flies into the house of Pharaoh, and into his servants' houses, and into all the land of Egypt; the land was corrupted by reason of the swarm of flies.

25 And Pharoah called for Moses and for Aaron, and said, Go ye, sacrifice to your God in the land.

26 And Moses said, It is not meet so to do; for we shall sacrifice the abomination of the Egyptians to the Lord our God; lo, shall we sacrifice the abomination of the Egyptians before their eyes, and will they not stone us?

27 We will go three days' journey into the wilderness, and sacrifice to the Lord our God, as he shall command us.

28 And Pharaoh said, I will let you go, that ye may sacrifice to the Lord your God in the wilderness; only ye shall not go very far away; intreat for me.

29 And Moses said, Behold, I go out from thee, and I will intreat the Lord that the swarms of flies may depart from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people, tomorrow; but let not Pharaoh deal deceitfully any more in not letting the people go to sacrifice to the Lord.

30 And Moses went out from Pharaoh, and intreated the Lord.

31 And the Lord did according to the word of Moses; and he removed the swarms of flies from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people; there remained not one.

32 And Pharaoh hardened his heart at this time also, neither would he let the people go.

VOL. LXXXIII..... No. 6

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 29, 1915.

Fort Wayne's Part in It.

The meeting which has been called at the Commercial club rooms on the evening of October 6 to consider plans for Fort Wayne's celebration of Indiana's centennial next year, is one which should enlist the interest and the participation of every citizen. Indiana's century of history as a state is a notable one, and Fort Wayne has had no small part in its making. By all means let the recognition be in full keeping with the importance of the anniversary and commensurate with Fort Wayne's uniformly large way of doing things.

General plans for the state celebration are in the hands of a commission named by Governor Ralston, and Fort Wayne has been handsomely recognized by the appointment of Samuel M. Foster to membership on that commission. In turn J. Ross McCulloch has been chosen as the special agent for Allen county in the promotion of centennial plans. There is not only ample opportunity but the positive desire that every county and every city make preparation for suitable observance of the centennial, and the range of latitude on the program is a wide one. Here in Fort Wayne, with its wealth of historic associations, one of the very best celebrations in the entire state should be held. There is no time to be lost if the celebration is made all that it should be made. The Sentinel hopes to see a very general and very definite interest in the centennial project locally. In that way alone can it be made the tremendous success it ought to be.

Mayor Stidger, of Kokomo, cast the deciding vote in the city council that killed an ordinance designed to prohibit the licensing or operation of saloons within two miles of the city limits. Mayor Stidger is listed as a "wet," and his action is said to have been expected. The reason he is quoted as giving for his opposition to the ordinance—that he did not desire to impose additional duties on the police force—is so unique in its way as to entitle it to high rank as an absurdity. The contention that the absence of the saloon makes additional work for the police is scarcely borne out by the showing of experience anywhere. It almost invariably works the other way about. The saloon makes work for the policeman instead of easing off his duties.

It will be observed that the war news continues to run true to the form which was established early in the conflict. One faction stoutly asserts that it is making tremendous gains and that the other fellow is on the run. Just as positively the other faction comes back with the claim that nothing like that is happening, and that as a matter of fact every effort of the foe is being rendered futile and harmless. No other big news event in the world's history ever offered so wide a variety for the selection of the particular version you may prefer to believe.

Kankakee land owners have filed suit at Laporte in an attempt to force the return by the state of some $480,000 acquired by the sale of the former swamp lands in western Indiana, contending that it should have been expended for improvements only in the district from which it was obtained. When all others fail, it is still safe to depend upon the drainage question to supply groundwork for the liveliest and most long-winded sort of legal action.

Governor Frank B. Willis, of Ohio, is credited with intention to formally launch his boom as a republican presidential candidate in the course of a series of addresses he is shortly to make in the west, and will follow it up by breaking the same news to a few eastern audiences. You can prove by any resident of the Buckeye state that no presidential campaign can be a success without at least one candidate from Ohio, and that two of them makes it even better.

A Lafayette young man and his sweetheart eloped in a taxicab in which they drove a distance of one hundred miles to Danville, Ill., in order to wed. If the meter on the machine was permitted to ramble right along during the entire trip, the groom doubtless has by this time a fairly good comprehension of what is meant when casual reference is made to the high cost of living.

And in the meantime—keep calm.

REMNANT OF THE GRAND ARMY.

(Pittsburg Dispatch.)

For many years each successive encampment of the members of the Grand Army of the Republic has been increasingly somber, not to say pathetic, on account of the naturally rapid diminution of numbers. It is estimated that not more than 30,000 of the 160,000 which marched through Pennsylvania avenue in Washington fifty years ago, bearing their battle flags, tattered in various campaigns, cheering their own victory and the ending of four years of horrible war, will pass over the same route this week, few of them proudly erect as in that halcyon moment, the most stalwart of them showing the inevitable and inexorable march of time.

It is probable that few of the veterans, who will be as merry as they can in Washington this week, are under the age of 65 years. Most of them are surely verging closely on their three score and ten, or will have passed that scriptural limitation; but among all of them will be found a host still robust and able to have full part in the joys of life, now and for several years to come. Therefore, if there be many to whom the short march of this week will be a task, there will be many more to give a heartiness to the scene, robust and virile, and who will recount at their campfires stirring incidents of the war and reminiscences of triumphal entry to Washington in 1865 and of their joyous home-coming.

General Sherman led the victorious army, all that escaped shot and shell and bayonet and who were not in hospitals, in that brilliant pageant. General Miles, 76 years old, will marshal the Grand Remnant this week. The only two living commanders and only five division commanders will be in line, among the latter General Gregg, of this state. Notwithstanding the affecting features of the scene, however, the grand old fellows will make a merry time of it, most of them, and forget any sensation of age in fighting their battles over again. .

NO SPECIAL SESSION.

(Indianapolis News.)

The president, it is announced, has decided not to call the senate together in extraordinary session. There was really no reason why he should have done so. The question of cloture is an old one, and it is also one in which the people are not greatly interested. The truth, of course, is that men think that filibustering is a patriotic thing when it is directed against a measure of which they do not approve, and almost treasonable when it is employed to defeat a measure which they favor. The question, therefore, is rarely considered on its merits, and in truth it is not always easy so to consider it. There is certainly no reason for any special haste in this business of changing the senate's rules.

It is to be said further that no action which the people earnestly desired was ever prevented by a filibuster. Often there has been delay, and sometimes of a very senseless and vexatious sort. But, even under the present rules, the senate is not stronger than the American people, and is not able to thwart their will. The ship purchase bill could hardly have been held up if there had been any real popular demand for it. Years ago, it may be remembered, there was a determined and persistent filibuster against the bill repealing the purchasing clause of the Sherman act—yet repeal was carried. On the contrary, some very objectionable measures, such as the force bill, have been defeated by the filibuster.

This is not to say that there ought not to be some modification of the senate rules, but only that the matter is of no such importance as to demand an extraordinary session of the senate. Here again the modification will be made when the people really want it. But just now they care little about it. As for the pending treaties, they can well wait for the regular session. Indeed, this is practically admitted by those who have favored an early session of the senate, since the chief reason they have assigned has been the necessity of making it possible for the senate to limit debate. The decision of the president is, we think, clearly right.

JITNEY OWNERS FILE DENIAL.

Terre Haute Men Make Answer to New York Company's Complaint.

Indianapolis, Sept. 29.—An answer to the complaint of the Fidelity Trust company of New York against sixty-one "jitney" bus owners and operators of Terre Haute to stop the operation of such vehicles on the streets of that city was filed with the clerk of the federal court yesterday. The allegations of the complaint for the most part are denied and controverted. By way of answer it is alleged that thirty-eight of the defendants are not owners of "jitney" buses. Eighteen of the defendants admit their affiliation with the jitney bus union in Terre Haute.

TO END CATARRHAL DEAFNESS AND HEAD NOISES

If you have Catarrhal Deafness or head noises go to your druggist and get 1 ounce of Parmint (double strength), and add to it ¼ pint of hot water and 4 ounces of granulated sugar. Take 1 tablespoonful four times a day.

This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head noises. Clogged nostrils should open, breathing become easy and the mucus stop dropping into the throat. It is easy to prepare, costs little and is pleasant to take. Any one who has Catarrhal Deafness or head noises should give this prescription a trial.

MAID READS PAPERS; BLOCKS BANDITS RAID

Chicago, Sept. 29.—Three auto bandits who planned to hold up Mrs. Edward H. Bagley, wife of a wealthy commission merchant, in her residence at 813 Buena avenue, were foiled yesterday by the watchfulness of Marie Marcelle, a maid in the house.

The young woman is well educated and is a careful reader of newspapers. Accounts of the "de luxe bandits," who robbed Mrs. J. Ogden Armour in her Michigan avenue residence and locked Leo Steffens and his mother-in-law in a clothes closet while they ransacked their residence at 307 East Twenty-second street, had impressed her.

When a man knocked at the back door of the Bagley residence and asked the maid to deliver a letter to Mrs. Bagley, Marie carefully locked the door before starting to Mrs. Bagley's room.

Just as she reached the room the front door bell sang and a man said through the speaking tube that he had been sent by Mr. Bagley.

Mrs. Bagley told the maid to admit him but Marie was suspicious and peeked through the door first. She saw two men i nthe vestibule and promptly telephoned for the police.

The men evidently heard her, for the two at the front door and the one at the rear door together ran to a large black touring car and rode away at high speed.

The police believe they were the "de luxe bandits."

MOTHER IN PLEA FOR SON.

Mrs. Jennie Wells Appears Before State Board of Pardons.

Indianapolis, Sept. 29.—Mrs. Jennie Wells, an elderly lady, formerly a resident of Fort Wayne but now living at Jeffersonville, appeared before the state board of pardons yesterday afternoon and made a pathetic plea for the restoration to her in the mother's declining years of her son's aid and comfort. The board refused to promise anything definite to the aged woman as the son, Frank Wells, is serving a second term. Mrs. Wells moved to Jeffersonville in order to be near her only boy.

Dr. B. W. Rhamy presented a paper on "Bacteriology" at the meeting of the Fort Wayne Medical society, held Tuesday evening in the assembly room of the court house. A discussion of the subject followed.

You think your "little" is not worth saving; but I have noticed that the cigar man and the theater man and the soda water man have such a high opinion of your "little" that each is glad to get his hands on just a small fraction of it in order that he may carry it to HIS bank and have it placed to HIS account. I suppose it is all the same to the bank—your little is going there anyway—but, say! If it is going there anyway, would it not be better to carry it there yourself and have it placed to YOUR credit?

TURN OUT TO CHEER WOUNDED SOLDIERS

Dutch Farmers Always on Hand When Red Cross Trains Pass.

Flushing, The Netherlands, Sept. 1.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press).—Although Dutch farmers in the fertile province of Zeeland have witnessed the sight regularly twice a month for the past year, the movement of the long Red Cross trains that pass through the province from the fighting areas is always an event which calls throngs of country people in their picturesque costumes to all the small stations and crossways to see the trains pass.

It is no longer mere curiosity, however, which brings them there. They have learned that their presence servs to cheer the wounded soldiers and they have come to consider it their duty to turn out to greet the sufferers. Men on whom the science of surgery or medicine have little effect find that the crude but genuine sympathy extended them by the Dutch farmers has remarkable healing properties. Every farmer at his plough stops his horses and waves his hand, and every woman in the fields seizes her colored apron for a hasty salute.

From the church towers in the villages flags fly. Even the soldiers who guard the railroad track forget discipline and neutrality and set up a cheer. Suddenly it comes over the soldiers in their bedraggled khaki "all this is meant for us." Handkerchiefs are rare after a year in a hostile land, but bandages are all the more plentiful. And with a sudden recognition of what it is all about an old rag is waved to the wind and a smile of happiness drives away the gloom of long days of physical horror.

The soldier who is paralyzed is propped up with cushions until he too can see what happens. Soon some almost forgotten song starts somewhere and is taken up by the entire company. A virtuoso on a mouth organ blows the melody and a blind man keeps time. When Flushing is at last reached each man ought to have a violent fever.

As a matter of fact, they say they are better than ever. Right ahead of them they see the lights of the steamer and a little beyond those piers is their own land.

Chemically pure iron, produced in Germany by electrolysis, when heated, compares in hardness with aluminum, but can be toughened by cold rolling.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

Definite Formation of Syndicate for Credit Loan is Begun.

WILL BE LARGEST OF KIND IN AMERICA

Morgan Says Interest in the Project is Growing Enthusiastic.

New York, Sept. 29.—Definite formation of the big syndicate of bankers who will float the half billion dollar credit loan to Great Britain and France was begun today by J. P. Morgan & Co., and other financiers who have been associated with them in the negotiations here with the Anglo-French financial commission. It is proposed to make the syndicate the largest of its kind ever seen in this country and to include in its membership banks, trust companies and individuals from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

In every large city or financial center in the United States there is to be under the present plan, a group of bankers who will act as syndicate managers in their section of the country. In the south and west these groups will operate over somewhat enlarged areas; in the middle west the north Atlantic states and New England where the population is dense, the groups will, in some cases, confine their activities practically to the city in which the members banks are located and its immediate suburbs.

Sees Progress Made.

On behalf of J. P. Morgan & Co., it was said today that interest in the project was growing enthusiastic in practically every section of the United States. How long it will be before the Anglo-French commission and the syndicate managers sign the contract which will embody in binding, legal form, the provisions of the agreement whose details were officially announced here and in Chicago last night, today was a matter of surmise but it was thought a fortnight would see the project much further advanced than now barring the remote possibility of a hitch on the other side of the Atlantic. The agreement which will be embodied in the contract requires the ratification of both the British and French parliaments and the contract cannot be signed until this is forthcoming. It is extremely unlikely, however, that ratification will be refused or even delayed.

Official announcements of the details of the loan revealed but few departures from the plans previously outlined in official reports. Nothing is said about the exclusion of purchases of war materials. The most surprising feature was the price at which the big issue is to be sold to the underwriters syndicate—98. Previous reports had ranged from 97½ to 99. The bonds will be placed on the market at 98 to the investor. The 2 percent difference in the price to the syndicate and investor will provide a profit to the syndicate and reimburse them for the expenses incidental to the loan's flotation.

Because the bonds will be sold four points under their par value Great Britain and France will have placed to their credit here not $500,000,000, but $480,000,000. In other words, the two nations are paying $20,000,000 for the privilege of buying American products at top of the market prices. The $20,000,000 will buy this privilege, it is estimated, not for a long period, but for only a few months, perhaps for a year, when the credit probably will be exhausted, and, if the war is still in progress, another credit will have to be established or some other method devised to meet the bills coming due. In addition to this the country will pay $25,000,000 annually for five years—$125,000,000 altogether in interest to the holders of the bonds; thus the unsettlement of the foreign exchange market during the past three months will have cost the two governments a total of $145,000,000 when the final bill is paid.

The official announcement of the details fixing the size of the loan at $500,000,000, stated that an issue was contemplated of joint Anglo-French five year five per cent bonds. At maturity these short term bonds would be convertable at option into ten to twenty year 4½ per cent. joint Anglo-French bonds, constituting as it does the original issue, a first lien on Great Britain and France. Both issues will be free from present or future British or French income tax requirements and will be payable, principal and interest, in dollars in New York city.

Individuals wishing to buy large blocks of the bonds may join the syndicate, it was announced, but a limit, yet to be disclosed, will be placed on individual purchasers. To accommodate small investors the bonds will be issued in denominations as low as $100 and may be paid for in installments, whose amounts are yet to be determined.

Assistant Secretary Tells Manifold Advantage of This Type of Warship—Can Cut Enemy's Line of Communication and Run Down Commerce Destroyers.

BY FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT.
(Assistant Secretary of the United States Navy).

(Copyright, 1915, by the Newspaper Enterprise association).

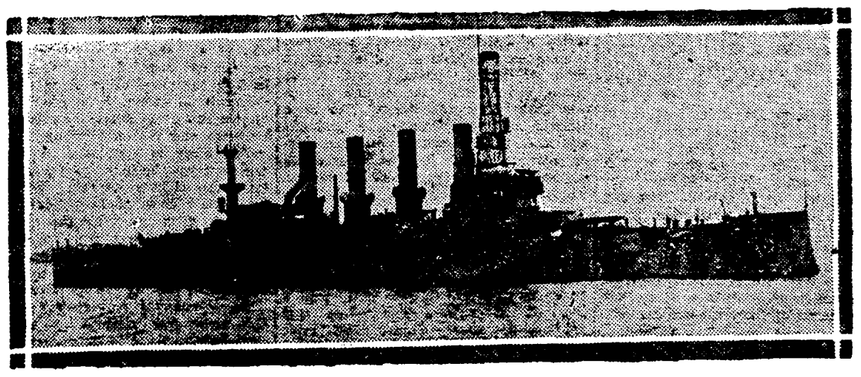
Any kind of a cruiser is primarily a weapon of opportunity.

The battle cruiser, which has been talked of so much of late, bears the same relation to the superdreadnaught as the old armored cruiser did to the battleship of the Spanish war type, or as the wooden frigate bore to the three-decker ship-of-the-line of Nelson's day.

The cruiser is inferior to the battleship in hitting power and in resisting power. For instance, the modern cruisers carry eight big guns, as against 12 on the dreadnaught. Its offensive power is, therefore, only two-thirds as great. Similarly, its weight of armor and general protection against attack is only from one-half to two-thirds that of the battleship.

In other words, battle cruisers cannot fight battleships with much chance of success.

It is in speed that the value of the battle cruiser lies. The latest types in foreign navies develop 30 knots and can stand any kind of weather. In July, 1914, England had nine battle cruisers; Germany four, and Japan four. The United States had and has none.



We have ten such armored cruisers as the North Carolina, here shown; none of them can make more than 22 knots. Of armored ships making more than 22 knots, some as high as 30, Japan has six, Russia ten, Italy ten, France six, Great Britain and Germany many more. Our newest are ten years old; in other words, they are obsolete.

But though the battle cruiser cannot stand up and fight the battleships, it is nevertheless more powerful in general offense and defense than any other type of vessel. It is difficult to lay down a definite use for the battle cruiser that would apply under all circumstances; everything depends on the immediate opportunity at hand.

For instance, if the enemy's fleet happened to establish a base far away from its home waters and attempted to keep up the necessary line of communications with home by a transport service a battle cruiser would be the ideal type of ship to attempt to destroy this line of communications.

In the same way a battle cruiser is an ideal ship for making a sudden raid on an enemy's coast, but it must be remembered that raids of this nature have little military value and are dependent for their success chiefly on the moral effect created.

There is another self-evident use for the battle cruiser: In the previous article I discussed the necessity for scout ships in order to determine the location of the enemy's fleet. Sometimes it will occur that the opposing scout screens will come into contact with each other—checkmate each other—and be unable to break through to obtain information of the main body of ships.

Of course, it goes without saying it would be the duty of a battle cruiser, or, for that matter, of any other type of cruiser to attack and destroy any vessel of the enemy of inferior force.

For instance, if one country's armored cruisers were conducting a commerce destroying raid, it would be to the distinct advantage of the other country to have some battle cruisers capable of capturing and destroying the raiding cruisers.

It sometimes occurs in naval warfare that, even though one may not believe in the efficiency or desirability of a certain weapon, it is necessary to have a certain number of these weapons if the enemy has them.

It is probably true that for proper defense a nation should have at least enough battle cruisers to offset those of the enemy.

Our own naval experts have been entirely willing to have the United States build battle cruisers, but have not desired that they be appropriated for at the expense of battleships.

Charges Against Railroad for Recent Disaster at Ardmore.

Ardmore, Okla., Sept. 29.—Federal and state investigation to place the blame for the tank car explosion Monday were in prospect today as the result of action by city authorities. After an all-day session of the city commission Tuesday Russell Brown, city attorney, announced that charges of negligence against the Gulf, Colorado & Santa Fe railway would be presented before the inter-state commerce commission. City officials claim that the tank car of gasoline which exploded and killed forty-seven persons and wrecked more than a half million dollars worth of property was leaking and that the railway failed to conform to inter-state requirements for its safe handling.

Early estimates of 55 dead were changed last night after a careful recheck by police and hospital authorities which revealed that a number of missing who were thought dead were only injured and had not reported their safety. The death list stood at 47 early today, of whom 26 were white and 21 colored.

GIRLS ADMIT USE OF LIQUOR.

More Young Women Than Men in DePauw Freshmen Class Take Drink.

Indianapolis, Sept. 29.—A special to the Star from Greencastle, Ind., says:

"Answers to questions from the DePauw university authorities indicate that more young women than men in the freshmen class use alcoholic drinks. Of the 252 new students only eight admitted when matriculating that they were not total abstainers. Five of the eight are girls. Sixteen members of the class admitted that they used tobacco. Fixty-six failed to answer the question, and others evaded it by answer: 'Very moderately' or 'not habitually.'"

BRITISH HINT AT MARCH ON BERLIN

Athens, Sept. 29.—"I believe we are on the eve of the most important operation of the war, namely the landing of troops in Macedona to begin the march, not so much on Constantinople, as on Berlin," said an officer attached to the general staff of the British army on the Gallipoli peninsula, who has come to Athens from the Dardanelles.

"The two offensive forces are gradually closing in. The Mesopotamia expedition is approaching nearer to Bagdad, and from the Sulva bay Teha line and an attack on Constantionple may be made at any moment."

CHAMPION EGG LAYER.

Delaware Hen Is Now Setting Pace as Egg Producer.

Philadelphia, Sept. 29—A new world's record for egg-laying competitions was established when Lady Eglantine, a White Leghorn, laid her two-hundred-and-eighty-seventh egg in 330 days at the Delaware college agricultural experimental station, Newark, Del. Lady Eglantine is contesting in the fourth annual international contest under the auspices of a newspaper of this city. The best previous record was 286 eggs in 365 days, made last year by a Plymouth Rock hen.

The new champion is an American hen bred from an English strain at the Eglantine farm, Greensboro, Md. Five hens of this strain have laid 1,138 eggs in forty-seven weeks. The average hen lays about seventy eggs a year.

Sander—Rodenbeck.

Beauty of arrangement as well as simplicity and informality marked the wedding of Miss Emma Rodenbeck to Rev. Ernst J. Sander at 5 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at the bride's home in Madison street. The officiating clergyman was Rev. Jacob Miller, of St. Paul's Lutheran church, with which the bride and her family have always been identified and the guests were relatives. The living room of the house was arranged with altar candles, a kneeling foot stool and an improvised reading desk for the ceremony. A low, long basket filled with asters of pink, lavender and white shades stood on a table between the candles in the bay window and made a lovely spot for the service. The bride wore a simple gown of white crepe de chine of modish pattern with white panne velvet collar and chiffon sleeves and drapery for the waist. The bride wore a cluster of bride roses and she presented a very sweet appearance. After congratulations had been extended an elegant wedding dinner was served. The bride's table was laid in cluny lace with a center decoration of yellow dahlias, while coriopsis and marigolds made a brilliant touch of color on the sideboard. The parlor was decorated with large bowls of variegated pink and white dahlias and in the hall stood a bowl of red dahlias. The effect was very good. After dinner the bride changed her wedding gown for a handsome traveling suit of dark blue chiffon broadcloth of good style, but severely plain. A handsome blouse of white chiffon, with bolero of blue embroidered chiffon lent a dressy appearance. The bride's hat was a tailored black velvet with jet and numide ornaments. This evening the bride and groom start for Buffalo and Otto, N. Y. Rev. Mr. Sander has charge of a Lutheran parish in Otto. The bride and groom first met seven years ago when Rev. Mr. Sander was here to attend a Lutheran synodical meeting. The bride is very widely known with more friends than she could easily enumerate, and she has been showered with congratulations, good wishes and gifts. Rev. Mr. Sander is very highly spoken of and he has a number of warm friends in Fort Wayne.

AT THE MAJESTIC.

"A Modern Cinderella" Tonight.

Seventy-two weeks in New York, forty-nine weeks in Chicago, thirty-two weeks in Philadelphia and twenty weeks in Boston is the phenomenal record of "A Modern Cinderella," which appears at the Majestic theater again tonight. The musical numbers are of the whistling variety and every one of them brings its own surprise in the form of some novelty. Girls are full of ginger and noted for their beauty. The catchy music, costumes, settings, sparkling wit and the humorous situations all combine to form an excellent play.

AT THE TEMPLE.

PLAYERS HOLD RECEPTION.

Tuesday Matinee Affairs at Temple Grow in Popularity.

Over 300 admirers of the Temple Theater Players accepted the invitation to be presented to the various members of Fort Wayne's delightful stock company at the conclusion of the matinee performance yesterday. Included in this merry throng were 210 women. The number is known exactly because that number of boxes of her favorite face powder were given away by Miss Ethel Hamerick, the company's popular leading woman. These reception matinees will be given each week and various sorts of souvenirs will be presented the women guests.

The Temple Players this week are presenting what is quite the most satisfying comedy drama they ever have appeared in. It is Clara Lipman and Samuel Shipman's story, "Elevating a Husband," a domestic tale of laughter and near-tragedy.

AT KEITH PALACE

A CLEVER TEAM.

Henshaw and Avery Presenting Smart Skit at New Palace.

John E. Henshaw and Miss Grace Avery, hoisted out of the musical comedy world by the vaudeville salary books, are presenting a smart little skit that is scoring a hit at the New Palace this week because of the cleverness of the two artists. Given the same raw material to work on, a team of average performers would not fashion a smile even in a week, but when handled by this pair the laughs come tumbling out like machines out of the F—d plant. It virtually is a review of the orthodox vaudeville offerings and Mr. Henshaw's stimulation of huge enjoyment of his own jokes is cleverly done.

Miss Julia Blanc and company are presenting the sketch of sketches, a southern story entitled "Mammy Lou," in which the central figure is a typical antebellum negro mammy. Among the other Keith acts on this program are Mlle. Vera Sabina, assisted by Cleveland Brooner, in a group of classical symbolical dances; Henry G. Rudolph, the vagrant tenor; Ed Corelli and Charles Gillette, "the odd pair;" Parillo and Frabito, street singers, and the Howard animal spectacle.

AT THE F PRESS

REGULAR PERFORMANCE TONIGHT

No Matinee This Afternoon on Account of Funeral of Mr. Porter's Aunt.

Although there was no matinee performance this afternoon at the Empress theater on account of the funeral of Mrs. John Bloom, an aunt of Mr. Porter, with whom he has made his home nearly his whole life, the regular performance will be given tonight at the regular time, 8:15 o'clock.

During the second act of "The Hurdy Gurdy Girls" at the Empress theater Tuesday evening, Billy Gross, comedian-in-chief with the troupe was placed in an exceedingly embarrassing situation. In playing the role of Mr. Schulze, manager and owner of the Hotel-De-Schulze, he wears a costume which fits him rather snugly and to his astonishment, his ears as well as the ears of the audience was greeted with a ripping sound. The house went wild.

AT THE ORPHEUM.

A BEAUTIFUL ALLEGORY.

"The Soul of a Woman" at Orpheum.—William Farnum Tomorrow.

No more beautiful or inspiring photo-drama has been projected upon the screen in this city than Anthony P. Kelly's "The Soul of a Woman," which constitutes the notable leading attraction at the Orpheum today. Emily Stevens, one of the most accomplished of our present day emotional actresses, has the lead in the play, being given admirable dramatic assistance by a group of well known Broadway stars, including George LaGuere and Walter Hitchcock.

The story is allegorical in character and concerns the journey of a young lad along the Highway of Life. He wanders into the "House of Lost Souls" where he is in turn beset by the symbolical evils of avarice, lust, rum and passion.

William Farnum, acclaimed as "the most magnetic actor on the screen, comes to the Orpheum tomorrow in "The Wonderful Adventure," in which this virile star portrays a marvelous dual role.

INDIANAPOLIS MAN CHOOSES BRIDE FROM FORT WAYNE.

MR. RAYMOND R. RITCHIE.

MRS. RAYMOND R. RITCHIE.

A wedding of much interest in Lutheran circles of both Concordia and St. Paul churches, took place on Tuesday evening at half past 7 o'clock in Concordia church when Miss Adeline Charlotte Becker and Mr. Raymond R. Ritchie, of Indianapolis, were united in marriage with the ring ceremony by Rev. August Lange. The half hour preceding the entrance of the bridal party was occupied by a song and organ service. Prof. Pohlman presided at the organ and the parents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. Ritchie, of Indianapolis, both of whom are soloists in their own city, rendered an appropriate program. As the bridal music from "Lohengrin" was played the bridal party entered the church. The ushers, Messrs. Alfred Ulmer, Herbert Myer and Paul Scheiman, stretched the white ribbons and Mr. Elmer Becker, a brother of the bride who acted as master of ceremonies followed them. There were three bridesmaids, all gowned similarly in pink and carrying white hat-shaped baskets filled with white cosmos blossoms and tied with fluffy bows of white ribbons, who were Miss Clara Krudop, Miss Marguerite Myer and Miss Tecla Schmidt. The bride was also attended by Miss Caroline Honeick, maid of honor, who made a beautiful appearance in an evening gown of pink chiffon, elaborately embroidered and hung over charmeuse. The gown was made with a train and was set off by a bird of paradise ornament worn in the hair and a big bouquet of Ophelia roses which Miss Honeick held. Mrs. William Heine wore her wedding gown of white charmeuse and chiffon and made a beautiful appearance with her big bouquet of pink cosmos. The bride followed her honor maid and walked alone. A young woman of very attractive and sweet appearance, the bride looked extremely well in her wedding costume. The gown was made of white crepe de meteor with trimmings of Venise lace and with chiffon and pearl ornaments for finishing touches. The bride's dress was made with a court train and her veil of tulle fell to its hem. The veil was held to the hair by a band of pearl beads caught at each side with a tiny cluster of swansonia blossoms. The bridal bouquet was a shower of white roses and swansonia. At the altar the bride met the groom and his brother and best man, Mr. Roland Ritchie, of Indianapolis.

Mrs. Enoch Schroeder and Miss Sophie Becker, of Washington, D. C., were other visiting guests who were present.

The impressive ceremony over the bridal party and several hundreds of guests present, left the church to the strains of the Mendelssohn wedding march. At the home of the bride in Lillie street, an elegant wedding supper was served to relatives and the nearest friends to the number of seventy-five. The house and church had both been beautifully decorated by Miss Doswell. The church was in green and white, palms, ferns and cosmos blossoms being used with many white candles. The house was hung with festoons of greenhouse smilax and set off with big bouquets of pink and white dahlias and cosmos while the bride's own table, laid for fourteen, was in white Italian ware filled with white roses and cosmos. White candles were used in the dining-room and vases of flowers on each table. An aunt of the bride, Miss Anna Krudop, found a surprise awaiting her when she sought her place as a pink ribboned box with her name on the card, signified that her niece, the bride, had not only chosen a birthday anniversary for her wedding day, but a gift as well for her aunt. Music for piano and violin was furnished during the supper time by Miss Esther Pohlman at the piano and Miss Wood, violinist. The bride and groom were showered with congratulations and beautiful gifts. The bride received a lavaliere of platinum with diamond ornament from the groom and that was the only ornament she wore. The bride is the only daughter of Mrs. Charles M. Becker and is most favorably and widely known. After graduating from the Fort Wayne high school the bride took the training course for teacher and taught five years with marked success. The groom was graduated from Purdue and then began teaching in the Indianapolis schools. Mr. Ritchie is now a professor in manual training in the Manual Training High school, of Indianapolis. The bride and groom left in the evening for Indianapolis and will go to housekeeping in South Church street, where they will be at home after October 16. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Ritchie, who were present at the wedding as well as Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Marshall and son, Reginald, of Beloit, Wis.; Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Bassett and son, Edward, of Frankfort; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bassett and daughter, Beulah, of Chicago; Mrs. O. H. Pilon, of Belvidere, Ill. The bride is wearing a dark brown gabardine suit trimmed with fur and wide braid, and a black velvet hat with coral ornaments.

MRS. M. DIEHL DIES.

Former Resident of Fort Wayne Passes Away in Hastings, Neb.

Word has been received here that Mrs. M. Diehl, of Hastings, Neb., but formerly a resident of this city, died at her home Wednesday morning at the age of 59 years, following an illness of one year due to complications. Mr. Diehl, who survives her, formerly was a business man in this city, but moved to the west nearly fifteen years ago.

Mrs. Diehl was well known in this city and her many friends will be grieved to learn of her demise. A son, F. L. Diehl, of 515 East Leith street, and an employe at Bowser's, is a son. Two sons and two daughters also survive her.

The remains will be brought to this city, and will be taken from the train to Lindenwood Saturday noon, where interment will be made.

Fight attacks of "nerves" by exercise.

To do this exercise stand with weight on the balls of the feet, swing the left leg back and kneel on the left or (back) knee. Stretch the right leg out in front of you. Then stretch out the right arm until the fingers touch the toes of the right foot. Then swing the left arm back in opposition. Now rise to standing position. Repeat half a dozen times, preferably before going to bed.

COURT ORDERS NEW COUNT OF BALLOTS

Pittsburg, Sept. 29.—A full bench in the common pleas court today after deliberating since Monday, ordered that fifty-three ballot boxes used in the primary election Sept. 21 be opened and the votes counted under the supervision of the county commissioners. The decision was on the petition of William B. Kirker, candidate for prothonetory, who, the unofficial returns showed, had been defeated by David B. Johns by ninety-six votes out of a total of almost 100,000 cast at the primary. The decision was awaited with interest because of the many charges of fraud made in connection with the election and because it was believed it would throw the way open for a complete recount of all the ballots cast for the many candidates on the various tickets. The ballot boxes have been under close police guard day and night since election day.

FORMAL OPENING A SUCCESS.

The Indiana Institute of Accountancy held its formal opening for registration last night at 309 Bass block. The attendance was really greater than was expected. All of those attending the opening decided to take up the course.

A short talk illustrating the method in which the courses are taught and showing the superiority of this course over similar courses was given by Mr. John Dobler, of Fort Wayne.

A talk on the necessity of business men knowing business law was made by Mr. W. E. Clapham. Short talks were also made by the men who are going to do the instructing.

The Indiana Institute of Accountancy is going to use the Pace Standardizes Course, which is being used in 44 of the largest cities throughout the United States. This course is recognized as being superior to any other courses on the market in fitting a man for better position and for the practice of accounting.

The men of Fort Wayne should consider themselves fortunate to have the chance of taking this course under the personal instruction of men who are actually engaged in the practice of accounting.

The main class will start Friday evening at 8:00 p. m. at 309 Bass block, and the Institute would be glad to have anyone who is interested in their future, or their son's future to be present on that evening and see the class of work that is covered.

There is no interruption of the fighting in Champagne.

Progress of the French in the Artois region, northwestern France, continues. North of Massiges the war office says 1,000 Germans surrendered.

"Bulgaria and the central powers have concluded a precise agreement, according to authoritative information," says the correspondent at Saloniki, Greece, of the Temps. "Under this agreement Bulgaria will enter the war on October 15."

GERMANS RETAKE TERRITORY.

Drive British Back North of Loos, Says Berlin Statement.

Berlin, Sept. 29.—Recapture from the British of part of the territory won from the Germans north of Loos was announced today by the war office.

French attacks near Souchez and Neuville are said to have been "partly repulsed."

In the Champagne French attempts to break through the German lines are said to have been unsuccessful.

The Austrian official statement of yesterday, received in Berlin today as given out by the Overseas news agency, says that the Italians have again shelled the hospital at Garizia, although the hospital was marked with the Red Cross flag.

BATTERING THIRD LINE.

Allies Claim Further Progress in the Western Fighting.

London, Sept. 20.—The British are battering the third line of the Germans in the vicinity of Loos. The French are maintaining their offensive in Champagne. The Germans in the Argonne apparently have been unable to make important gains and have refrained from infantry attacks. This sums up briefly the situation in the west as seen in London today. No great change in conditions is shown, but England attaches high importance to indications that the offensive movement of the allies is not to be relaxed as was predicted in some quarters. A short breathing spell has been succeeded by the hardest pressure on German positions at the points weakened or shattered by the allied rush.

That it is the intention to maintain this pressure is indicated by a telegram from Field Marshal French to the lord mayor of London thanking him for his message of good will. The British commander added that the message encouraged his troops "to push the immediate success to a really decisive issue."

Turks in Full Retreat.

The British have won an important success in Mesopotamia. The Turks are in full retreat toward Bagdad. The British are pursuing the retreating Turks.

Announcement to this effect was made in the house of commons today by Austen Chamberlain, secretary of state for India.

New German Chief in West.

German newspapers announced today that two generals, names withheld, have been dismissed from German commands in the western war zone in connection with the recent set back at the hands of the British and French, according to a dispatch from Amsterdam.

It is probable, the dispatch adds, that a new German commander in chief of the western armies soon will be appointed. In this connection the name of Field Marshal von Hindenburg is mentioned.

BRITISH TRANSPORT IS SUNK.

Loss of All But Few of Crew Is Report From Constantinople.

Berlin, Sept. 29.—The sinking of a British transport with the loss of all but a few members of the crew is reported in a dispatch from Constantipople to the Overseas News Agency.

"A special dispatch from Constantinople gives reports about Mohammedan troubles in India," says the news agency. "It says that a British transport was sunk by a Mohammedan engineer who died with the troops. Only a few members of the crew escaped."

(This is the second report of the sinking of a British transport with Indian troops. An Athens dispatch earlier today said that the Ramazan had been sunk by a submarine. It is possible that the two dispatches are different versions of the same incident).

Among the miscellaneous items given out today by the Overseas News Agency are the following: Bread rations in the occupied portions of Belgium have been modified so as to permit the consumption of white bread. Prices of bread have been lowered.

The German women's association is celebrating at Leipsic the anniversary of the Femist movemeent in Germany. The association is now composed of 56 districts with 4,000 local organizations.

The Frankfurter Zeitung says that an inquiry in regard to the condition of German prisoners of war in Japan has been made by a Frankfort committee. This inquiry shows that the Germans are being well treated.

British and French troops intended for service in Serbia have been landed at Port Katherin, near Saloniki, Greece, according to reports from Budapest received by the Frankfurter Zeitung, the Overseas News Agency announces today.

DESCRIBES BOEHM'S EXPLOIT.

Berlin, Sept. 29.—The exploit of Flight Sergeant Boehm, mentioned in last Sunday's official war report for his assault singlehanded on French aviators who attacked Freiburg, is described as follows by the Overseas News Agency:

"Sergeant Boehm is a member of Bavarian aviation corps, When four French aeroplanes approached Freiburg, Boehm rose alone to defeat them. Havingg no companion, he had to direct his aeroplane and fire the gun. He killel the pilot of one French aeroplane and the observer of another. The other two aeroplanes were forced to land and were made prisoners.

"The Grand Duke of Baden congratulated Sergeant Boehm in the presence of the troops and later, by order of the emperor, decorated him with the iron cross of the first class."

Mrs. Juillerat, of New York city, who has been visiting Mrs. C. Yergens of Washington boulevard west, for a few days, returned home on Wednesday.

it. Councilman Deitschel and Smith were for immediate action, but Councilman Keller deprecated haste and urged a committee report. President William A. Bayer made a ringing speech of a few words for the ordinance, after which Councilman Agne suggested that it be referred to a committee with instructions to report at once. President Bayer ruled all motions but the original and the amendments out of order, put the question and every councilman voted to suspend the rules. The ordinance was then unanimously passed amdist loud applause from the lobby.

In brief the ordinance requires that all street cars be in charge of conductors and motormen who have had not less than fourteen days of experience in their employment or be under the direction on their cars of men of such experience.

Creighton street line when sympathizers of the car men stoned a car near John street. The glass was shattered in every direction, but no one was injured, although Conductor Rogers narrowly escaped being hit. The sympathizers immediately made their escape and no further attempt at violence was made.

A possible attempt to wreck a car was made Tuesday afternoon when a large railroad spike was found lying on one of the rails on the curve near Freeman street on the Taylor street line. The spike was found by a Mr. Collins, who took it to the general offices of the company. Officials of the company are inclined to believe that the spike was not placed on the rail with malicious intent, but that it was dropped there accidentally.

The same number of cars were in operation Wednesday as on Tuesday. Twelve-minute service had been established on the South Wayne and Broadway line and the Pontiac and Lakeside line; fifteen-minute service on Lewis and West Main, East Main and Jefferson and the East Creighton and Hoffman lines, and twenty-minutes service on the Driving park line.

Union Men Not Going Back.

"The report that is being circulated to the effect that several members of the union are going back to work is not true," declared an officer of the union Wednesday. "Not a single man with possibly one exception will return to work until the cause for which the men are fighting is won." He said that the union men were well satisfied with the progress that had been made and that all of them were exceedingly optimistic as to the ultimate outcome. Another meeting of the union was held at 10 o'clock in the headquarters of the Federation of Labor in Harmony hall on West Berry street. A few of the old employes not identified with the union who went back to work Tuesday morning did not report for duty Wednesday morning. Their places, however, were filled by imported men brought here from Logansport, Lafayette and Indianapolis.

No Demonstration.

There was no demonstration when the cars left the barns early Wednesday morning. The first trip is always made cautiously and carefully and every switch is examined, this precaution being taken through fear that some damage may have been done to the tracks during the night. No effort was made to prevent the cars from operating. The crews, however, are frequently hooted and jeered and it is believed that the least suggestive move on the part of the men on the cars would be the signal for an outbreak on the part of sympathizers.

Twenty cars were pulled out of the barns Wednesday morning and placed in service, the police searching each trainman as was done Tuesday morning. Nothing was found.

First Brick Thrown.

The first real demonstration occurred late Tuesday afternoon when a crowd of ten or fifteen men and boys at Columbia and Calhoun streets hurled stones and brickbats at a Pontiac car as it came in from Lakeside. The missiles struck the part of the car below the windows and no serious damage was done.

No Cars Tuesday Night.

No attempt was made to operate the cars after 6 o'clock Tuesday night, although officials of the company declare that night service will be resumed Wednesday night. Both the car barns and the power plant of the company were again guarded. Besides the extra police the company has employed a large number of watchmen.

General Manager Greenland was asked Wednesday if the old men would be taken back in the event they made application to which he replied that whenever a man comes to the superintendent and asks for a job he will be taken back if he is fit, but that he will be hired the same as any one else and must necessarily start where new men always start. This means, it is assumed, that the old men who formerly had the best day runs will be required to take their turn, the same as new men.

Lebosky to Indianapolis.

J. Lebosky, attorney for the Amalgamated Association of Street and Electric Railway Employes, spent Tuesday afternoon in Indianapolis on business in connection with the restraining order issued by the federal court upon representations of the United States Mortgage & Trust company, against Jos. C. Colgan, member of the executive committee of the amalgamated association, and all persons acting for him and in his interest. He was expected to return to Fort Wayne Wednesday.

On Again, Off Again.

Several of the old employes who returned to work Tuesday did not take cars out Wednesday. One old motorman reported for work and when he found that his conductor had not come back he simply walked away. When questioned he remarked that he wouldn't run a car with an imported conductor. His own conductor did not put in an appearance at all.

The Barns at Night.

If you ever tried to get into a United States mint at midnight you have an idea of the difficulty experienced in prying one's way into the car barns after dark. The men are quartered in the big brick barn that extends from for years a livery stable. The dining rooms are on the second floor, where the pool rooms were located in the palmy, peaceful days, and some of the men sleep here and some of them under the roof. At least the attic room is used by them for some purpose or other, as the lights are burning there and it is the first time in many years that the big attic room was lighted.

Chestnut street is free of passage at night, only one or two policemen being on duty and they are merely there in case of emergency. Between 10 and 1 o'clock last night not a score of people set foot on Chestnut street, and these were chiefly men passing to and from work along the little street. At the power plant the same heavy guard was kept.

Several former city patrolmen and other watchmen and private detectives are employed by the company in plain clothes and are stationed at the barns, shops and power plant.

One Old Employe's View.

James Liggett, one of the old men, remains loyal to the company. Wednesday morning, as he was en route to the barns to report for duty, Mr. Liggett said: "Yes, I am going to the barn to report for work. I have been on the pay rolls of the Traction company or its predecessors for twenty-seven years and have no grievance. I have worked under four general managers and six superintendents and each treated me fairly. Iam an old man now and it would be impossible for me to get a better position than the one the Traction company gives me and I mean to stick to them." When asked if any other old employes were going back, Mr. Liggett replied that he did not know.

RESOLUTIONS COME IN PERFECT MAZE

State Labor Federation to Have Busy Session at Gary.

Gary, Ind., Sept. 29.—The Indiana Federation of Labor got down to actual business in its annual convention today, with the prospect of an extremely busy stssion before it.

Avalanche of Resolutions.

When the delegates got down to work late yesterday they faced an avalanche of resolutions, covering everything from a shorter working day to protests against the exports of war munitions. Politics, prohibition, peace, preparedness, primaries, public utilities, plumbing laws and publicity for the federal industrial relations commission report are embraced in the resolutions referred to committees for reports today and Thursday.

With 600 delegates in attendance the convention opened in the morning at Hodge's Ridgley hall. Thomas Harley, of Hammond, was temporary chairman. Addresses of welcome were delivered by Mayor R. O. Johnson, City Judge William Dunn and H. S. Norton, president of the Commercial club. The response was made by Charles Fox, of Terre Haute, president of the federation, who took the gavel at the afternoon session.

Hold Secret Meetings.

Committees held closed meetings at night. There were also several caucuses, an important one being that of the building trades department.

Although a resolution aimed at the national guard was offered, many of the delegates said it was "merely for effect."

Quite a stir was caused when the Evansville delegation offered a resolution asking elimination of that clause of the primary law stipulating that a candidate must put up as a fee 1 per cent of the salary of the office sought. Brewery employes had a resolution "rapping" prohibition and the plumbers demanded passage of sanitary laws.

Oppose War Trade.

Fort Wayne delegates asked the convention to protest against exportation of munitions. A six-hour-day resolution was offered, as was one asking that the public service commission aid municipalities in acquiring and operatng their own lghting plants.

The convention killed a motion stipulating that resolutions should be read only by title, some of the delegates declaring this to be an "Indianapolis trick." Logansport is believed likely to be chosen as the place for the next convention.

On Friday the State Council of Carpenters and Joiners will begin sessions here, with James Kirby, of Indianapolis, general president, to deliver the principal address.

WATSON IS COMING.

Miles, who, upon his arrival before the white house, dismounted and joined the president in the reviewing stand. Then came detachments of regular soldiers, sailors and militia. Sons of Veterans followed and directly behind them, led by the United States Marine band, came the first of the old soldiers. The parade began to move soon after 10 o'clock and was more than two hours passing. As it progressed some of the older veterans dropped from the lines. The old soldiers marched nearly in the center of the broad avenue while the ambulances spun along on both sides.

Few Cases of Exhaustion.

Considering the advanced age of the men there seemed few exhaustions. The marching distance had been shortened as much as possible and the weather was ideal, the heat from the sun being tempered by a crisp breeze. The fife and drum corps got most applause from the crowds. There were times, of course, when the shrill tones from the fifes sounded a little weak, but that made no difference to those who heard it.

The grand parade and presidential review was the crowning event of the annual reunion of the Grand Army of the Republic. It was in commemoration of the grand review after the close of the civil war.

A half century ago President Johnson from a grandstand in front of the white house reviewed 160,000 conquerors of the army of the north. Today President Wilson from the same spot greeted the survivors. Estimates placed the number of veterans in line at from 20,000 to 40,000.

Like Inauguration Days.

Pennsylvania avenue from the capitol to the white house was thronged with a crowd of spectators that rivalled inauguration times. All departments of the federal and district governments, the public schools and practically all business houses were closed for the occasion.

The line of march was from Peace monument, at the west entrance of the capitol grounds, up Pennsylvania avenue and through a court of honor erected in front of the white house.

At the head of the procession was Lieut. Gen. Nelson A. Miles with distinguished army and navy officers as his aides. Col. George A. Holsey, chief of staff to the commander-in-chief of the G. A. R., was the active marshal of the parade. The U. S. Grant post of Brooklyn, N. Y., acted as special guard to Commander-in-Chief Palmer.

Cheers For President.

President Wilson, accompanied by military and naval aides, left the white house to take his place in the reviewing stand when guns fired on the Mall announced the start of the procession.

The president was greeted with cheers as he entered his box and took a place on the spot President Johnson reviewed the union troops at the close of the civil war.

Secretaries Garrison and Daniels occupied seats to the left and right, respectively of the president, and behind him were grouped other members of the cabinet. Others in the president's immediate party were Miss Helen Woodrow Bones, Col. David J. Palmer, commander-in-chief of the G. A. R.; William F. Gude, chairman of the general citizens' committee, and Lieut. Gen. Nelson A. Miles, grand marshal of the parade, who took a place there after the head of the parade had passed.

Around the president's reviewing stand was a guard of honor of soldiers, sailors and marines.

Old War Flags Used.

Directly over the president's box a large American flag fluttered and beside [illegible] the secretary of war [illegible] the secretary of the navy. A part of his box was draped with flags used in the war.

Other boxes in the president's stand were occupied by civil war nurses.

The court of honor in front of the white house was decorated with flags and green and white bunting and the stands were packed with government officials, members of the diplomatic corps, relatives and friends of the veterans.

Others in Line.

In addition to the veterans in line there were sons of veterans, various citizens military organizations, troops of the regular army, marine corps and sailors from the fleet of warships anchored in the Potomac. Veterans marched in their respective Grand Army department, the line being headed by the department of Illinois, which was the first to be organized after the war. Lieut. George C. Round, special veterans' signal corps association, gave the signal announcing the start of the parade. With President Wilson to review the procession were members of the cabinet other distinguished officers of the United States, justices of the supreme court and members of congress.

Other events of the day's program included a drill by bluejackets from the warships on the White lot, a reception in honor of the commander-in-chief and national officers of the G. A. R. by the Ladies of the G. A. R. and camp reunions.

The President's Address.

In welcoming the veterans last night President Wilson in part said:

"It is a singular thing that men of a single generation should have witnessed the crowded fifty years which you celebrate tonight. You took part when you were young men in a struggle, the meaning of which I dare say you thought would not be revealed during your life time, and yet more has happened in the making of this nation in your life time than has ever happened in the making of any other nation in the lifetime of a dozen generations.

"The nation in which you now live is not the nation for whose union you fought. You have seen many things which have made this nation one of the representative nations of the world witn regard to the modern spirit of that world, and you have the satisfaction, which I dare say few soldiers have ever had of looking back upon a war absolutely unique in this, that instead of destroying, healed; that instead of making permanent division it made a permanent union. This nation was from the beginning a spiritual enterprise, and you have seen the spirits of the two once divided sections of this country, absolutely united. A war which seemed as if it had the seed of every kind of bitterness in it has seen a single generation put bitterness absolutely out of its heart, and you feel, as I am sure the men who fought against you feel, that you were comrades even then, though you did not know it, and that now you know that you are comrades in a common love for a country which you are equally eager to serve.

"This is a miracle of the spirit so far as national history is concerned. This is one of the very few wars in which in one sense, everybody engaged may take pride. Some wars are to be regretted; some wars mar the annals of history; but some wars contrasted with those make those annals distinguished, show that the spirit of man sometimes springs to great enterprises that are even greater than his own mind had conceived.

"You set the nation free for that great career of unhampered development which the world has witnessed since the civil war. But for my own part I would not be proud of the extraordinary physical development of this country, of its extraordinary development in material wealth and financial power, did I not believe that the people of the United States wished all of this power devoted to ideal ends. There have been other nations as rich as we; there have been other nations as powerful; there have been other nations as spirited; but I hope we shall never forget that we created this nation, not to serve ourselves, but to serve mankind."

YOUNGSTOWN CLUB DECLARED BANKRUPT

Some Frenzied Finance is Followed by the Usual Result.

Following a long financial argument as complicated as a corporation's answer to a grievance committee, the Youngstown Central league baseball club is about to pass into the hands of a receiver. A Pittsburg money lender turned over to the Youngstown club an even thousand dollars several months ago. The season closed with the club's pockets turned inside out, and the management told the money shylock to take what he could get. Just then he caught sight of the $2,000 guarantee in President Louis Heilbroner's office and began suit to grab off half of it. The result is that the Youngstown club has gone into bankruptcy.

YELP—YELP—YELP.

Now Ty Cobb comes out with the statement that the Red Sox won, or will win the pennant of the American league unfairly. Cobb declares that the Sox pitchers tried to "bean" about every batter in the league, him not excepted. And furthermore, Carrigan and his men bragged and boasted about their methods of winning.

If what Cobb says is true it certainly is no boost for the Carrigan tribe. It is unnecessary to pitch the "bean" ball and only shows an unsportsmanlike trick. However, it may be that Cobb is sore because his team did not figure in on the "gravy" and for that reason is howling.

DISASTER CONFUSES WILLS.

Difficult to Tell Who Died First on Ill Fated Eastland.

Chicago, Sept. 29.—"Since Saturday I have received for probate wills made by four husbands who died when the Eastland sank," said Philip P. Bregstone, assistant to the probate judge.

"In all four cases the entire family died. The question now arises, did the husband die first or did the wife die first?

"If there had been surviving children the children would have received the property. But since there are no direct heirs, the property must pass to the kin of that party to the marriage who died last.

"If the husband died first the wife became a widow, and forthwith, while she was struggling on the dizzy decks, became the owner of the estate. In that case her relatives are the heirs. If the wife died first the husband's relatives are the heirs.

"The presumption of law, unless other evidence is introduced, is that both died at the same time, and, therefore, the heirs of both man and wife share equally. However, evidence may be introduced, such as the testimony of survivors, to show that one died first. In that case the heirs of the other win."

LYCURGUS M'DOWELL.

Several months ago the newspapers affiliated with the Newspaper Enterprise association went into a countrywide search for the "World Champion Baseball Fan." Sporting editors on over 100 papers submitted the names of their cities' champion fans and their reasons for calling them champions.

Big baseball men acted as judges and finally picked Lycurgus McDowell, a railroad engineer. This bug of all bugs says that pitching is the big feature, and that the Phils are going to win. Grover Alexander is his best little reason for thinking so.

TO ARRANGE DETAILS FOR WORLD'S SERIES

Chicago, Sept. 29.—Details of the world series will be arranged at a meeting of the national baseball commission in New York city this week, B. B. Johnson, president of the American league, said today.

The date of the meeting cannot be set until the races in the two leagues are decided definitely. It probably will be held on Saturday, Johnson said.

LEAPED FIFTY FEET IN AIR.

Congressman Cullop Sees Strange Beast in Roadway.

Vincennes, Ind., Sept. 29.—William Allen Cullop, who represents the Second district in congress, says that while returning to his home in this city a few days ago he saw a ferocious looking animal resembling a panther or jaguar just before sundown on the Bruceville road, in the northern part of the county. Mr. Cullop was traveling in his auto when he saw the animal. He said it was larger than a mastiff, had a long, thick black tail like a panther and when first seen was about 100 yards in front of the car, crouched in the middle of the road like a cat about to spring. As the auto neared the beast its glaring eyes could be easily seen by the headlights on the auto and when the car was within sixty yards, Mr. Cullop says it made a tremendous leap, fully fifty feet in the air, he declares and disappeared. Mrs. Cullop, on a previous occasion, also saw the animal and she declares it to be a panther. Some of Mr. Cullop's opponents decided that it was the congressman's political jinx he had seen, but this theory was dropped when Mrs. Cullop also said she had seen the animal, whatever it was.

STRENUOUS WORK FOR YOST'S HUSKIES

Ann Arbor, Mich., Sept. 29.—Scrimmage of the really strenuous character will be the rule in the Michigan football training camp from now on until the opening game next week Wednesday, according to Coach Fielding H. Yost. The thirty-five or more candidates who have been working out on Ferry field for the past week will be put through the real battling of actual play, for in this way Yost hopes to shift out of the huge squad the players who will wear the Maize this year against the eight opponents of the Wolverines.

Yost seems to think that his chief problem, that of finding a quarterback and a center, will be comparatively easy from now on and has turned his attention to the development of a line. He will be assisted in this work by his helpers, Coaches Schulz, Douglas, Allemendinger, Raynsford and McGinnis. All of these, with the exception of McGinnis, a former Iowa university player, are Yost graduates.

Capt. William Cochran will probably go in at a guard, with the battle for the other position resting between Watson and Staatz. Next to these guards will go Rolman and a recruit, still to be picked. Ingham, Rehor, Pobanz, Whalen and Adams. Howe and Norton are the chief candidates for the center position, with Nieman and Warner, a son of former Governor Warner, pressing them close.

SAYS AMERICANS ARE SAVING CASH

Millions Kept at Home by War Ban on Travel Abroad.

Washington, Sept. 29.—In a recent interview, Franklin K. Lane, secretary of the Interior, expressed himself as gratified with the public interest in the development of our great national parks. "The number of visitors has been steadily increasing," he said, "but this summer's travel will be far ahead of other seasons. As the magnitude, beauty, and healthfulness of the parks are better understood it may be expected that the yearly travel to them will rapidly increase. Thus, the damage caused by the war is being neuptralized by inducing Americans to spend money at home. The whole country is the gainer by this intermingling of the people of the East and the West.

Secretary Lane's modest estimate of "at least a hundred million dollars" that Americans are saving to America this year is, indeed, conservative in comparison with the figures compiled by Lockwood Barr, editor of the Wall Street Journal, who finds that the 600,000 Americans who go abroad each normal year spend, in passage money alone, nearly $87,000,000. Most of the steamship lines, of course, are foreign.

"It is quite impossible," he continues, "to get even a fair approximation of the amount of money tourists spend while abroad in hotel bills, railroad, steamboat and other forms of transportation, gratuities, etc. An estimate by one who comes in contact with a representative part of the regular summer exodus of Americans to Europe places the amount of money spent in this wise at a very conservative minimum of $220,000,000. From the earnest sight-seer who has saved up $250 to $300 to lavish on a trip of five to six weeks' duration, to the substantial middle-class traveler who can afford to spend from $800 to $1,500, and even $2,000, in the course of a six to eight weeks' peregrination on the continent, not one seems to be immune from the temptation to buy.

"And then there is the traveler who approaches the millionaire stage of worldly wealth who, if those who have knowledge of the American of this class abroad are to be believed, spend a small fortune for incidental things ranging all the way from clothing to jewelry and minor art objects.

"United States imports of art objects, measured over the past few years, have averaged about $40,000,000 annually. In what are known as boom years, importations have gone as high as $50,000,000.

"It would be quite impossible to get even a fair estimate of the money spent for such things—as difficult, in fact, as it would be to estimate the expenditures of millionaires who fit themselves and their families out at the fashion centers of Europe, and whose purchases of art and historic objects may measure up to a $100,000 marble portico, or $500,000 for the whole side of an ancient dwelling.

"It is not inconceivable that the class of travelers made up of multi-millionaires alone, if they were particularly extravagant and gratified too many of their whims, might spend in these ways enough to bring up the total easily to the $500,000,000 mark."

Of course nothing approaching this saving is being spent on American scenery this summer. At least, however, it is being kept in America.

STUNG IN TONSIL BY BEE.

Kingman, Ind., Sept. 29.—Mrs. Ed. Reath was the victim of an unusual accident when she was stung by a bee which she swallowed when eating grapes. The insect in its eagerness to suck out the pulp of the grape, had crawled inside the skin and was not discovered by Mrs. Reath until it objected to being made a Jonah and inserted its stinger in one of the tonsils in her throat. The tonsil swelled badly and the services of a physician were required to remove the stinger.

PLAN TOWN WHERE NOBODY IS POOR

Would Be City With Law and Order and Without Any Bosses.

Kansas City, Sept. 29.—Missouri is to have a new town—a town where everybody works and nobody is poor; a town without political or business bosses; yet a town of law and order, and what is the principal thing—happiness.

That is the plan of Kansas City socialists and, according to Harry Chilton, one of the organizers, the plan has grown to be considerably more than a plan, for things have already progressed so far that half a dozen committees are traveling over the state looking for a town site.

"The idea," Chilton said today, "is to buy about 12,000 or 15,000 acres adjacent to railroad and water facilities and divide it up into tracts to be farmed by members of the organization and their families. Each purchaser will own his land outright, except that a certain portion of all the timber and minerals on the land will belong to the whole community. We will build a public warehouse for the benefit of the whole colony. Every man will be required to do a certain amount of work for the town. There will be no hired help and no town officials. The organization is non-sectarian and non-political. While the movement was started by socialists we have members of all political parties."

Chilton said he had received word from a leading socialist in Chicago that 1,000 families in that city had promised to join the colony. The prospecting party is composed of socialists from Kansas City, Independence, Mo., Trenton, Mo., and Mulberry, Kas. The town will be started just as soon as a favorable site is found.

FOOTBALL VICTIM ELEVEN YEARS OLD

Only Fatalities This Year Have Been Among Youngsters.

Floyd Rollins, aged 11 years, is the second victim of a football fatality this season. Rollins played on a school team. The other player who died of injuries lived at Lima, O., and was a high school boy. And still hundreds of school authorities throughout the country not only permit but encourage football among young boys. Keep the game where it belongs, among men who have strength to withstand hard play, in the colleges and in fully developed teams, and the death list would be exceedingly small and the game would have a better name. But it is common school and high school football that is slowly and surely killing the game and it will be but a matter of time till it is extinct unless boys are kept from playing.

ATTACKS MOTOR SPEED LAW.

Suit in Warren Circuit Court Asserts Statute Is Unconstitutional.

Williamsport, Ind., Sept. 29.—The constitutionality of the state law governing the speed of automobiles and other motor vehicles on the public highways has been attacked in a suit pending in the Warren circuit court. The statute reads: "No person shall drive or operate a motor vehicle or motor bicycle upon any public highway in the state at a speed greater than is reasonable or prudent, having regard for traffic and use of the way, or so as to endanger the life or limb or injure the property of any person."

In a brief, attorneys for Laurel Johnson, who is charged with violating the statute, it is asserted the law is unconstitutional because of its provision for distribution of fines is not enumerated in the constitution. Further, it is set forth that all crimes must be specifically defined by statute. It is also said that there being no common law crimes in Indiana, automobiles are not known to common law, and, therefore, crimes growing out of their speed are not amendable to it.

POLICE CHIEF'S JOB IS OPEN.

Elkhart Board Trying to Get Man From Another City.

Elkhart, Ind., Sept. 29.—The board of police commissioners, in a meeting Saturday night, reduced William H. Roth, chief of police, to patrolman, and temporarily appointed George H. Whiteman, desk sergeant, to the head of the department. It rescinded its recent order reducing O. N. Shellmadine from night sergeant to day patrolman. The changes will become effective October 1. The board is endeavoring to find a suitable man outside the police department to be chief. Experience has taught the board that a man promoted to chief from the department fails to enforce necessary discipline. The board is now negotiating with a man from another city whose identity is not known publicly.

WOMAN'S SMILE IS GETTING HER THE VOTE.

San Francisco, Cal., Sept. 25—"Smile on men and they will give you a vote. Look severe and they won't."

That's the psychology of a smile as defined by Miss Doris Stevens, at Congressional Union of Votes for Women headquarters here.

Miss Stevens has what the suffragists term a million-vote smile. Whenever she addresses a meeting of men she smiles and they immediately decide that the women should vote.

"The day of the stern-faced and domineering type of suffragette has passed," said Miss Stevens. "The suffragists of today are not men-haters. They are womanly types, motherly types, loving types, that count in our favor for the enfranchisement of the women voters."

TO PUT ON FLESH AND INCREASE WEIGHT

Most people eat from four to six pounds of good solid fat-making food every day and still do not increase in weight one ounce, while on the other hand many of the plump, chunky folks eat very lightly and keep gaining all the time. It's all bosh to say that this is the nature of the individual. It isn't Nature's way at all.

Most thin people stay thin because their powers of assimilation are defective. They absorb just enough of the food they eat to maintain life and a semblance of health and strength. Stuffing won't help them. A dozen meals a day won't make them gain a single "stay there" pound. All the fat-producing elements of their food just stay there in the intenstines until they pass from the body as waste. What such people need is something that will prepare these fatty food elements so that their blood can absorb them and deposit them all about the body—something, too, that will multiply their red blood corpuscles and increase their blood's carrying power.

For such a condition it is well to recommend eating a Sargol tablet with every meal. Sargol is not, as some believe a patented drug, but is simply a careful combination of six of the most effective and powerful assimilative and flesh building elements known to chemistry. It is absolutely harmless, yet has been wonderfully effective and a single tablet eaten with each meal often, according to reports of users, has the effect of increasing the weight of a thin man or woman from three to five pounds a week. Sargol is sold by Meyer Bros. Drug Co., Dreier Drug Co., D. & N. Pharmacy, The Family Drug Store, and other good druggists everywhere on a positive guarantee of weight increase or money back.

EASY TO DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

You can Bring Back Color and Lustre with Sage Tea and Sulphur.

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it's done so naturally, so evenly. Preparing this mixture, though, at home is mussy and troublesome. For 50 cents you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use tonic called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning all gray hair disappears, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully darkened, glossy and luxuriant. You will also discover dandruff is gone and hair has stopped falling.

Gray, faded hair, though no disgrace in a age of old age and as we all want a youthful and attractive appearance, this simple recipe is well worth trying.

Just the Thing for a Bilious Attack.

A man is about as sick as he ever gets when he has a bad bilious attack, and it has surprised many a man to find that by taking Chamberlain's Tablets as directed he was as well as ever two days later, and that he had an appetite like a hired man. Chamberlain's Tablets invigorate the stomach and enable it to perform its functions naturally, they also regulate the bowels. As an agreeable laxative they are unsurpassed. Obtainable everywhere.—Adv.

PREPARING TO INSPECT LINES.

High Officials of Pennsylvania to Make Annual Trip.

The annual inspection of the Pennsylvania lines west of Pittsburg will begin October 5, when three trains carrying the inspection parties will leave Pittsburg over the Panhandle for Chicago. The itinerary has not been received at the local offices, but it is supposed that the inspection party will pass through Fort Wayne on the 7th or 8th of October, en route east. Night stops of the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago branch will be made at Clark Junction, western terminus of the Western division, and at Robinson, near Crestline. The trains will run through this city without stop.

SAFETY GATES AT WANATAH.

The public service commission of Indiana has ordered arm safety gates placed at Fifth and Sixth streets, Wanatah, by the Pennsylvania company. This action followed a petition from the people of Wanatah for three arm safety gates in that town—at Fifth, Sixth and Seventh streets. In its reply to the petition, the commission said in part:

"The subject of the safety of highway and railroad crossings is of such great importance as to require the best thought and the most skillful advice possible. No one appreciates the importance more than the members of this commission. The frequent reports of fatalities at grade crossings are constant reminders of the dangers already existing, which are multiplying year by year as travel on the highways and traffic on the railroads increase. It seems unnecessary to dwell on the necessity for safety at grade crossings. The important question is how to accomplish the safety of these crossings, yet be fair and reasonable with the railroad companies."

HAD STRING TO INVITATION.

In speaking of the invitation to the Pennsylvania Employes Veteran association to hold the next annual convention in Valparaiso, which the Messenger says was accepted, Agent Hodges, of that city, admitted that the invitation was not inspired wholly by unselfish thoughts. He said: "In a way, there is a string tied to the entertainment. We did not do all this alone for the pleasure of making you have a good time. We want you to go away boosting Valparaiso. We want you to tell the people all along the great Pennsylvania railroad what a splendid university we have here, what nice homes, what beautiful scenery, what true and loyal people. If you are half as good at booming as you are at eating we will have to double the college's capacity.

CRAZY MAN ON MILK TRAIN.

Paul A. Stravinski, aged 24, a student in the Valparaiso university, boarded the Plymouth-Chicago milk train on the Pennsylvania six miles west of Valparaiso yesterday and told the crew that he was running away from the other students, who were going to kill him. The young man gave other evidences of insanity and Patrolman Jones, who was on the train, took him in charge and took him back to Valparaiso, where he is being held awaiting the arrival of his father, a prominent resident of West Hanover, Mass. He is not violent, but is suffering from dementia. Conductor William Peterson had charge of the train.

AT WORK ON FOUNDRY.

Most of the construction work on the foundry building to replace the one burned some weeks ago will be performed by the employes of the Western Gas Construction company. Plans were drawn by the company's draftsmen and the structural iron will be prepared in the boiler shop, leaving only the brick work for outside contractors. The new foundry will be better equipped than was the old and foundry work will be carried on more expeditiously than formerly. The plans contemplate a traveling crane in place of the stationary cranes.

SHOP MUSICAL FEATURE IS GOOD.

Secretary A. J. Cash, of the Railroad Y. M. C. A., is pleased with the success of his first noonday musical entertainment at the Pennsylvania machine shop, which attracted upwards of 150 men yesterday. He will put on a similar program at the east car shops Thursday. As announced by The Sentinel, Secretary Cash will alternate speaking and musical programs at shop meetings hereafter.

He is only sixty-seven years old, but is sick a good deal and will take advantage of the disability clause which admits employes to pension system after they pass sixty-five. Mr. Emma has worked as a cabinetmaker for the shops ever since 1878.

GRAPES READY TO MOVE.

LAKE AVENUE PAVE STILL UP IN AIR

Council Ready to Report and Pass Ordinance—Grant Time.

Notwithstanding the members of the city council as a committee of the whole was ready Tuesday evening to make a report recommending the passage of the ordinance to force the paving of Lake avenue from the present pavement to the city limits, according to the plans and specifications of the board of works, Councilman Jacob Agne, of the First ward, yielded to the importunities of realty men interested in property in that region and asked the council to postpone action. The new kink results from the fear that the tarvia pavement proposed is too expensive for what may be only a temporary improvement. A new compromise is sought. No report was made and the matter is just where it was at the last session of the council. Action is delayed two weeks.

Wage Ordinance Held Up.

The committee on fees and salaries reported favorably on the Korte minimum wage ordinance, fixing 20 cents an hour and $50 a month as the minimum wage for city employes and the council concurred in the report, but the measure was not passed. It will be amended before the next meeting to make the monthly minimum $55.

Other Measures in Council.

The council passed ordinances appropriating the sum of $6,000 to the street repair fund, amend the building code as to snow breaks, amending the auctioneer's license fees, approving the contract of the board of park commissioners for acquiring Sieling park, to sell certain junk and tw horses in the fire department, and by suspending the rules, extending the fire limits to include territory where it is desired to compel the razing of some shacks. This includes the region of the new Harrison street bridge.

Council Gives a Hint.

The finance committee in handing down a report recommending the passage of an ordinance appropriating $4,268.10 from the park funds to pay for street intersections in macadamizing Rudisill boulevard from Calhoun street to Broadway, took occasion to make the declaration that funds raised by assessment for park purposes ought not to be used for paving streets, and announced the expectation that at a convenient season the park funds would be reimbursed from the city general funds. The report was concurred in and the ordinance passed. Bids for the grading and paving of Rudisill will be received next Monday.

Traffic Ordinance Passed.

The council resurrected from the committee on rules, regulations and ordinances the measure purposed to divert heavy trucking traffic from Calhoun street and passed it. It forbids the use of trucks bearing more than 1,000 pounds of load from using Calhoun street except to discharge loads. A penalty of $100 is provided. Councilmen Korte and Smith voted against the measure on the ground that heavy traffic would destroy the pavements on Clinton and Harrison streets.

WILL APPROVE GARBAGE PLAN.

Council Special Committee Acquiesces in Employment of Engineer.

The board of works and the special committee of the city council on a new garbage disposal plant held a meeting late Tuesday night and the committee expressed its approval of the board's plan to employ at a fee of $600 the services of Samuel A. Greeley, a garbage engineer of Milwaukee, to make a garbage survey of Fort Wayne and prepare plans for new garbage incinerators here. The council committee insists that the board procure a second new site for a crematory, holding that two should be erected. This plan has the approval of both the board and Engineer Greeley. Whether or not the site at the west end of Huestis avenue, on which the board has an option, will depend somewhat on the engineer's recommendations. The council committee will recommend at the next session that the contract with the engineer be approved.

The funeral was held in Christ Episcopal church, of which Mr. Pattison was a member, and interment was made in Norwalk, Conn. Mrs. Pattison and four sons and two daughters survive. CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS.

Chicago, Sept. 29.—Wheat developed fresh strength today, influenced by unfavorable weather and by bullish foreign advices. The opening here, which ranged from a shade to 1c higher, was followed by some additional gain, and then a reaction all around.

The close was unsettled, 1c to 1⅜c net lower, with December at 94⅝@94¾c, and May at 97¼@97⅜c.

Cool temperatures gave only temporary firmness to corn. After opening ⅜c off to ¼@⅜c up the market tended to sag.

The close was nervous, ¼c to 2c under last night.

Oats held steady owing to absence of any decided pressure to sell.

Provisions gave way with hogs.

THE DAY ON WALL STREET.

New York, Sept. 29.—Aside from a resumption of the upward movement in specialties, publication of the terms of the Anglo-French loan failed to exercise a stimulating influence at the outset of today's trading, investment shares again receiving scant attention. There were numerous "wide" openings in the war specialties, Baldwin Locomotive overshadowing all others with a sale of 8,000 shares at 135 to 140, a maximum gain of 12. The lists showed signs of heavy profit taking after the outburst and reactions of three to ten points followed.

The reaction, resulting largely from heavy realizing, temporarily unsettled the list but had no effect on the large outpourings of stock, the first hour's business being estimated at 450,000 shares. Later prices showed more regularity. U. S. Steel's rise of three-quarters to 79⅛ being a helpful factor. Crucible Steel, which rose six to the new high record of 107¼, and Lackawanna Steel 9⅝ to 91½, also a record, together with a few other specialties, took the place of some early leaders at midday, when trading became more normal. Bonds were firm.

Specialties reacted more sharply later, some showing severe net losses. Steel fell to 78¼ and railroads also receded. The closing was irregular.

IN THE CHURCHES

IS GOING BACK TO EVANGELISTIC WORK

Rev. John Walton, Pastor of Immanuel Baptist Church Resigns.

Rev. John Walton, pastor of Immanuel Baptist church, formerly the Oliver street branch, has tendered his resignation to his congregation and intends to re-enter union evangelistic work, at which he was engaged before entering the ministry here three yars ago. When he came to this city he was made assistant pastor of the First Baptist church and was placed in charge of the mission and branches. He paid particular attention to the Oliver street branch and under his guidance this little mission developed into a congregation, making a gain of 191 members in thirty-one months. A church was then organized and a place of worship was built.

REV. JOHN WALTON.

Previous to coming to this city he was placed in charge of a congregation at Garrett, which at the time he took charge had thirty-one members. Nine years later the membership of this congregation had increased to 600, one of the largest in the state.

Rev. Walton states that although the Immanuel Baptist congregation has not as yet accepted his resignation, that it will be final, for he set his heart and soul in entering upon evangelistic work, similar to that as conducted by Dr. M. H. Lyon and Billy Sunday. Rev. Walton feels that he has been called to become a union evangelist.

Mrs. Walton, who is a beautiful singer, as is also Rev. Walton, will assist her husband in his new work and will take charge of the music. He will enter the evangelistic field as soon as opportunity affords.

COUNTY CONVICTS ARE PUT TO WORK

Half a score of convicts doing time in the jail have been put to work under the supervision of County Road Superintendent William Tonkel building the concrete bottom for the new tool house the commissioners have authorized for the use of the road department. The building is being constructed on county property adjoining the west wall of the jail. The men detailed from the jail crowd for outside work have gone at the job with a deal more enthusiasm than might be expected and up to a late hour Wednesday afternoon none of them had attempted to escape.

SHERIFF CALLS BUSINESS MEN INTO STRIKE COUNCIL

WILL PLAY WAITING GAME ON ORDINANCE

Federal Court May Be Asked to Block New City Law Aimed at the Car Strike-Breakers.

That the local management of the Fort Wayne & Northern Indiana Traction company would attempt no recourse against the "anti-strikebreakers" ordinance passed by the city council Tuesday evening, but would await developments, was the statement Wednesday afternoon of Hon. James M. Barrett, president of the corporation.

Until the ordinance is signed by the mayor, in effect and an attempt made to enforce it nothing here will be done about the measure, which requires conductors and motormen to have had fourteen days' experience on Fort Wayne lines before being placed in charge of cars.

Federal Interference May Come.

That there may be sought a federal injunction to restrain the city from enforcing the ordinance is admitted. President Barrett stated Wednesday afternoon that he could not say what would be done about that phase of the matter. Hon. Ferdinand Winter, of Indianapolis, is the western counsel for the United States Mortgage & Trust company, of Philadelphia, holders of the traction company's bonds. It was Mr. Winter who procured the federal injunction from Judge A. B. Anderson to restrain the carmen from going on strike.

President Barrett says he can merely inform Mr. Winter of what has taken place here and that recourse to the United States court for an injunction will be decided by the Indianapolis attorney, acting for the bondholders.

Statement By President Barrett.

"I have not at this time been able to get a copy of the ordinance passed Tuesday night by the city council, in which that body seems to assume the authority to manage and direct the service on the street railway lines of Fort Wayne, but from the scope of the ordinance, as indicated by newspaper publications, I have no hesitancy in saying that the measure will be without the slightest effect on the traction company in the operation of its cars in this city."

This statement was made by Hon. James M. Barrett, president of the Fort Wayne and Northern Indiana Traction company, Wednesday morning, in reference to the Korte ordinance making it unlawful to place city street cars in charge of motormen and conductors who have not had at least fourteen days' experience in such service.

President Barrett stated that he was arranging to procure a copy of the ordinance and could state more definitely what recourse the traction company would take when he had read the text of the measure.

May Seek Federal Injunction.

That the traction company may seek a federal injunction to restrain the city from enforcing the ordinance is strongly hinted. President Barrett stated Wednesday morning that Judge A. B. Anderson, of the United States district court for Indiana, had already held that a similar ordinance was invalid and without force.

An injunction would, in such a case, lie against the city government and enjoin it from putting the terms of the ordinance into effect. The ordinance is a penal measure and provides for a fine of from $5 to $100 for violation.

May Appeal to Utilities Board.

The traction company has a right to appeal to the state public service commission on a complaint that the ordinance is an unreasonable measure. The state board would then have a hearing upon it and determine whether or not the traction corporation is unreasonably restricted in the proper operation of its cars by the provisions of the ordinance. Meanwhile, however, the ordinance would remain in effect as being prima facie reasonable, and would doubtless have its intended effect on the strike now in progress on the Fort Wayne traction lines.

It is expected that later in the day the traction company will take steps to test the ordinance in some tribunal, either federal or state.

Pending that step the traction company will proceed to ignore the ordinance, which cannot become effective earlier than Thursday morning, when it shall have had legal publication and signature by the mayor.

Some Thought Action Hasty.

After the street car ordinance had been read a second time in the city council Tuesday evening, Herman Korte, member from the Tenth ward and author of the measure, moved that the rules be suspended, the ordinance read a third time and put on its passage. This precipitated a lively debate.

Councilman Paul Kinder said he believed the ordinance ought not to be hastily passed and wanted it referred to committee. Korte rejoined that the ordinance was for the protection of life and property in Fort Wayne and that to wait two weeks would carry the passing of the measure beyond need for

Veterans' Lines Pass Down Historic Pennsylvania Avenue.

Great Parade is Climax of National Encampment at Washington.

Washington, Sept. 29.—All that remains of the Union army of 200,000 which fifty years ago passed in review before President Johnson marched up Pennsylvania avenue from the capitol to the white house today and was reviewed by President Wilson. Thousands banked along the line of march cheered the G. A. R. veterans. There were confederate veterans in the crowd and they did some hearty cheering, too.

Join in Singing.

As a fife and drum corps passed the veterans playing "Rally Round the Flag, Boys," many in the president's stand joined in singing the chorus. As each contingent swung along applause broke out afresh, and many of the old soldiers responded to the president's greeting by waving flags.

Tired by the march from the capitol to the white house, a little more than a mile, veterans looked exhausted when they reached the president's stand. Many leaned upon younger and more robust comrades. A few strode forward with unfaltering steps.

President Remains Standing.

The president stood through the review removing his hat each time an American flag passed. The procession was headed by Lieut. Gen. Nelson A.

WOMAN TOLD HIM IT WAS ARRANGED FOR

State Paid Hotel Bill for Bell Trial Witness, He Declares.

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 29.—That the state paid a witness' hotel bill and engaged a woman who visited his room, was the testimony of Charles W. Clark, at the trial today of Mayor Joseph E. Bell, charged with election conspiracy. Clark was a witness for the state last week and was recalled for further cross examination over the objection of the state.

On his direct examination Clark said when he went to vote in the Eighth precinct of the Third ward, where the state charged there was much fraud, he found that his name had already been voted.

The witness said an attache of the prosecutor's office brought him to the city from Cumberland, this county, the day before he testified. He said he was given a pair of trousers and that he was taken to a couple of shows.

"Then he took me to a hotel for the night," continued the witness. "There I met a woman. I told her I didn't have any money, but she said it was already arranged for."

Clark said on redirect examination he had told the truth when previously testifying and that was the only question by Prosecutor A. J. Rucker.

"Perrott told me he could do me a lot of good or cause me much trouble and that I had better help him," testified Joseph Lane, a negro saloonkeeper. He said Chief of Police Samuel V. Perrott, a co-defendant, called him to the police station and that he refused to make a contribution. The witness said later he made a contribution of $25 to Charles Maas, then city weights inspector, and Louis Larsh, when Maas promised him protection for his saloon.

PUTS GERMAN LOSSES HIGH

BERLIN DISPUTES CLAIMED ADVANCE

Today's War News Given in Summary.

Marked successes for the arms of the entente allies, those in France evidently in continuation of their vigorous general offensive started last Saturday, are recorded in the official statements issued in London and Paris today.

On the western front the offensive movement is being vigorously pressed and further advances have been scored.

Far off in Asia an important military movement against the Turks has resulted in a brilliant victory for the British in Mesopotamia.

On the other hand, the Germans declare they have succeeded in recapturing a part of the territory the British had won north of Loos in northern France.

The beginning of the predicted drive by 300,000 Austrian and German troops into Serbia is also reported by the Athens correspondent of a London news agency, who says the advance has begun in the direction of Orsova.

In communications notably confident in tone the French war office emphasizes the importance of the victory won by the allies in their new offensive on the western front. It recounts that the Germans have been compelled to give up strongly fortified positions on an extended front which they had been ordered to defend to the last and declares that they have suffered since the beginning of the allies' offensive the loss of 120,000 men killed, wounded and missing.

The lessening for a time of the German pressure on the northern half of the Russian front is believed in Petrograd military circles to have been due in part to the withdrawal of large bodies of troops to reinforce the German lines in the west.

The latest statement of the Russian war office says the situation around Dvinsk is unchanged, but that the heavy fighting is continuing.

Paris, Sept. 29.—German casualties in the recent offensive of the French and British including killed, wounded and prisoners, were given officially by the French war office today as in excess of the strength of three army corps (more than 120,000 men).

MOTORCYCLIST MAY BE FATALLY HURT

Alex E. Gonzales, aged 22 years, who lives at 1141 East Washington street and is employed as a clerk in the Weber drug store on South Fairfield avenue, suffered concussion of the brain at 10:30 o'clock Wednesday morning when he lost control of his motorcycle and crashed into the side of the building at Fairfield avenue and Brackenridge street. He was picked up in an unconscious condition by Dr. C. F. Kaadt and rushed to St. Joseph hospital. His condition is regarded as extremely critical.

Mr. Gonzales, who is a native of South America, has been in Fort Wayne for several years and for the past two years has been employed as a drug clerk. Wednesday morning he jumped on his motorcycle to make a hurry up run to the Drug company on West Wayne street. As he neared the street crossing at Brackenridge and Fairfield avenue where the street makes a jog, he was compelled to make a quick turn to avoid hitting a buggy. In doing this he lost control of the machine and he crashed headlong into the building at the northwest corner occupied by Freitag's saloon. He was thrown with great force against the side of the building, alighting on his head.

Dr. Kaadt states that it is impossible as yet to determine whether there was a fracture of the skull or not. The injured man remained in a semi-conscious condition all afternoon.

NEW MOVE TO BRING PEACE IS LAUNCHED

In a new movement to restore peace to the local traction situation a considerable number of well known business and professional men, some of them present as representatives of important civic organizations, met with Sheriff A. C. Gladieux, in his office in the court house, at 1 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, and discussed possible measures.

It was felt that the time to bring about an understanding was before and not after the situation had brought extremities. A definite course was not adopted, but the movement for peace was given a start.

Sheriff Gladieux declined to discuss the meeting and would not say who had been in consultation with him.

SPECIAL CAR WILL CARRY DELEGATES

Fifty Local People Will Attend Huntington C. E. Convention.

A special interurban car over the Fort Wayne and Northern Indiana Traction company will carry delegates from Fort Wayne to the Christian Endeavor convention to be held in the Christian church at Huntington beginning Friday evening and extending through Sunday. The special car leaves the interurban station at 6:45 o'clock Friday evening and will return immediately after the evening's services. It is anticipated by officials in charge that over fifty people from this city will attend all the sessions.

The annual convention of the Christian Endeavor societies of the Fort Wayne district opens with a fellowship meeting and banquet at which time Rev. Willis Gelston, of Michigan City, will deliver an address. The sessions Saturday will be devoted to conference work led by R. A. Walter, the state field secretary, and Bertha Harding, of Logansport, the superintendent of the Quiet Hour and Tenth Legion department.

Dr. Ira Landrith, who was with the Flying Squadron when it held meetings here last fall and who also spoke at the A. C. W. temperance rally at Foster park on July 5, will speak both Sunday afternoon and evening. Sunday afternoon the Junior C. E. department will conduct a meeting all by itself with the exception of the devotionals, which will be led by Miss May Lansdown, junior superintendent.

Word has been received here that the registration so far numbers nearly 200. Evan Williams, secretary of Allen County C. E. union, offers a beautiful pennant to any society in the county which has the largest per cent of its members at this convention.

CHILD'S ARM DRAWN THROUGH A WRINGER

Robert Hilbisch, aged two and one-half years, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Hilbisch, of 2112 South Calhoun street, suffered painful injury at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning when his arm was drawn through an electric wringer. Before the current could be turned off the entire forearm up to the elbow was crushed. The attending physician found that no bones were broken, but that the flesh was badly smashed. It is thought that the arm can be saved.

The mother was washing with an electric washer with an electric wringer attachment and when she had her back turned the little fellow fell towards the machine and the wringer caught his fingers. She heard the child scream and stopped the machine as quickly as possible.

It was some time before the tot's arm could be liberated because the wringer can not be reversed and had to be taken apart to take the arm out. It seems miraculous that the bones in the arm were not crushed.

NINETEEN STATES ARE REPRESENTED

Indianapolis, Sept. 29.—The third annual session of the Mississippi valley conference of tuberculosis was formally opened here today. Governor Samuel M. Ralston made an address of welcome when the meeting was called to order. Governor James B. McCreary, of Kentucky, made the principal address of the session. His subject was "Tuberculosis in the Kentucky and the Mississippi Valley."

A "speechless" banquet, at which no addresses were made, was held at noon. Vice President Thomas R. Marshall was the toastmaster.

PLEADS FOR UNION OF PRESBYTERIANS

Rev. J. E. Clarke Urges It Before the Southern Membership.

Hot Springs, Ark., Sept. 29.—A suggestion of a union with the southern church as a method of overcoming the lack of solidarity and improving the efficiency of the church was emphasized by the Rev. J. E. Clarke, of Nashville, Tenn., chairman of the southern district efficiency committee of the Presbyterian church in his address on the "Situation and Problems of Our Church in the South," here today.

"Our purpose today is to consider that the heavy fighting is continuing. terian church, U. S. A., living in the south and southwest, may best promote the kingdom of God and be more efficient in carrying out our policy," declared the speaker. "We are to consider primarily conditions as they are not theories and ideals, though the latter may be touched upon.

"I believe that Presbyterians in the south and southwest can never approach the ideal of efficiency until those in the Presbyterian church U. S. A. and in the Presbyterian church in the United States are organically united into one communion. The existence of two separate churches of the same name and general character in the same general field is not an ideal situation but it takes two to make a bargain. Our southern Presbyterian brethren seem not to be ready therefore it behooves us to consider our duty in the light of a situation that is not ideal."

Dr. Clarke pointed out that the Presbyterian church U. S. A. is not a "northern church" as it often is referred to but a national church and insisted on solidarity of Presbyterian churches is one of the prime necessities, in greater efficiency.

"This convention is the first chance in years for our people of this section to come together. The weaker parts need the help of the strong. There is power in the consciousness of solidarity; there is weakness in loneliness."

BANKS MAY STAY OUT; INDIVIDUALS TO BUY

Chicago, Sept. 29.—That Chicago banks probably would not participate in the Anglo-French loan as banks, but that the middle west financiers as individuals would subscribe to the foreign loan, seemed the prevailing opinion in banking circles today as the hour of the departure of the loan commissioners approached.

Many consultations were held by Thomas W. Lamont, representative of J. P. Morgan & Co., with officials of bond houses and through the morning he explained to them the provisions of the proposed loan of $500,000,000 outlined by Baron Reading, head of the Anglo-French commission, last night. The party left at 12:40 for New York.

WINDOWS IN SEVERAL CITY CARS SMASHED

Police Make Hurried Runs to Various Points in City Where Attacks on Cars Are Reported.

UNION MEN ORDERED TO AVOID ALL VIOLENCE.

"Our association has given strict orders that all violence and disturbances be avoided. There will be no necessity for extra police so far as we are concerned."—Statement of Union Carmen's press committee.

The third day of the street car situation resulted in the first acts of violence that has taken place since agitation was started, four cars being stoned up to alate hour Wednesday afternoon.

A reward of $300 has been offered by the traction company for the apprehension and conviction of the person or persons guilty of throwing stones at the East Creighton street car Wednesday morning.

Motorman Is Injured.

Motorman Thompson, of the car held up when an attack was made on East Creighton avenue near the Bowser plant Wednesday afternoon, was said to have been painfully injured, and was taken to St. Joseph's hospital. Thompson's home is in Indianapolis.

There was a rumor to the effect that a number of shots were fired into the car.

Trouble on Broadway.

Trouble has been brewing almost the entire day near the Fort Wayne Electric works of the General Electric company, on Broadway, two cars being stoned in that section of the city. The late outbreak occurred shortly after 1 o'clock, when Broadway car No. 205 was stoned and egged. One large stone was hurled through the front glass, narrowly missing the head of Motorman Korporal, an old employe of the company. Two imported men were on the car, but no passengers. Shortly before noon another Broadway car was stoned near the same place, the glass in the rear being shattered.

Trolley Rope Cut.

A car was surrounded on the West Main street line, near the Wayne Knitting mills, Wednesday afternoon, by sympathizers, the trolley rope being cut and a glass broken out. The crew had sought refuge on the bottom of the car when the police arrived.

The most serious outbreak of the day, however, was Wednesday afternoon on Broadway, the patrol wagon loaded with patrolmen making a hurried run to the scene of the trouble. A tremendous crowd had gathered, yelling "scab" and hurling othe repithets at the motormen and conductors as the cars passed by. Throughout the entire day cars have been held up by automobiles that persist in going "dead" on the trucks.

Hooper Cited for Contempt.

A summons was served on Jacob C. Hooper, Wednesday, by Deputy United States Marshal Haggerty, to appear in the federal court at Indianapolis on the morning of October 5 and show cause why he should not be held for contempt of court. Joseph C. Colgan, member of the executive committee of the Amalgamated Association of Street and Electric Railway Employes, and Claude B. Huston, a member of the grievance committee of the local union, were served with the summons Tuesday morning, but the one for Hooper had the name "James E. Hooper" and had to be sent back to Indianapolis for correction. The three men are charged with contempt of court for the alleged violation of the court's temporary restraining order. They will be compelled to show cause why they should not be held to pay such sums and compensation to the parties entitled to receive it as the court shall find, and to answer any other order of the court that may be made.

Press Committee Named.

At the meeting of the union Wednesday morning a press committee was named composed of the following: W. H. Didier, chairman; A. G. Wolford, H. E. Dininger and W. P. Helms. At the close of the meeting the following statement was made:

"Our association has given strict orders that all violence and disturbances should be avoided. There will be no necessity for extra police so far as we are concerned." Another meeting of the union was held at 2 o'clock.

At 1 o'clock a small mob on East Creighton avenue near the Bowser Oil tank works surrounded a car, cut the trolley rope, drove the motorman and conductor inside the car and made them prisoners by wedging the doors fast. The strike-breakers were not injured. They were liberated by the police. The members of the mob had disappeared before the motorcycle police reached the scene.

First Act of Violence.

The first serious act of violence occurred Wednesday morning on the East

HOSEY WILL INSIST ON PLAIN YES OR NO REPLY BY COMPANY

Mayor William J. Hosey will insist on a plain yes or no answer from the Fort Wayne and Northern Indiana Traction company to his proposal for a conference of representatives of the corporation with representatives of the striking carmen's union with a view to finding means to settle the difficulty.

Mayor Hosey will during the day send to President James M. Barrett of the traction company a pointed note declining to accept Mr. Barrett's letter of Tuesday as an answer to his peace proposal.

The mayor will ask President Barrett to state whether or not he is willing to submit his letter of Tuesday to an impartial board to decide whether or not that letter's statements and conclusions shall stand as the traction company's position on the issue of local arbitration, that position to be determined upon the merits of the communication.

Public Party at Interest.

The mayor's new note will declare that while it is true, as President Barrett stated in his letter, the Traction company has "sacred, legal and constitutional rights" at stake in the industrial controversy now in progress, that the people of Fort Wayne have equally sacred, legal and constitutional rights at stake.

Mayor Hosey does not esteem President Barrett's letter a communication to himself as a categorical answer to his peace proposals, but an appeal to the public. He wants it plainly understood that he is not making any overtures for finding a place for himself as arbiter of the difficulty, but that as mayor of the city and speaking for its people he has merely tendered his good offices to find an opening for negotiations that may lead to peace and the end of a situation that is an inconvenience and distress to business and the citizens and a menace to public order.

Mayor Hosey will strongly insist on a direct answer to his proposal that the Traction company and the strikers try to agree on an impartial board of arbitration.

Terre Haute Guardsmen Admit Robbery Charge, Police Say.

Terre Haute, Ind., Sept. 29.—Three men arrested here early today on advices from the Indianapolis police that they were implicated in the robbery there on the night of Sept. 5 of Captain J. S. May, confessed to the police, the latter announced.

The men are Wayne Phillips, Robert Christenberry and Joseph McMahon, all members of the local militia company. According to the police the men confessed that on the night of Sept. 5, while the guardsmen were in camp at the speedway to take part in the "War in Indiana" spectacle on Labor Day, they engaged May to drive them a distance from the track in his automobile. When some distance away the men robbed May of $18 and a gold watch, bound him and left him beside the road, according to the police report of the confession. They then drove back to the speedway, abandoning the car near the grounds.

BROTHER OF FORT WAYNE CLERGYMAN WAS ON SUNKEN ITALIAN BATTLESHIP

London, Sept. 29.—A dispatch from the Stefani news agency of Rome says that the Italian battleship Benedetto Brin sank following an explosion which resulted from the fire on board the vessel. The cause of the disaster has not been ascertained.

The announcement last night of the explosion on the Benedetto Brin did not make it clear whether the vessel has gone down. It was said 8 officers and 379 marines had been saved. Something over 300 men are still unaccounted for.

A brother of Rev. Father Anthony Petrilli, pastor of St. Joseph's Catholic (Italian) church, at Bass street and Fairfield avenue, is an under-officer on the Benedette Brin, and the Fort Wayne clergyman is naturally extremely apprehensive regarding the safety of his relative. He has as yet had no word save that carried in the press dispatches.

WARDEN'S SLAYER DIES FROM WOUNDS

Escaped Convict Succumbs in Revolver Battle With Posse.

Albany, Ore., Sept. 29.—Otto Hooker, an escaped convict who shot and killed Harry Minto, warden of the Oregon state penitentiary at Salem, and probably fatally wounded J. J. Benson, city marshal of Jefferson, died today from wounds suffered in a revolver battle with a posse last night. Hooker was discovered shortly before midnight. A posse surrounded the house and demanded that he surrender. Hooker replied with a volley from a revolver. As his fire was drawn in another direction a member of the posse crept to a window and fired a bullet through the convict's lung. The convict escaped from a road gang Monday. Warden Minto with a posse encountered Hooker a few miles from Salem Monday night. A revolver battle ensued in which Minto was killed. As Hooker fled through Jefferson Marshal Benson fought hand to hand with him and was shot with his own weapon which Hooker had wrested from him.

Hooker had served a year of a sentence for burglary. He was regarded as a model prisoner.

Steel bars for shrapnel purposes, it is said, are being rolled in the Gary steel mills. A new shrapnel plant is being built at East Chicago and military acids are being produced in that city. Hammond shortly will produce shrapnel stations.

Depots for cavalry mounts are at Gary and Hammond, a military cattle feeding station being located at the Steel City. It is reported local foundries can cast cannon if necessary.

BRYAN VOICES FINE TRIBUTE TO WILSON

Nashville, Tenn., Sept. 29.—William J. Bryan in an address here last night paid the following tribute to President Wilson:

"Happy for our nation that we have in the white house at this time a president who believes in setting the old world a good example, instead of following the bad example which the old world sets in this matter. What an unspeakable misfortune it would have been if in such an hour as this the nation had been under the leadership of a president inflamed by the false philosophy which has plunged Europe into the abyss of war."

SCHMITZ IS SECOND WITH ROLPH WINNER

San Francisco, Sept. 29—Apparently for the second time James Rolph, jr., has been elected mayor of San Francisco at the municipal primary which was held yesterday. Although the official returns will not be known until late in the day carefully tabulated counts of incomplete returns from each of the city's 651 precincts early today gave him a majority of all the votes for mayor. These tabulations gave Rolph 22,460 votes. Eugene E. Schmitz, deposed as mayor during the graft prosecutions of 1906-07, after his conviction on a charge of extortion, which later was set aside by the supreme court of California, was second, with a total of 12,897 and Supervisor Andrew J. Gallagher with 5,631.

There were five other candidates for mayor, but although no tabulations were kept on the votes cast for them, it was generally conceded that Mayor Rolph had been re-elected. According to the laws of California a candidate receiving a majority of all votes cast for the office he seeks at the primary is elected.

ASKS UNCLE SAM TO RELEASE HIS GRIP

Chicago, Sept. 29.—The first move on the part of the defense in the federal Eastland case was made yesterday when Attorneys William S. Forrest and Benjamin Bachrach appeared before Judge Landis with a petition asking the government to relinquish jurisdiction over the defendants.

This move made it certain that the government will be forced to carry into several towns in Michigan its fight to retain jurisdiction. William C. Steele, of St. Joseph, Mich., secretary-treasurer of the St. Joseph-Chicago Steamship company, one of the eight individual defendants, accompanied the lawyers to court.

None of the defendants gave the required bond of $10,000. As a consequence bench warrants for the arrest of all the defendants were ordered issued. The warrants will be served at the place of residence of each of the indicted individuals. Following this removal proceedings will be started before local United States commissioners.

COMES TO SEE HIS AGED PARENT HERE

Explaining to Judge Kerr that when he left Kewanee, Ill., to come to Fort Wayne to visit his ninety-five-year-old father, whom he had not seen for forty-five years, the last words of his wife had been, "Don't you take a drink." John Dedrick, himself 63 years old, confessed that he had disobeyed the wifely injunction to the extent of one drink in Chicago and several as soon as he arrived in Fort Wayne, Tuesday evening. He was found on Baker street by Officer Godfrey inquiring of chance passersby where the Pennsylvania station was located and what train he should take to arrive in Fort Wayne. He was locked up for the night and had a palpable hangover when he was arraigned. Judge Kerr let him go on his promise to hike for the home of his venerable parent on Lumbard street.

Alters a Severe Dose.

After having imposed on Ernest Steil a penalty of $100 and costs and 180 days at the state farm, all of which would have kept the offender there for 200 days, Judge Kerr reconsidered the case and bound him over to the circuit court under $1,000 bond on a charge of child neglect. Steil deserted his wife and children here over a year ago. His desertion drove his wife insane and she is now at Easthaven asylum. Steil was arrested in Duluth, Minn., a few days ago on a warrant issued soon after he fled. He was told before sentence that if he could secure bond for the support of his children he would be released. He asked his wife's father, who was in the court room, to aid him, but that gentleman declined. Steil went to jail.

Bound Over for Horse Stealing.

After having had his case before him half a dozen different times on the installment plan, either because of continuances by the state or by the defense, Judge Kerr, Wednesday morning, certified Ralph Dunlap to the circuit court on a charge of horse-stealing, fixing his bond at $1,000. Dunlap, who is a paroled man, hired a horse of Walter Tonkel, a liveryman at Huntertown, and tried to sell the animal at the Burnett sales stables.

Other City Court Cases.

There was a big array of drunks in police court Wednesday, the police having been specially diligent in picking up the souses Tuesday and Tuesday night, to make sure they would not connect up in any way with the street car strike. The following were disposed of: Ed Scott, of Cincinnati, allowed to leave town; William Strong, a traveling jeweler, who started his jag in Kendallville, permitted to return to that city; Tom Quinn, who said he wanted to get back to the soldiers' home in Marion, permitted to start; Dave Murphy, dead on the sidewalk, held until October 4 to come back to life; James McDonough, got $1 and costs for being drunk with John Logan, who was begging on the streets; John Bresnahan, $1 and costs; Tom Mitchell, drunk and sleeping in a down town corner, held for a day to get sober; Matt Johnson, a one-legged man who was drunk and begging, given an hour to get started back to Plymouth, Ind.

Tom Lewis, a negro, who has been in frequently this year, was charged with drunkenness and previous convictions. He was fined $10 and costs and given fifteen days in jail.

On a charge of disorderly conduct "Butch" Skelton was fined $1 and costs and given thirty days in jail. He created a disturbance at Calhoun and Wayne streets Tuesday night.

Pete Brushmaker, charged with neglecting his wife, was ordered to pay his wife $3.50 a week and released on his own recognizance. His wife said she didn't want to live with him any more.

LITTLE PEACE PROSPECT.

No Progress Toward Strike Settlement at Chicago.

Chicago, Sept. 29.—Prospects of an early settlement of the strike of several thousand garment workers were not bright today as the strikers entered on the third day of the walkout.

Neither the manufacturers nor union leaders had made any move for peace, it was announced. Efforts of union organizers to induce employes to stop work continued. Sidney Hillman, president of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers of America, encouraged the strikers with the statement that victory, increased wages and shorter hours will be their ultimate reward.

GLASS TRIAL OCTOBER 11.

Plymouth, Ind., Sept. 29.—The second trial of Ora Glass, of Twin Lake, for the murder of the new-born babe of Jennie Leota Beaird, the 17-year-old Fort Wayne girl, who charges that Glass was the author of her ruin and the father of her infant, has been set for trial in the circuit court of Marshall county, Monday, October 11. Four days are allowed on the trial calendar for the hearing of the case. Prosecutor McKesson will again represent the state, and Messrs. Unger and Lauer will appear for the defense. Glass was tried last April and after a sensational hearing, the jury returned a verdict of disagreement. Jennie Beaird's story is that Glass strangled her new-born infant with a handkerchief while she lay helpless on a bed in the home occupied by Glass and his mother, at Twin Lake. The crime is alleged to have been committed last February. Glass was arrested after Mrs. Ida I. Beaird, of 1822 Fletcher avenue, Fort Wayne, mother of Jennie, had come here and learned her daughter's story. Glass took the body of the babe and buried it with his own hands in a cemetery near Twin Lake.

Indiana Man's Kidney Troubles Disappear

"After suffering many months from kidney trouble," writes W. R. Fox, of Noblesville, Ind., "and after having tried many remedies and prescriptions, I purchased a box of Foley Kidney Pills. They not only did me more good than any other remedy I had ever used, but they positively set my kidneys right. Other members of my family have used same with similar results."

From every state in the Union come unsolicited letters telling of satisfactory results from Foley Kidney Pills. When the kidneys become clogged up, get sluggish, and filter and strain out of the blood only part of the poisonous waste matter, the balance remains and circulates through the system, uric acid forms, and swollen, painful joints and muscles are the result.

Foley Kidney Pills cleanse and tone up the kidneys, so that backache, rheumatism, sore muscles, aching joints, annoying bladder disorders and irregularities soon disappear.

The Japanese Tailor

They tell a story about a missionary to Japan, who, needing a new suit of clothes, went to a Japanese tailor, taking with him an old suit to be used as a model.

The Japanese tailor was unaccustomed to European fashions, but he had ability, so he went to work, copying, as was his instruction, the old suit to the minutest detail.

Imagine the surprise of the missionary to find, upon the return of the suit, that it was a perfect copy of the old, even to a tiny patch that had repaired the old trousers!

Our fashions are just as close copies of their Paris originals, exact as to every detail—but there are no imperfections to copy, and our prices are brought down to a reasonable basis.

Exodus 8:20-32.

20 And the Lord said unto Moses, Rise up early in the morning, and stand before Pharaoh; lo, he cometh forth to the water; and say unto him, Thus saith the Lord, Let my people go, that they may serve me.

21 Else, if thou wilt not let my people go, behold, I will send swarms of flies upon thee, and upon thy servants, and upon thy people, and into thy houses; and the houses of the Egyptians shall be full of swarms of flies, and also the ground whereon they are.

22 And I will sever in that day the land of Goshen, in which my people dwell, that no swarms of flies shall be there; to the end thou mayest know that I am the Lord in the midst of the earth.

23 And I will put a division between my people and thy people; tomorrow shall this sign be.

24 And the Lord did so; and there came a grievous swarm of flies into the house of Pharaoh, and into his servants' houses, and into all the land of Egypt; the land was corrupted by reason of the swarm of flies.

25 And Pharoah called for Moses and for Aaron, and said, Go ye, sacrifice to your God in the land.

26 And Moses said, It is not meet so to do; for we shall sacrifice the abomination of the Egyptians to the Lord our God; lo, shall we sacrifice the abomination of the Egyptians before their eyes, and will they not stone us?

27 We will go three days' journey into the wilderness, and sacrifice to the Lord our God, as he shall command us.

28 And Pharaoh said, I will let you go, that ye may sacrifice to the Lord your God in the wilderness; only ye shall not go very far away; intreat for me.

29 And Moses said, Behold, I go out from thee, and I will intreat the Lord that the swarms of flies may depart from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people, tomorrow; but let not Pharaoh deal deceitfully any more in not letting the people go to sacrifice to the Lord.

30 And Moses went out from Pharaoh, and intreated the Lord.

31 And the Lord did according to the word of Moses; and he removed the swarms of flies from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people; there remained not one.

32 And Pharaoh hardened his heart at this time also, neither would he let the people go.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 29, 1915.

Fort Wayne's Part in It.

The meeting which has been called at the Commercial club rooms on the evening of October 6 to consider plans for Fort Wayne's celebration of Indiana's centennial next year, is one which should enlist the interest and the participation of every citizen. Indiana's century of history as a state is a notable one, and Fort Wayne has had no small part in its making. By all means let the recognition be in full keeping with the importance of the anniversary and commensurate with Fort Wayne's uniformly large way of doing things.

General plans for the state celebration are in the hands of a commission named by Governor Ralston, and Fort Wayne has been handsomely recognized by the appointment of Samuel M. Foster to membership on that commission. In turn J. Ross McCulloch has been chosen as the special agent for Allen county in the promotion of centennial plans. There is not only ample opportunity but the positive desire that every county and every city make preparation for suitable observance of the centennial, and the range of latitude on the program is a wide one. Here in Fort Wayne, with its wealth of historic associations, one of the very best celebrations in the entire state should be held. There is no time to be lost if the celebration is made all that it should be made. The Sentinel hopes to see a very general and very definite interest in the centennial project locally. In that way alone can it be made the tremendous success it ought to be.

Mayor Stidger, of Kokomo, cast the deciding vote in the city council that killed an ordinance designed to prohibit the licensing or operation of saloons within two miles of the city limits. Mayor Stidger is listed as a "wet," and his action is said to have been expected. The reason he is quoted as giving for his opposition to the ordinance—that he did not desire to impose additional duties on the police force—is so unique in its way as to entitle it to high rank as an absurdity. The contention that the absence of the saloon makes additional work for the police is scarcely borne out by the showing of experience anywhere. It almost invariably works the other way about. The saloon makes work for the policeman instead of easing off his duties.

It will be observed that the war news continues to run true to the form which was established early in the conflict. One faction stoutly asserts that it is making tremendous gains and that the other fellow is on the run. Just as positively the other faction comes back with the claim that nothing like that is happening, and that as a matter of fact every effort of the foe is being rendered futile and harmless. No other big news event in the world's history ever offered so wide a variety for the selection of the particular version you may prefer to believe.

Kankakee land owners have filed suit at Laporte in an attempt to force the return by the state of some $480,000 acquired by the sale of the former swamp lands in western Indiana, contending that it should have been expended for improvements only in the district from which it was obtained. When all others fail, it is still safe to depend upon the drainage question to supply groundwork for the liveliest and most long-winded sort of legal action.

Governor Frank B. Willis, of Ohio, is credited with intention to formally launch his boom as a republican presidential candidate in the course of a series of addresses he is shortly to make in the west, and will follow it up by breaking the same news to a few eastern audiences. You can prove by any resident of the Buckeye state that no presidential campaign can be a success without at least one candidate from Ohio and that two of them makes it even better.

A Lafayette young man and his sweetheart eloped in a taxicab in which they drove a distance of one hundred miles to Danville, Ill., in order to wed. If the meter on the machine was permitted to ramble right along during the entire trip, the groom doubtless has by this time a fairly good comprehension of what is meant when casual reference is made to the high cost of living.

REMNANT OF THE GRAND ARMY.

(Pittsburg Dispatch.)

For many years each successive encampment of the members of the Grand Army of the Republic has been increasingly somber, not to say pathetic, on account of the naturally rapid diminution of numbers. It is estimated that not more than 30,000 of the 160,000 which marched through Pennsylvania avenue in Washington fifty years ago, bearing their battle flags, tattered in various campaigns, cheering their own victory and the ending of four years of horrible war, will pass over the same route this week, few of them proudly erect as in that halcyon moment, the most stalwart of them showing the inevitable and inexorable march of time.

It is probable that few of the veterans, who will be as merry as they can in Washington this week, are under the age of 65 years. Most of them are surely verging closely on their three score and ten, or will have passed that scriptural limitation; but among all of them will be found a host still robust and able to have full part in the joys of life, now and for several years to come. Therefore, if there be many to whom the short march of this week will be a task, there will be many more to give a heartiness to the scene, robust and virile, and who will recount at their campfires stirring incidents of the war and reminiscences of triumphal entry to Washington in 1865 and of their joyous home-coming.

General Sherman led the victorious army, all that escaped shot and shell and bayonet and who were not in hospitals, in that brilliant pageant. General Miles, 76 years old, will marshal the Grand Remnant this week. The only two living commanders and only five division commanders will be in line, among the latter General Gregg, of this state. Notwithstanding the affecting features of the scene, however, the grand old fellows will make a merry time of it, most of them, and forget any sensation of age in fighting their battles over again.

NO SPECIAL SESSION.

(Indianapolis News.)

The president, it is announced, has decided not to call the senate together in extraordinary session. There was really no reason why he should have done so. The question of cloture is an old one, and it is also one in which the people are not greatly interested. The truth, of course, is that men think that filibustering is a patriotic thing when it is directed against a measure of which they do not approve, and almost treasonable when it is employed to defeat a measure which they favor. The question, therefore, is rarely considered on its merits, and in truth it is not always easy so to consider it. There is certainly no reason for any special haste in this business of changing the senate's rules.

It is to be said further that no action which the people earnestly desired was ever prevented by a filibuster. Often there has been delay, and sometimes of a very senseless and vexatious sort. But, even under the present rules, the senate is not stronger than the American people, and is not able to thwart their will. The ship purchase bill could hardly have been held up if there had been any real popular demand for it. Years ago, it may be remembered, there was a determined and persistent filibuster against the bill repealing the purchasing clause of the Sherman act—yet repeal was carried. On the contrary, some very objectionable measures, such as the force bill, have been defeated by the filibuster.

This is not to say that there ought not to be some modification of the senate rules, but only that the matter is of no such importance as to demand an extraordinary session of the senate. Here again the modification will be made when the people really want it. But just now they care little about it. As for the pending treaties, they can well wait for the regular session. Indeed, this is practically admitted by those who have favored an early session of the senate, since the chief reason they have assigned has been the necessity of making it possible for the senate to limit debate. The decision of the president is, we think, clearly right.

JITNEY OWNERS FILE DENIAL.

Indianapolis, Sept. 29.—An answer to the complaint of the Fidelity Trust company of New York against sixty-one "jitney" bus owners and operators of Terre Haute to stop the operation of such vehicles on the streets of that city was filed with the clerk of the federal court yesterday. The allegations of the complaint for the most part are denied and controverted. By way of answer it is alleged that thirty-eight of the defendants are not owners of "jitney" buses. Eighteen of the defendants admit their affiliation with the jitney bus union in Terre Haute.

TO END CATARRHAL DEAFNESS AND HEAD NOISES

If you have Catarrhal Deafness or head noises go to your druggist and get 1 ounce of Parmint (double strength), and add to it ¼ pint of hot water and 4 ounces of granulated sugar. Take 1 tablespoonful four times a day.

This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head noises. Clogged nostrils should open, breathing become easy and the mucus stop dropping into the throat. It is easy to prepare, costs little and is pleasant to take. Any one who has Catarrhal Deafness or head noises should give this prescription a trial.

MAID READS PAPERS; BLOCKS BANDITS RAID

Chicago, Sept. 29.—Three auto bandits who planned to hold up Mrs. Edward H. Bagley, wife of a wealthy commission merchant, in her residence at 813 Buena avenue, were foiled yesterday by the watchfulness of Marie Marcelle, a maid in the house.

The young woman is well educated and is a careful reader of newspapers. Accounts of the "de luxe bandits," who robbed Mrs. J. Ogden Armour in her Michigan avenue residence and locked Leo Steffens and his mother-in-law in a clothes closet while they ransacked their residence at 307 East Twenty-second street, had impressed her.

When a man knocked at the back door of the Bagley residence and asked the maid to deliver a letter to Mrs. Bagley, Marie carefully locked the door before starting to Mrs. Bagley's room.

Just as she reached the room the front door bell sang and a man said through the speaking tube that he had been sent by Mr. Bagley.

Mrs. Bagley told the maid to admit him but Marie was suspicious and peeked through the door first. She saw two men i nthe vestibule and promptly telephoned for the police.

The police believe they were the "de luxe bandits."

MOTHER IN PLEA FOR SON.

Indianapolis, Sept. 29.—Mrs. Jennie Wells, an elderly lady, formerly a resident of Fort Wayne but now living at Jeffersonville, appeared before the state board of pardons yesterday afternoon and made a pathetic plea for the restoration to her in the mother's declining years of her son's aid and comfort. The board refused to promise anything definite to the aged woman as the son, Frank Wells, is serving a second term. Mrs. Wells moved to Jeffersonville in order to be near her only boy.

Sunday morning a special train of thirteen cars carried eleven hundred people from this city over the Nickel Plate road to Latta, O., to attend the dedication of St. Xavier's Catholic church.

A ride around the suburbs of Fort Wayne shows something of the remarkable building boom that has been going on in this city this season. New residences have been erected in every part of the city.

There is a big row in prospect over the city league baseball championship. The race is between the Kaisers and the Pilseners and the Kaisers in yesterday's game sprung a big surprise by the use of an imported professional battery and won the game 16 to 2. You think your "little" is not worth saving; but I have noticed that the cigar man and the theater man and the soda water man have such a high opinion of your "little" that each is glad to get his hands on just a small fraction of it in order that he may carry it to HIS bank and have it placed to HIS account. I suppose it is all the same to the bank—your little is going there anyway—but, say! If it is going there anyway, would it not be better to carry it there yourself and have it placed to YOUR credit?

Flushing, The Netherlands, Sept. 1.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press).—Although Dutch farmers in the fertile province of Zeeland have witnessed the sight regularly twice a month for the past year, the movement of the long Red Cross trains that pass through the province from the fighting areas is always an event which calls throngs of country people in their picturesque costumes to all the small stations and crossways to see the trains pass.

It is no longer mere curiosity, however, which brings them there. They have learned that their presence serves to cheer the wounded soldiers and they have come to consider it their duty to turn out to greet the sufferers. Men on whom the science of surgery or medicine have little effect find that the crude but genuine sympathy extended them by the Dutch farmers has remarkable healing properties. Every farmer at his plough stops his horses and waves his hand, and every woman in the fields seizes her colored apron for a hasty salute.

From the church towers in the villages flags fly. Even the soldiers who guard the railroad track forget discipline and neutrality and set up a cheer. Suddenly it comes over the soldiers in their bedraggled khaki "all this is meant for us." Handkerchiefs are rare after a year in a hostile land, but bandages are all the more plentiful. And with a sudden recognition of what it is all about an old rag is waved to the wind and a smile of happiness drives away the gloom of long days of physical horror.

The soldier who is paralyzed is propped up with cushions until he too can see what happens. Soon some almost forgotten song starts somewhere and is taken up by the entire company. A virtuoso on a mouth organ blows the melody and a blind man keeps time. When Flushing is at last reached each man ought to have a violent fever.

As a matter of fact, they say they are better than ever. Right ahead of them they see the lights of the steamer and a little beyond those piers is their own land.

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

WILL BE LARGEST OF KIND IN AMERICA

Morgan Says Interest in the Project is Growing Enthusiastic.

New York, Sept. 29.—Definite formation of the big syndicate of bankers who will float the half billion dollar credit loan to Great Britain and France was begun today by J. P. Morgan & Co., and other financiers who have been associated with them in the negotiations here with the Anglo-French financial commission. It is proposed to make the syndicate the largest of its kind ever seen in this country and to include in its membership banks, trust companies and individuals from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

In every large city or financial center in the United States there is to be under the present plan, a group of bankers who will act as syndicate managers in their section of the country. In the south and west these groups will operate over somewhat enlarged areas; in the middle west the north Atlantic states and New England where the population is dense, the groups will, in some cases, confine their activities practically to the city in which the members banks are located and its immediate suburbs.

Sees Progress Made.

On behalf of J. P. Morgan & Co., it was said today that interest in the project was growing enthusiastic in practically every section of the United States. How long it will be before the Anglo-French commission and the syndicate managers sign the contract which will embody in binding, legal form, the provisions of the agreement whose details were officially announced here and in Chicago last night, today was a matter of surmise but it was thought a fortnight would see the project much further advanced than now barring the remote possibility of a hitch on the other side of the Atlantic. The agreement which will be embodied in the contract requires the ratification of both the British and French parliaments and the contract cannot be signed until this is forthcoming. It is extremely unlikely, however, that ratification will be refused or even delayed.

Official announcements of the details of the loan revealed but few departures from the plans previously outlined in official reports. Nothing is said about the exclusion of purchases of war materials. The most surprising feature was the price at which the big issue is to be sold to the underwriters syndicate—98. Previous reports had ranged from 97½ to 99. The bonds will be placed on the market at 98 to the investor. The 2 percent difference in the price to the syndicate and investor will provide a profit to the syndicate and reimburse them for the expenses incidental to the loan's flotation.

Because the bonds will be sold four points under their par value Great Britain and France will have placed to their credit here not $500,000,000, but $480,000,000. In other words, the two nations are paying $20,000,000 for the privilege of buying American products at top of the market prices. The $20,000,000 will buy this privilege, it is estimated, not for a long period, but for only a few months, perhaps for a year, when the credit probably will be exhausted, and, if the war is still in progress, another credit will have to be established or some other method devised to meet the bills coming due. In addition to this the country will pay $25,000,000 annually for five years—$125,000,000 altogether in interest to the holders of the bonds; thus the unsettlement of the foreign exchange market during the past three months will have cost the two governments a total of $145,000,000 when the final bill is paid.

The official announcement of the details fixing the size of the loan at $500,000,000, stated that an issue was contemplated of joint Anglo-French five year five per cent bonds. At maturity these short term bonds would be convertable at option into ten to twenty year 4½ per cent. joint Anglo-French bonds, constituting as it does the original issue, a first lien on Great Britain and France. Both issues will be free from present or future British or French income tax requirements and will be payable, principal and interest, in dollars in New York city.

Individuals wishing to buy large blocks of the bonds may join the syndicate, it was announced, but a limit, yet to be disclosed, will be placed on individual purchasers. To accommodate small investors the bonds will be issued in denominations as low as $100 and may be paid for in installments, whose amounts are yet to be determined.

Not One Battle Cruiser in the U. S. Navy; Others Have Many, Declares Mr. Roosevelt

Assistant Secretary Tells Manifold Advantage of This Type of Warship—Can Cut Enemy's Line of Communication and Run Down Commerce Destroyers.

BY FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT.
(Assistant Secretary of the United States Navy).

(Copyright, 1915, by the Newspaper Enterprise association).

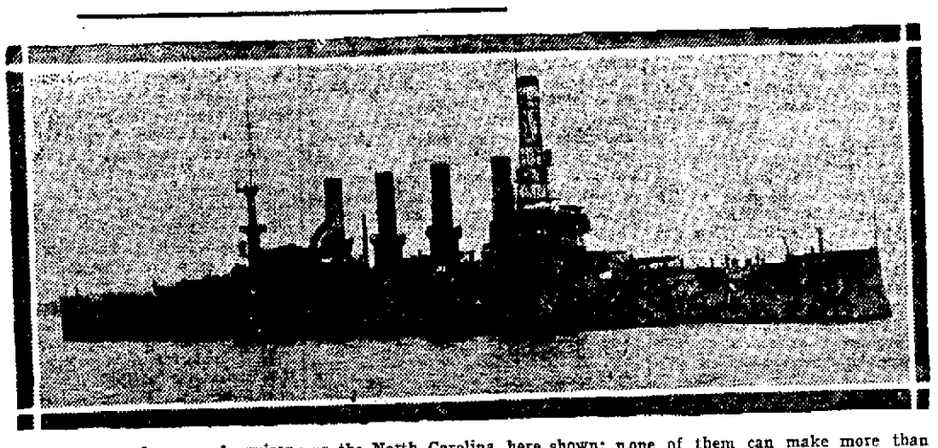
Any kind of a cruiser is primarily a weapon of opportunity.

The battle cruiser, which has been talked of so much of late, bears the same relation to the superdreadnaught as the old armored cruiser did to the battleship of the Spanish war type, or as the wooden frigate bore to the three-decker ship-of-the-line of Nelson's day.

The cruiser is inferior to the battleship in hitting power and in resisting power. For instance, the modern cruisers carry eight big guns, as against 12 on the dreadnaught. Its offensive power is, therefore, only two-thirds as great. Similarly, its weight of armor and general protection against attack is only from one-half to two-thirds that of the battleship.

In other words, battle cruisers cannot fight battleships with much chance of success.

It is in speed that the value of the battle cruiser lies. The latest types in foreign navies develop 30 knots and can stand any kind of weather. In July, 1914, England had nine battle cruisers; Germany four, and Japan four. The United States had and has none.



We have ten such armored cruisers as the North Carolina, here shown; none of them can make more than 22 knots. Of armored ships making more than 22 knots, some as high as 30, Japan has six, Russia ten, Italy ten, France six, Great Britain and Germany many more. Our newest are ten years old; in other words, they are obsolete.

But though the battle cruiser cannot stand up and fight the battleships, it is nevertheless more powerful in general offense and defense than any other type of vessel. It is difficult to lay down a definite use for the battle cruiser that would apply under all circumstances; everything depends on the immediate opportunity at hand.

For instance, if the enemy's fleet happened to establish a base far away from its home waters and attempted to keep up the necessary line of communications with home by a transport service a battle cruiser would be the ideal type of ship to attempt to destroy this line of communications.

In the same way a battle cruiser is an ideal ship for making a sudden raid on an enemy's coast, but it must be remembered that raids of this nature have little military value and are dependent for their success chiefly on the moral effect created.

There is another self-evident use for the battle cruiser: In the previous article I discussed the necessity for scout ships in order to determine the location of the enemy's fleet. Sometimes it will occur that the opposing scout screens will come into contact with each other—checkmate each other—and be unable to break through to obtain information of the main body of ships.

Of course, it goes without saying it would be the duty of a battle cruiser, or, for that matter, of any other type of cruiser to attack and destroy any vessel of the enemy of inferior force.

For instance, if one country's armored cruisers were conducting a commerce destroying raid, it would be to the distinct advantage of the other country to have some battle cruisers capable of capturing and destroying the raiding cruisers.

It sometimes occurs in naval warfare that, even though one may not believe in the efficiency or desirability of a certain weapon, it is necessary to have a certain number of these weapons if the enemy has them.

It is probably true that for proper defense a nation should have at least enough battle cruisers to offset those of the enemy.

Our own naval experts have been entirely willing to have the United States build battle cruisers, but have not desired that they be appropriated for at the expense of battleships.

Ardmore, Okla., Sept. 29.—Federal and state investigation to place the blame for the tank car explosion Monday were in prospect today as the result of action by city authorities. After an all-day session of the city commission Tuesday Russell Brown, city attorney, announced that charges of negligence against the Gulf, Colorado & Santa Fe railway would be presented before the inter-state commerce commission. City officials claim that the tank car of gasoline which exploded and killed forty-seven persons and wrecked more than a half million dollars worth of property was leaking and that the railway failed to conform to inter-state requirements for its safe handling.

Early estimates of 55 dead were changed last night after a careful recheck by police and hospital authorities which revealed that a number of missing who were thought dead were only injured and had not reported their safety. The death list stood at 47 early today, of whom 26 were white and 21 colored.

Indianapolis, Sept. 29.—A special to the Star from Greencastle, Ind., says:

"Answers to questions from the DePauw university authorities indicate that more young women than men in the freshmen class use alcoholic drinks. Of the 252 new students only eight admitted when matriculating that they were not total abstainers. Five of the eight are girls. Sixteen members of the class admitted that they used tobacco. Fixty-six failed to answer the question, and others evaded it by answer: 'Very moderately' or 'not habitually.'"

CHAMPION EGG LAYER.

Philadelphia, Sept. 29.—A new world's record for egg-laying competitions was established when Lady Eglantine, a White Leghorn, laid her two-hundred-and-eighty-seventh egg in 330 days at the Delaware college agricultural experimental station, Newark, Del. Lady Eglantine is contesting in the fourth annual international contest under the auspices of a newspaper of this city. The best previous record was 286 eggs in 365 days, made last year by a Plymouth Rock hen.

Sander—Rodenbeck.

Beauty of arrangement as well as simplicity and informality marked the wedding of Miss Emma Rodenbeck to Rev. Ernst J. Sander at 5 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at the bride's home in Madison street. The officiating clergyman was Rev. Jacob Miller, of St. Paul's Lutheran church, with which the bride and her family have always been identified and the guests were relatives. The living room of the house was arranged with altar candles, a kneeling foot stool and an improvised reading desk for the ceremony. A low, long basket filled with asters of pink, lavender and white shades stood on a table between the candles in the bay window and made a lovely spot for the service. The bride wore a simple gown of white crepe de chine of modish pattern with white panne velvet collar and chiffon sleeves and drapery for the waist. The bride wore a cluster of bride roses and she presented a very sweet appearance. After congratulations had been extended an elegant wedding dinner was served. The bride's table was laid in cluny lace with a center decoration of yellow dahlias, while coriopsis and marigolds made a brilliant touch of color on the sideboard. The parlor was decorated with large bowls of variegated pink and white dahlias and in the hall stood a bowl of red dahlias. The effect was very good. After dinner the bride changed her wedding gown for a handsome traveling suit of dark blue chiffon broadcloth of good style, but severely plain. A handsome blouse of white chiffon, with bolero of blue embroidered chiffon lent a dressy appearance. The bride's hat was a tailored black velvet with jet and numide ornaments. This evening the bride and groom start for Buffalo and Otto, N. Y. Rev. Mr. Sander has charge of a Lutheran parish in Otto. The bride and groom first met seven years ago when Rev. Mr. Sander was here to attend a Lutheran synodical meeting. The bride is very widely known with more friends than she could easily enumerate, and he has been showered with congratulations, good wishes and gifts. Rev. Mr. Sander is very highly spoken of and he has a number of warm friends in Fort Wayne.

John E. Henshaw and Miss Grace Avery, hoisted out of the musical comedy world by the vaudeville salary hooks, are presenting a smart little skit that is scoring a hit at the New Palace this week because of the cleverness of the two artists. Given the same raw material to work on, a team of average performers would not fashion a smile even in a week, but when handled by this pair the laughs come tumbling out like machines out of the K—d plant. It virtually is a review of the orthodox vaudeville offerings and Mr. Henshaw's stimulation of huge enjoyment of his own jokes is cleverly done.

Miss Julia Blanc and company are presenting the sketch of sketches, a southern story entitled "Mammy Lou," in which the central figure is a typical antebellum negro mammy. Among the other Keith acts on this program are Mlle. Vera Sabina, assisted by Cleveland Brooner, in a group of classical symbolical dances; Henry G. Rudolph, the vagrant tenor; Ed Corelli and Charles Gillette, "the odd pair," Parillo and Frabito, street singers, and the Howard animal spectacle.

REGULAR PERFORMANCE TONIGHT

Although there was no matinee performance this afternoon at the Empress theater on account of the funeral of Mrs. John Bloom, an aunt of Mr. Porter, with whom he has made his home nearly his whole life, the regular performance will be given tonight at the regular time, 8:15 o'clock.

During the second act of "The Hurdy Gurdy Girls" at the Empress theater Tuesday evening, Billy Gross, comedian-in-chief with the troupe was placed in an exceedingly embarrassing situation. In playing the role of Mr. Schulze, manager and owner of the Hotel De-Schulze, he wears a costume which fits him rather snugly and to his astonishment, his ears as well as the ears of the audience was greeted with a ripping sound. The house went wild.

AT THE ORPHEUM.

A BEAUTIFUL ALLEGORY.

No more beautiful or inspiring photo-drama has been projected upon the screen in this city than Anthony P. Kelly's "The Soul of a Woman," which constitutes the notable leading attraction at the Orpheum today. Emily Stevens, one of the most accomplished of our present day emotional actresses, has the lead in the play, being given admirable dramatic assistance by a group of well known Broadway stars, including George LaGuere and Walter Hitchcock.

The story is allegorical in character and concerns the journey of a young lad along the Highway of Life. He wanders into the "House of Lost Souls" where he is in turn beset by the symbolical evils of avarice, lust, rum and passion.

William Farnum, acclaimed as "the most magnetic actor on the screen, comes to the Orpheum tomorrow in "The Wonderful Adventure," in which this virile star portrays a marvelous dual role.

AT THE MAJESTIC.

"A Modern Cinderella" Tonight.

Seventy-two weeks in New York, forty-nine weeks in Chicago, thirty-two weeks in Philadelphia and twenty weeks in Boston is the phenomenal record of "A Modern Cinderella," which appears at the Majestic theater again tonight. The musical numbers are of the whistling variety and every one of them brings its own surprise in the form of some novelty. Girls are full of ginger and noted for their beauty. The catchy music, costumes, settings, sparkling wit and the humorous situations all combine to form an excellent play.

AT THE TEMPLE.

PLAYERS HOLD RECEPTION.

Over 300 admirers of the Temple Theater Players accepted the invitation to be presented to the various members of Fort Wayne's delightful stock company at the conclusion of the matinee performance yesterday. Included in this merry throng were 210 women. The number is known exactly because that number of boxes of her favorite face powder were given away by Miss Ethel Hamerick, the company's popular leading woman. These reception matinees will be given each week, and various sorts of souvenirs will be presented the women guests.

INDIANAPOLIS MAN CHOOSES BRIDE FROM FORT WAYNE.

MRS. RAYMOND R. RITCHIE.

A wedding of much interest in Lutheran circles of both Concordia and St. Paul churches, took place on Tuesday evening at half past 7 o'clock in Concordia church when Miss Adeline Charlotte Becker and Mr. Raymond R. Ritchie, of Indianapolis, were united in marriage with the ring ceremony by Rev. August Lange. The half hour preceding the entrance of the bridal party was occupied by a song and organ service. Prof. Pohlman presided at the organ and the parents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. Ritchie, of Indianapolis, both of whom are soloists in their own city, rendered an appropriate program. As the bridal music from "Lohengrin" was played the bridal party entered the church. The ushers, Messrs. Alfred Ulmer, Herbert Myer and Paul Scheiman, stretched the white ribbons and Mr. Elmer Becker, a brother of the bride who acted as master of ceremonies followed them. There were three bridesmaids, all gowned similarly in pink and carrying white hat-shaped baskets filled with white cosmos blossoms and tied with fluffy bows of white ribbons, who were Miss Clara Krudop, Miss Marguerite Myer and Miss Tecla Schmidt. The bride was also attended by Miss Caroline Honeick, maid of honor, who made a beautiful appearance in an evening gown of pink chiffon, elaborately embroidered and hung over charmeuse. The gown was made with a train and was set off by a bird of paradise ornament worn in the hair and a big bouquet of Ophelia roses which Miss Honeick held. Mrs. William Heine wore her wedding gown of white charmeuse and chiffon and made a beautiful appearance with her big bouquet of pink cosmos. The bride followed her honor maid and walked alone. A young woman of very attractive and sweet appearance, the bride looked extremely well in her wedding costume. The gown was made of white crepe de meteor with trimmings of Venise lace and with chiffon and pearl ornaments for finishing touches. The bride's dress was made with a court train and her veil of tulle fell to its hem. The veil was held to the hair by a band of pearl beads caught at each side with a tiny cluster of swansonia blossoms. The bridal bouquet was a shower of white roses and swansonia. At the altar the bride met the groom and his brother and best man, Mr. Roland Ritchie, of Indianapolis.

Mrs. Enoch Schroeder and Miss Sophie Becker, of Washington, D. C., were other visiting guests who were present.

The impressive ceremony over the bridal party and several hundreds of guests present, left the church to the strains of the Mendelssohn wedding march. At the home of the bride in Lillie street, an elegant wedding supper was served to relatives and the nearest friends to the number of seventy-five. The house and church had both been beautifully decorated by Miss Doswell. The church was in green and white, palms, ferns and cosmos blossoms being used with many white candles. The house was hung with festoons of greenhouse smilax and set off with big bouquets of pink and white dahlias and cosmos while the bride's own table, laid for fourteen, was in white Italian ware filled with white roses and cosmos. White candles were used in the dining-room and vases of flowers on each table. An aunt of the bride, Miss Anna Krudop, found a surprise awaiting her when she sought her place as a pink ribboned box with her name on the card, signified that her niece, the bride, had not only chosen a birthday anniversary for her wedding day, but a gift as well for her aunt. Music for piano and violin was furnished during the supper time by Miss Esther Pohlman at the piano and Miss Wood, violinist. The bride and groom were showered with congratulations and beautiful gifts. The bride received a lavaliere of platinum with diamond ornament from the groom and that was the only ornament she wore. The bride is the only daughter of Mrs. Charles M. Becker and is most favorably and widely known. After graduating from the Fort Wayne high school the bride took the training course for teacher and taught five years with marked success. The groom was graduated from Purdue and then began teaching in the Indianapolis schools. Mr. Ritchie is now a professor in manual training in the Manual Training High school, of Indianapolis. The bride and groom left in the evening for Indianapolis and will go to housekeeping in South Church street, where they will be at home after October 16. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Ritchie, who were present at the wedding as well as Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Marshall and son, Reginald, of Beloit, Wis.; Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Bassett and son, Edward, of Frankfort; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bassett and daughter, Beulah, of Chicago; Mrs. O. H. Pilon, of Belvidere, Ill. The bride is wearing a dark brown gabardine suit trimmed with fur and wide braid, and a black velvet hat with coral ornaments.

MRS. M. DIEHL DIES.

Word has been received here that Mrs. M. Diehl, of Hastings, Neb., but formerly a resident of this city, died at her home Wednesday morning at the age of 59 years, following an illness of one year due to complications. Mr. Diehl, who survives her, formerly was a business man in this city, but moved to the west nearly fifteen years ago.

Mrs. Diehl was well known in this city and her many friends will be grieved to learn of her demise. A son, F. L. Diehl, of 515 East Leith street, and an employe at Bowser's, is a son. Two sons and two daughters also survive her.

The remains will be brought to this city and will be taken from the train to Lindenwood Saturday noon, where interment will be made.

COURT ORDERS NEW COUNT OF BALLOTS

Pittsburg, Sept. 29.—A full bench in the common pleas court today after deliberating since Monday, ordered that fifty-three ballot boxes used in the primary election Sept. 21 be opened and the votes counted under the supervision of the county commissioners. The decision was on the petition of William B. Kirker, candidate for prothonotary, who, the unofficial returns showed, had been defeated by David B. Johns by ninety-six votes out of a total of almost 100,000 cast at the primary. The decision was awaited with interest because of the many charges of fraud made in connection with the election and because it was believed it would throw the way open for a complete recount of all the ballots cast, for the many candidates on the various tickets. The ballot boxes have been under close police guard day and night since election day.

FORMAL OPENING A SUCCESS.

The Indiana Institute of Accountancy held its formal opening for registration last night at 309 Bass block. The attendance was really greater than was expected. All of those attending the opening decided to take up the course.

A short talk illustrating the method in which the courses are taught and showing the superiority of this course over similar courses was given by Mr. John Dobler, of Fort Wayne.

A talk on the necessity of business men knowing business law was made by Mr. W. E. Clapham. Short talks were also made by the men who are going to do the instructing.

The Indiana Institute of Accountancy is going to use the Pace Standardizes Course, which is being used in 44 of the largest cities throughout the United States. This course is recognized as being superior to any other courses on the market in fitting a man for better position and for the practice of accounting.

The men of Fort Wayne should consider themselves fortunate to have the chance of taking this course under the personal instruction of men who are actually engaged in the practice of accounting.

The main class will start Friday evening at 8:00 p. m. at 309 Bass block, and the Institute would be glad to have anyone who is interested in their future, or their son's future to be present on that evening and see the class of work that is covered.

Progress of the French in the Artois region, northwestern France, continues. North of Massiges the war office says 1,000 Germans surrendered.

"Bulgaria and the central powers have concluded a precise agreement, according to authoritative information," says the correspondent at Saloniki, Greece, of the Temps. "Under this agreement Bulgaria will enter the war on October 15."

GERMANS RETAKE TERRITORY.

Drive British Back North of Loos, Says Berlin Statement.

Berlin, Sept. 29.—Recapture from the British of part of the territory won from the Germans north of Loos was announced today by the war office.

The Austrian official statement of yesterday, received in Berlin today as given out by the Overseas news agency, says that the Italians have again shelled the hospital at Garizia, although the hospital was marked with the Red Cross flag.

BATTERING THIRD LINE.

Allies Claim Further Progress in the Western Fighting.

London, Sept. 20.—The British are battering the third line of the Germans in the vicinity of Loos. The French are maintaining their offensive in Champagne. The Germans in the Argonne apparently have been unable to make important gains and have refrained from infantry attacks. This sums up briefly the situation in the west as seen in London today. No great change in conditions is shown, but England attaches high importance to indications that the offensive movement of the allies is not to be relaxed as was predicted in some quarters. A short breathing spell has been succeeded by the hardest pressure on German positions at the points weakened or shattered by the allied rush.

That it is the intention to maintain this pressure is indicated by a telegram from Field Marshal French to the lord mayor of London thanking him for his message of good will. The British commander added that the message encouraged his troops "to push the immediate success to a really decisive issue."

Turks in Full Retreat.

The British have won an important success in Mesopotamia. The Turks are in full retreat toward Bagdad. The British are pursuing the retreating Turks.

New German Chief in West.

German newspapers announced today that two generals, names withheld, have been dismissed from German commands in the western war zone in connection with the recent set back at the hands of the British and French, according to a dispatch from Amsterdam.

It is probable, the dispatch adds, that a new German commander in chief of the western armies soon will be appointed. In this connection the name of Field Marshal von Hindenburg is mentioned.

BRITISH TRANSPORT IS SUNK.

Loss of All But Few of Crew Is Report From Constantinople.

Berlin, Sept. 29.—The sinking of a British transport with the loss of all but a few members of the crew is reported in a dispatch from Constantinople to the Overseas News Agency.

"A special dispatch from Constantinople gives reports about Mohammedan troubles in India," says the news agency. "It says that a British transport was sunk by a Mohammedan engineer who died with the troops. Only a few members of the crew escaped."

(This is the second report of the sinking of a British transport with Indian troops. An Athens dispatch earlier today said that the Ramazan had been sunk by a submarine. It is possible that the two dispatches are different versions of the same incident).

Among the miscellaneous items given out today by the Overseas News Agency are the following: Bread rations in the occupied portions of Belgium have been modified so as to permit the consumption of white bread. Prices of bread have been lowered.

The German women's association is celebrating at Leipsic the anniversary of the Femist movement in Germany. The association is now composed of 56 districts with 4,000 local organizations.

The Frankfurter Zeitung says that an inquiry in regard to the condition of German prisoners of war in Japan has been made by a Frankfort committee. This inquiry shows that the Germans are being well treated.

British and French troops intended for service in Serbia have been landed at Fort Katherin, near Saloniki, Greece, according to reports from Budapest received by the Frankfurter Zeitung, the Overseas News Agency announces today.

DESCRIBES BOEHM'S EXPLOIT.

Berlin, Sept. 29.—The exploit of Flight Sergeant Boehm, mentioned in last Sunday's official war report for his assault singlehanded on French aviators who attacked Freiburg, is described as follows by the Overseas News Agency:

"Sergeant Boehm is a member of Bavarian aviation corps. When four French aeroplanes approached Freiburg, Boehm rose alone to defeat them. Having no companion, he had to direct his aeroplane and fire the gun. He killed the pilot of one French aeroplane and the observer of another. The other two aeroplanes were forced to land and were made prisoners.

"The Grand Duke of Baden congratulated Sergeant Boehm in the presence of the troops and later, by order of the emperor, decorated him with the iron cross of the first class."

Mrs. Juillerat, of New York city, who has been visiting Mrs. C. Yergens of Washington boulevard west, for a few days, returned home on Wednesday.

it. Councilman Deitschel and Smith were for immediate action, but Councilman Keller deprecated haste and urged a committee report. President William A. Bayer made a ringing speech of a few words for the ordinance, after which Councilman Agne suggested that it be referred to a committee with instructions to report at once. President Bayer ruled all motions but the original and the amendments out of order, put the question and every councilman voted to suspend the rules. The ordinance was then unanimously passed amidst loud applause from the lobby.

In brief the ordinance requires that all street cars be in charge of conductors and motormen who have had not less than fourteen days of experience in their employment or be under the direction on their cars of men of such experience.

Creighton street line when sympathizers of the car men stoned a car near John street. The glass was shattered in every direction, but no one was injured, although Conductor Rogers narrowly escaped being hit. The sympathizers immediately made their escape and no further attempt at violence was made.

A possible attempt to wreck a car was made Tuesday afternoon when a large railroad spike was found lying on one of the rails on the curve near Freeman street on the Taylor street line. The spike was found by a Mr. Collins, who took it to the general offices of the company. Officials of the company are inclined to believe that the spike was not placed on the rail with malicious intent, but that it was dropped there accidentally.

The same number of cars were in operation Wednesday as on Tuesday. Twelve-minute service had been established on the South Wayne and Broadway line and the Pontiac and Lakeside line; fifteen-minute service on Lewis and West Main, East Main and Jefferson and the East Creighton and Hoffman lines, and twenty-minutes service on the Driving park line.

Union Men Not Going Back.

"The report that is being circulated to the effect that several members of the union are going back to work is not true," declared an officer of the union Wednesday. "Not a single man with possibly one exception will return to work until the cause for which the men are fighting is won." He said that the union men were well satisfied with the progress that had been made and that all of them were exceedingly optimistic as to the ultimate outcome. Another meeting of the union was held at 10 o'clock in the headquarters of the Federation of Labor in Harmony hall on West Berry street. A few of the old employes not identified with the union who went back to work Tuesday morning did not report for duty Wednesday morning. Their places, however, were filled by imported men brought here from Logansport, Lafayette and Indianapolis.

No Demonstration.

There was no demonstration when the cars left the barns early Wednesday morning. The first trip is always made cautiously and carefully and every switch is examined, this precaution being taken through fear that some damage may have been done to the tracks during the night. No effort was made to prevent the cars from operating. The crews, however, are frequently hooted and jeered and it is believed that the least suggestive move on the part of the men on the cars would be the signal for an outbreak on the part of sympathizers.

Twenty cars were pulled out of the barns Wednesday morning and placed in service, the police searching each trainman as was done Tuesday morning. Nothing was found.

First Brick Thrown.

The first real demonstration occurred late Tuesday afternoon when a crowd of ten or fifteen men and boys at Columbia and Calhoun streets hurled stones and brickbats at a Pontiac car as it came in from Lakeside. The missiles struck the part of the car below the windows and no serious damage was done.

No Cars Tuesday Night.

No attempt was made to operate the cars after 6 o'clock Tuesday night, although officials of the company declare that night service will be resumed Wednesday night. Both the car barns and the power plant of the company were again guarded. Besides the extra police the company has employed a large number of watchmen.

General Manager Greenland was asked Wednesday if the old men would be taken back in the event they made application to which he replied that whenever a man comes to the superintendent and asks for a job he will be taken back if he is fit, but that he will be hired the same as any one else and must necessarily start where new men always start. This means, it is assumed, that the old men who formerly had the best day runs will be required to take their turn, the same as new men.

Lebosky to Indianapolis.

J. Lebosky, attorney for the Amalgamated Association of Street and Electric Railway Employes, spent Tuesday afternoon in Indianapolis on business in connection with the restraining order issued by the federal court upon representations of the United States Mortgage & Trust company, against Jos. C. Colgan, member of the executive committee of the amalgamated association, and all persons acting for him and in his interest. He was expected to return to Fort Wayne Wednesday.

On Again, Off Again.

Several of the old employes who returned to work Tuesday did not take cars out Wednesday. One old motorman reported for work and when he found that his conductor had not come back he simply walked away. When questioned he remarked that he wouldn't run a car with an imported conductor. His own conductor did not put in an appearance at all.

The Barns at Night.

If you ever tried to get into a United States mint at midnight you have an idea of the difficulty experienced in prying one's way into the car barns after dark. The men are quartered in the big brick barn that extends from for years a livery stable. The dining rooms are on the second floor, where the pool rooms were located in the palmy, peaceful days, and some of the men sleep here and some of them under the roof. At least the attic room is used by them for some purpose or other, as the lights are burning there and it is the first time in many years that the big attic room was lighted.

Chestnut street is free of passage at night, only one or two policemen being on duty and they are merely there in case of emergency. Between 10 and 1 o'clock last night not a score of people set foot on Chestnut street, and these were chiefly men passing to and from work along the little street. At the power plant the same heavy guard was kept.

Several former city patrolmen and other watchmen and private detectives are employed by the company in plain clothes and are stationed at the barns, shops and power plant.

One Old Employe's View.

James Liggett, one of the old men, remains loyal to the company. Wednesday morning, as he was en route to the barns to report for duty, Mr. Liggett said: "Yes, I am going to the barn to report for work. I have been on the pay rolls of the Traction company or its predecessors for twenty-seven years and have no grievance. I have worked under four general managers and six superintendents and each treated me fairly. I am an old man now and it would be impossible for me to get a better position than the one the Traction company gives me and I mean to stick to them." When asked if any other old employes were going back, Mr. Liggett replied that he did not know.

RESOLUTIONS COME IN PERFECT MAZE

Gary, Ind., Sept. 29.—The Indiana Federation of Labor got down to actual business in its annual convention today, with the prospect of an extremely busy session before it.

Avalanche of Resolutions.

When the delegates got down to work late yesterday they faced an avalanche of resolutions, covering everything from a shorter working day to protests against the exports of war munitions. Politics, prohibition, peace, preparedness, primaries, public utilities, plumbing laws and publicity for the federal industrial relations commission report are embraced in the resolutions referred to committees for reports today and Thursday.

With 600 delegates in attendance the convention opened in the morning at Hodge's Ridgley hall. Thomas Harley, of Hammond, was temporary chairman. Addresses of welcome were delivered by Mayor R. O. Johnson, City Judge William Dunn and H. S. Norton, president of the Commercial club. The response was made by Charles Fox, of Terre Haute, president of the federation, who took the gavel at the afternoon session.

Hold Secret Meetings.

Committees held closed meetings at night. There were also several caucuses, an important one being that of the building trades department.

Although a resolution aimed at the national guard was offered, many of the delegates said it was "merely for effect."

Quite a stir was caused when the Evansville delegation offered a resolution asking elimination of that clause of the primary law stipulating that a candidate must put up as a fee 1 per cent of the salary of the office sought. Brewery employes had a resolution "rapping" prohibition and the plumbers demanded passage of sanitary laws.

Oppose War Trade.

Fort Wayne delegates asked the convention to protest against exportation of munitions. A six-hour-day resolution was offered, as was one asking that the public service commission aid municipalities in acquiring and operating their own lighting plants.

The convention killed a motion stipulating that resolutions should be read only by title, some of the delegates declaring this to be an "Indianapolis trick." Logansport is believed likely to be chosen as the place for the next convention.

WATSON IS COMING.

Candidate for Republican Nomination for Senator to Spend Night Here.

James E. Watson, of Rushville, candidate for the republican nomination for United States senator, will arrive in Fort Wayne Wednesday afternoon and will spend the night here. He will be at the Anthony hotel, where he expects to meet many of his old friends. Mr. Watson will leave Thursday morning for Auburn, where he is scheduled for an address at the DeKalb county fair.

Biederwolf, secretary of the Commercial club, held a conference Tuesday afternoon, and set October 6 as the date for a mass meeting of citizens to discuss the centennial celebration in Fort Wayne next year. It is expected that committees will be named and preliminary preparations made for the holding of the celebration in this city.

Miles, who, upon his arrival before the white house, dismounted and joined the president in the reviewing stand. Then came detachments of regular soldiers, sailors and militia. Sons of Veterans followed and directly behind them, led by the United States Marine band, came the first of the old soldiers. The parade began to move soon after 10 o'clock and was more than two hours passing. As it progressed some of the older veterans dropped from the lines. The old soldiers marched nearly in the center of the broad avenue while the ambulances spun along on both sides.

Few Cases of Exhaustion.

Considering the advanced age of the men there seemed few exhaustions. The marching distance had been shortened as much as possible and the weather was ideal, the heat from the sun being tempered by a crisp breeze. The fife and drum corps got most applause from the crowds. There were times, of course, when the shrill tones from the fifes sounded a little weak, but that made no difference to those who heard it.

The grand parade and presidential review was the crowning event of the annual reunion of the Grand Army of the Republic. It was in commemoration of the grand review after the close of the civil war.

A half century ago President Johnson from a grandstand in front of the white house reviewed 160,000 conquerors of the army of the north. Today President Wilson from the same spot greeted the survivors. Estimates placed the number of veterans in line at from 20,000 to 40,000.

Like Inauguration Days.

Pennsylvania avenue from the capitol to the white house was thronged with a crowd of spectators that rivalled inauguration times. All departments of the federal and district governments, the public schools and practically all business houses were closed for the occasion.

The line of march was from Peace monument, at the west entrance of the capitol grounds, up Pennsylvania avenue and through a court of honor erected in front of the white house.

At the head of the procession was Lieut. Gen. Nelson A. Miles with distinguished army and navy officers as his aides. Col. George A. Holsey, chief of staff to the commander-in-chief of the G. A. R., was the active marshal of the parade. The U. S. Grant post of Brooklyn, N. Y., acted as special guard to Commander-in-Chief Palmer.

Cheers For President.

President Wilson, accompanied by military and naval aides, left the white house to take his place in the reviewing stand when guns fired on the Mall announced the start of the procession.

The president was greeted with cheers as he entered his box and took a place on the spot President Johnson reviewed the union troops at the close of the civil war.

Secretaries Garrison and Daniels occupied seats to the left and right, respectively of the president, and behind him were grouped other members of the cabinet. Others in the president's immediate party were Miss Helen Woodrow Bones, Col. David J. Palmer, commander-in-chief of the G. A. R.; William F. Gude, chairman of the general citizens' committee, and Lieut. Gen. Nelson A. Miles, grand marshal of the parade, who took a place there after the head of the parade had passed.

Old War Flags Used.

Directly over the president's box a large American flag fluttered and beside it were the flags of the secretary of war and the secretary of the navy. A part of his box was draped with flags used in the war.

The court of honor in front of the white house was decorated with flags and green and white bunting and the stands were packed with government officials, members of the diplomatic corps, relatives and friends of the veterans.

Others in Line.

In addition to the veterans in line there were sons of veterans, various citizens military organizations, troops of the regular army, marine corps and sailors from the fleet of warships anchored in the Potomac. Veterans marched in their respective Grand Army department, the line being headed by the department of Illinois, which was the first to be organized after the war. Lieut. George C. Round, special veterans' signal corps association, gave the signal announcing the start of the parade. With President Wilson to review the procession were members of the cabinet other distinguished officers of the United States, justices of the supreme court and members of congress.

Other events of the day's program included a drill by bluejackets from the warships on the White lot, a reception in honor of the commander-in-chief and national officers of the G. A. R. by the Ladies of the G. A. R. and camp reunions.

The President's Address.

"It is a singular thing that men of a single generation should have witnessed the crowded fifty years which you celebrate tonight. You took part when you were young men in a struggle, the meaning of which I dare say you thought would not be revealed during your life time, and yet more has happened in the making of this nation in your life time than has ever happened in the making of any other nation in the lifetime of a dozen generations.

"The nation in which you now live is not the nation for whose union you fought. You have seen many things which have made this nation one of the representative nations of the world with regard to the modern spirit of that world, and you have the satisfaction, which I dare say few soldiers have ever had of looking back upon a war absolutely unique in this, that instead of destroying, healed; that instead of making permanent division it made a permanent union. This nation was from the beginning a spiritual enterprise, and you have seen the spirits of the two once divided sections of this country, absolutely united. A war which seemed as if it had the seed of every kind of bitterness in it has seen a single generation put bitterness absolutely out of its heart, and you feel, as I am sure the men who fought against you feel, that you were comrades even then, though you did not know it, and that now you know that you are comrades in a common love for a country which you are equally eager to serve.

"This is a miracle of the spirit so far as national history is concerned. This is one of the very few wars in which in one sense, everybody engaged may take pride. Some wars are to be regretted; some wars mar the annals of history; but some wars contrasted with those make those annals distinguished, show that the spirit of man sometimes springs to great enterprises that are even greater than his own mind had conceived.

"You set the nation free for that great career of unhampered development which the world has witnessed since the civil war. But for my own part I would not be proud of the extraordinary physical development of this country, of its extraordinary development in material wealth and financial power, did I not believe that the people of the United States wished all of this power devoted to ideal ends. There have been other nations as rich as we; there have been other nations as powerful; there have been other nations as spirited; but I hope we shall never forget that we created this nation, not to serve ourselves, but to serve mankind."

Following a long financial argument as complicated as a corporation's answer to a grievance committee, the Youngstown Central league baseball club is about to pass into the hands of a receiver. A Pittsburg money lender turned over to the Youngstown club an even thousand dollars several months ago. The season closed with the club's pockets turned inside out, and the management told the money shylock to take what he could get. Just then he caught sight of the $2,000 guarantee in President Louis Heilbroner's office and began suit to grab off half of it. The result is that the Youngstown club has gone into bankruptcy.

YELP—YELP—YELP.

Now Ty Cobb comes out with the statement that the Red Sox won, or will win the pennant of the American league unfairly. Cobb declares that the Sox pitchers tried to "bean" about every batter in the league, him not excepted. And furthermore, Carrigan and his men bragged and boasted about their methods of winning.

If what Cobb says is true it certainly is no boost for the Carrigan tribe. It is unnecessary to pitch the "bean" ball and only shows an unsportsmanlike trick. However, it may be that Cobb is sore because his team did not figure in on the "gravy" and for that reason is howling.

DISASTER CONFUSES WILLS.

Difficult to Tell Who Died First on Ill Fated Eastland.

Chicago, Sept. 29.—"Since Saturday I have received for probate wills made by four husbands who died when the Eastland sank," said Philip P. Bregstone, assistant to the probate judge.

"In all four cases the entire family died. The question now arises, did the husband die first or did the wife die first?

"If there had been surviving children the children would have received the property. But since there are no direct heirs, the property must pass to the kin of that party to the marriage who died last.

"If the husband died first the wife became a widow, and forthwith, while she was struggling on the dizzy decks, became the owner of the estate. In that case her relatives are the heirs. If the wife died first the husband's relatives are the heirs.

"The presumption of law, unless other evidence is introduced, is that both died at the same time, and, therefore, the heirs of both man and wife share equally. However, evidence may be introduced, such as the testimony of survivors, to show that one died first. In that case the heirs of the other wife."

LYCURGUS M'DOWELL.

Several months ago the newspapers affiliated with the Newspaper Enterprise association went into a countrywide search for the "World Champion Baseball Fan." Sporting editors on over 100 papers submitted the names of their cities' champion fans and their reasons for calling them champions.

Big baseball men acted as judges and finally picked Lycurgus McDowell, a railroad engineer. This hug of all bugs says that pitching is the big feature, and that the Phils are going to win. Grover Alexander is his best little reason for thinking so.

TO ARRANGE DETAILS FOR WORLD'S SERIES

Chicago, Sept. 29.—Details of the world series will be arranged at a meeting of the national baseball commission in New York city this week, B. B. Johnson, president of the American league, said today.

The date of the meeting cannot be set until the races in the two leagues are decided definitely. It probably will be held on Saturday, Johnson said.

LEAPED FIFTY FEET IN AIR.

Congressman Cullop Sees Strange Beast in Roadway.

Vincennes, Ind., Sept. 29.—William Allen Cullop, who represents the Second district in congress, says that while returning to his home in this city a few days ago he saw a ferocious looking animal resembling a panther or jaguar just before sundown on the Bruceville road, in the northern part of the county. Mr. Cullop was traveling in his auto when he saw the animal. He said it was larger than a mastiff, had a long, thick black tail like a panther and when first seen was about 100 yards in front of the car, crouched in the middle of the road like a cat about to spring. As the auto neared the beast its glaring eyes could be easily seen by the headlights on the auto and when the car was within sixty yards, Mr. Cullop says it made a tremendous leap, fully fifty feet in the air, he declares and disappeared. Mrs. Cullop, on a previous occasion, also saw the animal and she declares it to be a panther. Some of Mr. Cullop's opponents decided that it was the congressman's political jinx he had seen, but this theory was dropped when Mrs. Cullop also said she had seen the animal, whatever it was.

STRENUOUS WORK FOR YOST'S HUSKIES

Ann Arbor, Mich., Sept. 29.—Scrimmage of the really strenuous character will be the rule in the Michigan football training camp from now on until the opening game next week Wednesday, according to Coach Fielding H. Yost. The thirty-five or more candidates who have been working out on ferry field for the past week will be put through the real battling of actual play, for in this way Yost hopes to shift out of the huge squad the players who will wear the Maize this year against the eight opponents of the Wolverines.

Yost seems to think that his chief problem, that of finding a quarterback and a center, will be comparatively easy from now on and has turned his attention to the development of a line. He will be assisted in this work by his helpers, Coaches Schulz, Douglas, Allemendinger, Raynsford and McGinnis. All of these, with the exception of McGinnis a former Iowa university player, are Yost graduates.

Capt. William Cochran will probably go in at a guard, with the battle for the other position resting between Watson and Staatz. Next to these guards will go Roiman and a recruit, still to be picked. Ingham, Reher, Pobanz, Whalen and Adams. Howe and Norton are the chief candidates for the center position, with Nieman and Warner, a son of former Governor Warner, pressing them close.

Millions Kept at Home by War Ban on Travel Abroad.

Washington, Sept. 29.—In a recent interview, Franklin K. Lane, secretary of the Interior, expressed himself as gratified with the public interest in the development of our great national parks. "The number of visitors has been steadily increasing," he said, "but this summer's travel will be far ahead of other seasons. As the magnitude, beauty, and healthfulness of the parks are better understood it may be expected that the yearly travel to them will rapidly increase. Thus, the damage caused by the war is being neutralized by inducing Americans to spend money at home. The whole country is the gainer by this intermingling of the people of the East and the West.

Secretary Lane's modest estimate of "at least a hundred million dollars" that Americans are saving to America this year is, indeed, conservative in comparison with the figures compiled by Lockwood Barr, editor of the Wall Street Journal, who finds that the 600,000 Americans who go abroad each normal year spend, in passage money alone, nearly $87,000,000. Most of the steamship lines, of course, are foreign.

"It is quite impossible," he continues, "to get even a fair approximation of the amount of money tourists spend while abroad in hotel bills, railroad, steamboat and other forms of transportation, gratuities, etc. An estimate by one who comes in contact with a representative part of the regular summer exodus of Americans to Europe places the amount of money spent in this wise at a very conservative minimum of $220,000,000. From the earnest sight-seer who has saved up $250 to $300 to lavish on a trip of five to six weeks' duration, to the substantial middle-class traveler who can afford to spend from $800 to $1,500, and even $2,000, in the course of a six to eight weeks' peregrination on the continent, not one seems to be immune from the temptation to buy.

"And then there is the traveler who approaches the millionaire stage of worldly [illegible] who have knowledge of the American of this class [illegible] tived, spend a small fortune for incidental things ranging all the way from clothing to jewelry and minor art objects.

"United States imports of art objects, measured over the past few years, have averaged about $40,000,000 annually. In what are known as boom years, importations have gone as high as $50,000,000.

"It would be quite impossible to get even a fair estimate of the money spent for such things—as difficult, in fact, as it would be to estimate the expenditures of millionaires who fit themselves and their families out at the fashion centers of Europe, and whose purchases of art and historic objects may measure up to a $100,000 marble portico, or $500,000 for the whole side of an ancient dwelling.

"It is not inconceivable that the class of travelers made up of multi-millionaires alone, if they were particularly extravagant and gratified t oo many of their whims, might spend in these ways enough to bring up the total easily to the $500,000,000 mark."

Of course nothing approaching this saving is being spent on American scenery this summer. At least, however, it is being kept in America.

STUNG IN TONSIL BY BEE.

Kingman, Ind., Sept. 29.—Mrs. Ed. Reath was the victim of an unusual accident when she was stung by a bee which she swallowed when eating grapes. The insect in its eagerness to suck out the pulp of the grape, had crawled inside the skin and was not discovered by Mrs. Reath until it objected to being made a Jonah and inserted its stinger in one of the tonsils in her throat. The tonsil swelled badly and the services of a physician were required to remove the stinger.

PLAY TOWN WHERE NOBODY IS POOR

Would Be City With Law and Order and Without Any Bosses.

Kansas City, Sept. 29.—Missouri is to have a new town—a town where everybody works and nobody is poor; a town without political or business bosses; yet a town of law and order, and what is the principal thing—happiness.

That is the plan of Kansas City socialists and, according to Harry Chilton, one of the organizers, the plan has grown to be considerably more than a plan, for things have already progressed so far that half a dozen committees are traveling over the state looking for a town site.

"The idea," Chilton said today, "is to buy about 12,000 or 15,000 acres adjacent to railroad and water facilities and divide it up into tracts to be farmed by members of the organization and their families. Each purchaser will own his land outright, except that a certain portion of all the timber and minerals on the land will belong to the whole community. We will build a public warehouse for the benefit of the whole colony. Every man will be required to do a certain amount of work for the town. There will be no hired help and no town officials. The organization is non-sectarian and non-political. While the movement was started by socialists we have members of all political parties."

Chilton said he had received word from a leading socialist in Chicago that 1,000 families in that city had promised to join the colony. The prospecting party is composed of socialists from Kansas City, Independence, Mo., Trenton, Mo., and Mulberry, Kas. The town will be started just as soon as a favorable site is found.

FOOTBALL VICTIM ELEVEN YEARS OLD

Floyd Rollins, aged 11 years, is the second victim of a football fatality this season. Rollins played on a school team. The other player who died of injuries lived at Lima, O., and was a high school boy. And still hundreds of school authorities throughout the country not only permit but encourage football among young boys. Keep the game where it belongs, among men who have strength to withstand hard play, in the colleges and in fully developed teams, and the death list would be exceedingly small and the game would have a better name. But it is common school and high school football that is slowly and surely killing the game and it will be but a matter of time till it is extinct unless boys are kept from playing.

ATTACKS MOTOR SPEED LAW.

Williamsport, Ind., Sept. 29.—The constitutionality of the state law governing the speed of automobiles and other motor vehicles on the public highways has been attacked in a suit pending in the Warren circuit court. The statute reads: "No person shall drive or operate a motor vehicle or motor bicycle upon any public highway in the state at a speed greater than is reasonable or prudent, having regard for traffic and use of the way, or so as to endanger the life or limb or injure the property of any person."

In a brief, attorneys for Laurel Johnson, who is charged with violating the statute, it is asserted the law is unconstitutional because of its provision for distribution of fines is not enumerated in the constitution. Further, it is set forth that all crimes must be specifically defined by statute. It is also said that there being no common law crimes in Indiana, automobiles are not known to common law, and, therefore, crimes growing out of their speed are not amendable to it.

POLICE CHIEF'S JOB IS OPEN.

Elkhart, Ind., Sept. 29.—The board of police commissioners, in a meeting Saturday night, reduced William H. Roth, chief of police, to patrolman, and temporarily appointed George H. Whiteman, desk sergeant, to the head of the department. It rescinded its recent order reducing O. N. Shellmadine from night sergeant to day patrolman. The changes will become effective October 1. The board is endeavoring to find a suitable man outside the police department to be chief. Experience has taught the board that a man promoted to chief from the department fails to enforce necessary discipline. The board is now negotiating with a man from another city whose identity is not known publicly.

WOMAN'S SMILE IS GETTING HER THE VOTE.

San Francisco, Cal., Sept. 25—"Smile on men and they will give you a vote. Look severe and they won't."

Miss Stevens has what the suffragists term a million-vote smile. Whenever she addresses a meeting of men she smiles and they immediately decide that the women should vote.

"The day of the stern-faced and domineering type of suffragette has passed," said Miss Stevens. "The suffragists of today are not men-haters. They are womanly types, motherly types, loving types, that count in our fight for the enfranchisement of the nation's women."

TO PUT ON FLESH AND INCREASE WEIGHT

Most people eat from four to six pounds of good solid fat-making food every day and still do not increase in weight one ounce, while on the other hand many of the plump, chunky folks eat very lightly and keep gaining all the time. It's all bosh to say that this is the nature of the individual. It isn't Nature's way at all.

Most thin people stay thin because their powers of assimilation are defective. They absorb just enough of the food they eat to maintain life and a semblance of health and strength. Stuffing won't help them. A dozen meals a day won't make them gain a single "stay there" pound. All the fat-producing elements of their food just stay there in the intenstines until they pass from the body as waste. What such people need is something that will prepare these fatty food elements so that their blood can absorb them and deposit them all about the body—something, too, that will multiply their red blood corpuscles and increase their blood's carrying power.

For such a condition it is well to recommend eating a Sargol tablet with every meal. Sargol is not, as some believe a patented drug, but is simply a careful combination of six of the most effective and powerful assimilative and flesh building elements known to chemistry. It is absolutely harmless, yet has been wonderfully effective and a single tablet eaten with each meal often, according to reports of users, has the effect of increasing the weight of a thin man or woman from three to five pounds a week. Sargol is sold by Meyer Bros. Drug Co., Dreier Drug Co., D. & N. Pharmacy, The Family Drug Store, and other good druggists everywhere on a positive guarantee of weight increase or money back.

EASY TO DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it's done so naturally, so evenly. Preparing this mixture, though, at home is musay and troublesome. For 50 cents you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use tonic called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning all gray hair disappears, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully darkened, glossy and luxuriant. You will also discover dandruff is gone and hair has stopped falling.

Gray, faded hair, though no disgrace, is a sign of old age, and as we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur and look years younger.—Adv.

Just the Thing for a Bilious Attack.

Chamberlain's Tablets invigorate the stomach and enable it to perform its functions naturally, they also regulate the bowels. As an agreeable laxative they are unsurpassed. Obtainable everywhere.—Adv.

PREPARING TO INSPECT LINES.

The annual inspection of the Pennsylvania lines west of Pittsburg will begin October 5, when three trains carrying the inspection parties will leave Pittsburg over the Panhandle for Chicago. The itinerary has not been received at the local offices, but it is supposed that the inspection party will pass through Fort Wayne on the 7th or 8th of October, en route east. Night stops of the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago branch will be made at Clark Junction, western terminus of the Western division, and at Robinson, near Crestline. The trains will run through this city without stop.

SAFETY GATES AT WANATAH.

The public service commission of Indiana has ordered arm safety gates placed at Fifth and Sixth streets, Wanatah, by the Pennsylvania company. This action followed a petition from the people of Wanatah for three arm safety gates in that town—at Fifth, Sixth and Seventh streets. In its reply to the petition, the commission said in part:

"The subject of the safety of highway and railroad crossings is of such great importance as to require the best thought and the most skillful advice possible. No one appreciates the importance more than the members of this commission. The frequent reports of fatalities at grade crossings are constant reminders of the dangers already existing, which are multiplying year by year as travel on the highways and traffic on the railroads increase. It seems unnecessary to dwell on the necessity for safety at grade crossings. The important question is how to accomplish the safety of these crossings, yet be fair and reasonable with the railroad companies."

HAD STRING TO INVITATION.

In speaking of the invitation to the Pennsylvania Employes Veteran association to hold the next annual convention in Valparaiso, which the Messenger says was accepted, Agent Hodges, of that city, admitted that the invitation was not inspired wholly by unselfish thoughts. He said: "In a way, there is a string tied to the entertainment. We did not do all this alone for the pleasure of making you have a good time. We want you to go away boosting Valparaiso. We want you to tell the people all along the great Pennsylvania railroad what a splendid university we have here, what nice homes, what beautiful scenery, what true and loyal people. If you are half as good at booming as you are at eating we will have to double the college's capacity.

CRAZY MAN ON MILK TRAIN.

Paul A. Stravinski, aged 24, a student in the Valparaiso university, boarded the Plymouth-Chicago milk train on the Pennsylvania six miles west of Valparaiso yesterday and told the crew that he was running away from the other students, who were going to kill him. The young man gave other evidences of insanity and Patrolman Jones, who was on the train, took him in charge and took him back to Valparaiso, where he is being held awaiting the arrival of his father, a prominent resident of West Hanover, Mass. He is not violent, but is suffering from dementia. Conductor William Peterson had charge of the train.

AT WORK ON FOUNDRY.

Most of the construction work on the foundry building to replace the one burned some weeks ago will be performed by the employes of the Western Gas Construction company. Plans were drawn by the company's draftsmen and the structural iron will be prepared in the boiler shop, leaving only the brick work for outside contractors. The new foundry will be better equipped than was the old and foundry work will be carried on more expeditiously than formerly. The plans contemplate a traveling crane in place of the stationary cranes.

SHOP MUSICAL FEATURE IS GOOD.

Secretary A. J. Cash, of the Railroad Y. M. C. A., is pleased with the success of his first noonday musical entertainment at the Pennsylvania machine shop, which attracted upwards of 150 men yesterday. He will put on a similar program at the east car shops Thursday. As announced by The Sentinel, Secretary Cash will alternate speaking and musical programs at shop meetings hereafter.

WILL GO ON PENSION LIST.

William Emma expects to go on the Pennsylvania retired list November 1. He is only sixty-seven years old, but is sick a good deal and will take advantage of the disability clause which admits employes to pension system after they pass sixty-five. Mr. Emma has worked as a cabinetmaker for the shops ever since 1878.

The last three days of the present month the Wabash shops will be operated nine hours per day, resuming the eight hour day October 1.

Pennsylvania Engineer A. R. Downing has returned from Blackstone, Va., where he spent a week or two with friends.

George W. Grubb, the Pennsylvania engineer who lost an arm two or three days ago, is doing first rate and will recover. Engineer Grubb has worked on the Pennsylvania since 1897.

George Kloepper, formerly a pipefitter in the Wabash shops here, and now employed in the Wabash shops at Montpelier, O., is here for a short visit with relatives.

Conductor Werling, Engineers C. A. Boyce and Arthur Crapser and Fireman F. A. Tew, of the Nickel Plate, have gone to Star Lake, near Baldwin, Mich., for a week's outing.

William P. Mullaby has taken a clerical position at the Nickel Plate yards. He is an experienced railway man, having been employed for several years in the transportation department of the Pennsylvania.

Passenger Engineer R. Rogerson, of the Nickel Plate, is taking a ten days' lay off and in the meantime the engine pulling trains 1 and 6 between this city and Chicago is in charge of Engineer L. B. Larimore.

Foreman Joseph Schwartzkopf, of the punch department of the Fort Wayne Electric works, is increasing his force gradually and will soon have the largest force in the history of the department. B. H. Wagner and A. White were given employment yesterday.

Frank A. Basford is a new employe at the Fort Wayne Electric works, being assigned to the meter department. Mr. Basford recently married Miss B. Waldschmidt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Waldschmidt, as mentioned in a previous issue of The Sentinel.

Edward H. Palmer, a switchman in the G. R. & I. yards at Grand Rapids, known to all the trainmen and enginemen who run into that city, had one of his heels crushed and his scalp cut Monday, when he was struck and knocked down by a switch engine. He will not lose his foot, the doctor says.

Mr. and Mrs. Kirby Jackson and their daughter, the latter a school teacher in Chicago, have returned from a western trip, which included a tour down the Pacific coast, a visit at the Panama-Pacific exposition and the San Diego exposition, the Grand Canyon and Yellowstone Park. Mr. Jackson was formerly an engineer on the Pennsylvania, but has been on the pension list for ten or more years.

Council Ready to Report and Pass Ordinance—Grant Time.

Notwithstanding the members of the city council as a committee of the whole was ready Tuesday evening to make a report recommending the passage of the ordinance to force the paving of Lake avenue from the present pavement to the city limits, according to the plans and specifications of the board of works, Councilman Jacob Aone, of the First ward, yielded to the importunities of realty men interested in property in that region and asked the council to postpone action. The new kink results from the fear that the tarvia pavement proposed is too expensive for what may be only a temporary improvement. A new compromise is sought. No report was made and the matter is just where it was at the last session of the council. Action is delayed two weeks.

Wage Ordinance Held Up.

The committee on fees and salaries reported favorably on the Korte minimum wage ordinance, fixing 20 cents an hour and $50 a month as the minimum wage for city employes and the council concurred in the report, but the measure was not passed. It will be amended before the next meeting to make the monthly minimum $55.

Other Measures in Council.

The council passed ordinances appropriating the sum of $6,000 to the street repair fund, amend the building code as to snow breaks, amending the auctioneer's license fees, approving the contract of the board of park commissioners for acquiring Sieling park, to sell certain junk and tw horses in the fire department, and by suspending the rules, extending the fire limits to include territory where it is desired to compel the razing of some shacks. This includes the region of the new Harrison street bridge.

Council Gives a Hint.

The finance committee in handing down a report recommending the passage of an ordinance appropriating $4,268.10 from the park funds to pay for street intersections in macadamizing Rudisill boulevard from Calhoun street to Broadway, took occasion to make the declaration that funds raised by assessment for park purposes ought not to be used for paving streets, and announced the expectation that at a convenient season the park funds would be reimbursed from the city general funds. The report was concurred in and the ordinance passed. Bids for the grading and paving of Rudisill will be received next Monday.

Traffic Ordinance Passed.

The council resurrected from the committee on rules, regulations and ordinances the measure purposed to divert heavy trucking traffic from Calhoun street and passed it. It forbids the use of trucks bearing more than 1,000 pounds of load from using Calhoun street except to discharge loads. A penalty of $100 is provided. Councilmen Korte and Smith voted against the measure on the ground that heavy traffic would destroy the pavements on Clinton and Harrison streets.

WILL APPROVE GARBAGE PLAN.

The board of works and the special committee of the city council on a new garbage disposal plant held a meeting late Tuesday night and the committee expressed its approval of the board's plan to employ at a fee of $600 the services of Samuel A. Greeley, a garbage engineer of Milwaukee, to make a garbage survey of Fort Wayne and prepare plans for new garbage incinerators here. The council committee insists that the board procure a second new site for a crematory, holding that two should be erected. This plan has the approval of both the board and Engineer Greeley. Whether or not the site at the west end of Huestis avenue, on which the board has an option, will depend somewhat on the engineer's recommendations. The council committee will recommend at the next session that the contract with the engineer be approved.

ARTHUR E. PATTISON DEAD.

Widow Was Formerly Miss Martie Irwin of This City.

Many Fort Wayne friends of Mrs. Arthur E. Pattison, formerly Miss Martie Irwin, of this city, will regret to hear of the death of Mr. Pattison at his home, 76 Woodside avenue, Ridgewood, N. J., on Tuesday, Sept. 21. Mr. Pattison's death was very sudden, but no cause was given in the account sent to friends in this city. Mr. Pattison was 57 years old and a member of the Royal Arcanum. The funeral was held in Christ Episcopal church, of which Mr. Pattison was a member, and interment was made in Norwalk, Conn. Mrs. Pattison and four sons and two daughters survive. Mrs. Pattison was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Irwin, who for many years were prominent residents of this city. CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS.

Chicago, Sept. 29.—Wheat developed fresh strength today, influenced by unfavorable weather and by bullish foreign advices. The opening here, which ranged from a shade to 1c higher, was followed by some additional gain, and then a reaction all around.

The close was unsettled, 1c to 1⅜c net lower, with December at 94⅝@94¾c, and May at 97¼@97⅜c.

Cool temperatures gave only temporary firmness to corn. After opening ⅜c off to ¼@⅜c up the market tended to sag.

The close was nervous, ¼c to 2c under last night.

Oats held steady owing to absence of any decided pressure to sell.

Provisions gave way with hogs.

THE DAY ON WALL STREET.

New York, Sept. 29.—Aside from a resumption of the upward movement in specialties, publication of the terms of the Anglo-French loan failed to exercise a stimulating influence at the outset of today's trading, investment shares again receiving scant attention. There were numerous "wide" openings in the war specialties. Baldwin Locomotive overshadowing all others with a sale of 8,000 shares at 135 to 140, a maximum gain of 12. The lists showed signs of heavy profit taking after the outburst and reactions of three to ten points followed.

The reaction, resulting largely from heavy realizing, temporarily unsettled the list but had no effect on the large outpourings of stock, the first hour's business being estimated at 450,000 shares. Later prices showed more regularity. U. S. Steel's rise of three-quarters to 79½ being a helpful factor. Crucible Steel, which rose six to the new high record of 107¼, and Lackawanna Steel 9⅝ to 91½, also a record, together with a few other specialties, took the place of some early leaders at midday, when trading became more normal. Bonds were firm.

IN THE CHURCHES

Rev. John Walton, Pastor of Immanuel Baptist Church Resigns.

Rev. John Walton, pastor of Immanuel Baptist church, formerly the Oliver street branch, has tendered his resignation to his congregation and intends to re-enter union evangelistic work, at which he was engaged before entering the ministry here three yars ago. When he came to this city he was made assistant pastor of the First Baptist church and was placed in charge of the mission and branches. He paid particular attention to the Oliver street branch and under his guidance this little mission developed into a congregation, making a gain of 191 members in thirty-one months. A church was then organized and a place of worship was built.

Previous to coming to this city he was placed in charge of a congregation at Garrett, which at the time he took charge had thirty-one members. Nine years later the membership of this congregation had increased to 600, one of the largest in the state.

Rev. Walton states that although the Immanuel Baptist congregation has not as yet accepted his resignation, that it will be final, for he set his heart and soul in entering upon evangelistic work, similar to that as conducted by Dr. M. H. Lyon and Billy Sunday. Rev. Walton feels that he has been called to become a union evangelist.

Mrs. Walton, who is a beautiful singer, as is also Rev. Walton, will assist her husband in his new work and will take charge of the music. He will enter the evangelistic field as soon as opportunity affords.

COUNTY CONVICTS ARE PUT TO WORK

Half a score of convicts doing time in the jail have been put to work under the supervision of County Road Superintendent William Tonkel building the concrete bottom for the new tool house the commissioners have authorized for the use of the road department. The building is being constructed on county property adjoining the west wall of the jail. The men detailed from the jail crowd for outside work have gone at the job with a deal more enthusiasm than might be expected and up to a late hour Wednesday afternoon none of them had attempted to escape.

It has been found that the ash of the seaweed found on the shores of Manilla bay yields 15 per cent. potash.
